The holistic and comprehensive nature of higher education that aims to instill a range of ethical moral and social values in students is paramount. The graduates that enter the workforce must unfailingly become responsible members of society and inadvertently contribute to the nation's prosperity and global harmony. Strong leadership and the agency to keep learning are unavoidable. Furthermore, the vast technological advances may drive practices that prioritize social responsibility, sustainability, and well-being. Digital Leadership for Sustainable Higher Education presents key parameters for transforming higher education in response to the significant and unforeseen changes in the educational landscape. It explores the vast technological advances together with the complexities of the higher education ecosystem and proposes ways to uphold purpose-driven practices. Covering topics such as digital health credentialing and nurturing empathy, this book is an excellent resource for educators, higher education leaders, technologists, sustainability experts, professionals, researchers, scholars, academicians, and more.

Integral Community Enterprise in Africa Anselm Adodo, 2017-04-03. This book demonstrates that an institutionalized model of business and enterprise based on nature, community, spirituality, and humanism, as demonstrated by a Nigerian community enterprise, is a better driver of social and technological innovation in Africa. Father Anselm Adodo proposes the theory of Communitarianism as a more indigenous, sustainable, and integral approach to tackling the social, political, economic, and developmental challenges of today's Africa and offers this as an African alternative to Capitalism, Socialism, and Communism, a surer path to sustainable development in and from Africa.

Population Health: Creating a Culture of Wellness David B. Nash, JoAnne Reifsnnyder, Raymond J. Fabius, Valerie P. Pracilio, 2010-08-16. With over 45.7 million uninsured in the United States and health reform a national priority, the need for population health management has never been more eminent. Sixty percent of American deaths are attributable to behavioral factors, social circumstances, and environmental exposures. Employment of population health management techniques, advocating use of preventative services and quality clinical care, are imperative.
