Ylimaki, Stephen L. Jacobson, 2011-02-16 As educational policy trends converge in many countries such as demands for greater accountability decentralization and more culturally sensitive practices for an increasingly diverse student body there is growing interest in cross national comparisons and generalizations about leadership qualities and practices that result in successful schools US and Cross National Policies Practices and Preparation Implications for Successful Instructional Leadership Organizational Learning and Culturally Responsive Practices fills that need by bringing together triads of scholars from the International Study of Successful School Principals ISSPP to make direct comparisons among policies and practices in the U S with those in other national contexts and then to draw implications for improving leadership preparation This book provides theories and empirical case study examples of instructional leadership organizational learning and culturally responsive practices as they are shaped by political economic and cultural factors in seven different national contexts The seven countries featured in this book are the U S Australia Denmark England Sweden Norway and Cyprus The book begins with an overview of the ISSPP including its underlying theoretical framework its research methodologies employed its limitations and how analyses of the project s data and findings evolved from the first phase of the study to its current focus Leadership for Change and School Reform Kathryn Riley, Karen Seashore Louis, 2013-01-11 School reform is a top priority for governments today This timely and challenging book edited by leading international researchers Kathryn Riley and Karen Seashore Louis offers a rich comparative perspective on leadership for change and school reform Contributors from North America Europe and Australia demonstrate how school leadership is influenced by global pressures differing national and state contexts and local concerns They illustrate the limitations of reform initiatives which focus on school leaders to the exclusion of the many other organisations which affect school such as national and local governments professional associations and school communities This book raises some important questions such as How can school leaders create intelligent thinking schools How can leadership and learning be linked together What are the characteristics of effective local education authorities and school districts What is the role of teacher organisations in educational reform and change What happens if businesses teachers parents and local communities have different views of what makes a good school The text illustrates the ways in which leadership is rooted in learning and identifies new directions for school leadership It challenges conventional notions of leadership offering an expanded view which sees leadership just as an individual role based function but as a network of relationships among people structures and cultures This lively and provocative book should be read by all those interested in education reform

Leadership Lessons from Comprehensive School Reforms Joseph Murphy, Amanda Datnow, 2003 Leadership Lessons From Comprehensive School Reform addresses a topic that has received far too little attention in the comprehensive school reform movement the role of school and district leaders in the reform process This volume shows how much we've learned about how leaders shape comprehensive reform and how the reform process must shape leadership Robert Slavin Co Director Center for Research on the Education of Students Placed at Risk Johns Hopkins University This volume provides the most thorough balanced and informative source available on comprehensive school reform In addition to insights regarding implementation of many of the most prominent CSR models the book is a primer on distributed leadership providing perspectives on the interplay of principals teacher leaders central office administrators and model developers engaged in school and district reform James Lytle Superintendent Trenton New Jersey Public Schools This book offers well grounded insights about the leadership practices of educators involved in the implementation of Comprehensive School Reform models Leaders and leadership scholars will find it a rewarding read I recommend it highly Kenneth Leithwood Ontario Institute for Studies in Education Ontario Canada Discover what we've learned about educational leadership from comprehensive school reforms models straight from the experts and insiders Comprehensive School Reform CSR is proving to be one of the most promising avenues for improving student achievement The authors have found that leadership is frequently acknowledged to be a prime factor in the successful implementation of comprehensive school reform Murphy and Datnow have gathered together a group of CSR insiders and researchers to examine the issue of leadership in CSR for the first time Contributors and CSR models include Expeditionary Learning Schools Modern Red Schoolhouse Co Nect Success for All New American Schools Chicago Annenberg Challenge Bay Area School Reform Collaborative Accelerated Schools Coalition of Essential Schools Comer School Development Process

Perspectives on School Leadership in Asia Pacific Contexts Salleh Hairon, Jonathan Wee Pin Goh, 2019-08-06 This book casts a refreshingly new light on current literature on school leadership which has predominantly been viewed through Western lenses Accordingly key concepts and theories on leadership and school leadership have primarily been generated from thinking and research in the Western sphere This is problematic considering the fact that the leadership concept or construct and its practices are significantly influenced and shaped by contexts and even situations However there are various contextual conditions and forces that can separately or collectively affect how school leadership is understood and practiced including social cultural historical geographical economic and political conditions In response the book seeks to provide readers a better awareness of how the leadership construct or phenomenon is shaped by the varying contexts constantly affecting school leadership while specifically focusing on the Asia Pacific region In turn it highlights various Asia Pacific contexts that shape school leadership so as to speak back to existing theories on school leadership
