For each question, write your answers (A-H) in the boxes provided.

TYPES OF FESTIVALS

People celebrate festivals every year. Festivals are celebrated for various reasons. (25) Others are inspired by religious activities, music, food, art or the changing of seasons.

People remember special days because they bring special meaning to them. There are some festivals meant to honour people, events or important moments in a nation's history. (26) Therefore, they can be considered as national festivals. These types of festivals help to foster the patriotic spirit in a nation.

Many festivals are linked to religions. They are important to families and communities. (27) Through the festivals, people can learn more about their religions, traditions, principles and beliefs from one generation to the next.

Some festivals connect people to nature and the changing seasons. (28) People sing, dance and participate in traditional activities to mark the end of a harvesting season and the start of a new farming season. Festivals are also connected to the changing of seasons.

(29) They introduce people to a wide range of artistic works and performances. People will get the chance to enjoy what the world's best artists, musicians and performers have to offer.

Some festivals are connected to food. They offer delicacies of different communities and nations in one location. Visitors get to taste different flavours prepared using a variety of ingredients. (30)

All festivals are joyous occasions. They help to strengthen the bond among people and foster happiness and harmony.

A	Harvest festivals are celebrated by certain ethnic communities.
B	They connect people to their country.
C	They gather to celebrate the latest work of arts.
D	There are also festivals that celebrate arts, music and film.
E	Some festivals are celebrated to remember special days.
