Resisting Hitler:

Resisting Hitler Shareen Blair Brysac, 2002-05-23 This gripping and heartbreaking narrative is the first full account of an American woman who gave her life in the struggle against the Nazi regime As members of a key resistance group Mildred Harnack and her husband Arvid assisted in the escape of German Jews and political dissidents and for years provided vital economic and military intelligence to both Washington and Moscow But in 1942 following a Soviet blunder the Gestapo arrested tortured and tried some four score members of the Harnacks group which the Nazis dubbed the Red Orchestra Mildred Fish Harnack was guillotined in Berlin on February 16 1943 on the personal instruction of Adolf Hitler she was the only American woman to be executed as an underground conspirator during World War II Yet as the war ended and the Cold War began her courage idealism and self sacrifice went largely unacknowledged in America and the democratic West and were distorted and sanitized in the Communist East Only now with the opening of long sealed archives from Germany the KGB the CIA and the FBI can the full story be told In this superbly told life of an unjustly forgotten woman Shareen Blair Brysac depicts the human side of a controversial resistance group that for too long has been portrayed as merely a Soviet espionage network

Defying Hitler Gordon Thomas, Greg Lewis, 2019-04-23 A terrifying and timely account of resistance in the face of the greatest of evils Alex Kershaw New York Times bestselling author of The First Wave An enthralling story that vividly resurrects the web of everyday Germans who resisted Nazi rule Nazi Germany is remembered as a nation of willing fanatics But beneath the surface countless ordinary everyday Germans actively resisted Hitler Some passed industrial secrets to Allied spies Some forged passports to help Jews escape the Reich For others resistance was as simple as writing a letter denouncing the rigidity of Nazi law No matter how small the act the danger was the same any display of defiance was met with arrest interrogation torture and even death Defying Hitler follows the underground network of Germans who believed standing against the Fuhrer to be more important than their own survival Their bravery is astonishing a schoolgirl beheaded by the Gestapo for distributing anti Nazi fliers a German American teacher who smuggled military intel to Soviet agents becoming the only American woman executed by the Nazis a pacifist philosopher murdered for his role in a plot against Hitler a young idealist who joined the SS to document their crimes only to end up to his horror an accomplice to the Holocaust This remarkable account illuminates their struggles yielding an accessible narrative history with the pace and excitement of a thriller

The Strategic Air War Against Germany and Japan Haywood S. Hansell, 1986

The strategic air war against Germany and Japan : a memoir, Hitler's Banker Jean-François Bouchard, 2023-07-04 1932 The economic crisis in Germany was unprecedented a severe recession 6 million unemployed and a collapse in the popularity of Chancellor Brüning who was criticized for his lack of foresight and who stubbornly focused on a single objective reducing public deficits and restoring the state's finances under pressure from other European countries All the while far right parties which would soon take power were experiencing an irrepressible rise How can one not be struck by the similarity between the economic and political situation in Germany in 1932 and that of some Western countries in 2022 In a fictionalized biography tracing the astonishing career of Hjalmar Schacht a German financial genius of the last century Jean François Bouchard indirectly highlights the interest in drawing inspiration from the economic methods that worked at that time With this perspective the current economic situation does not seem to be without a solution In 1933 Hitler appointed Hjalmar Schacht as Minister of the Economy A child from a modest background severely raised in the working class neighborhoods of the port of Elba brilliant at school but also mocked by his classmates he developed a distant haughty and arrogant personality very early on After studying philosophy and economics he wrote his thesis on mercantilism he climbed the ladder of power one step at a time As currency commissioner of the Weimar Republic Hjalmar Schacht reduced inflation and stabilized the Mark with a miraculous initiative the creation of a transitional currency the Rentenmark backed by mortgages The population embraced the idea It was a masterly success For Schacht the savior of German currency devotion to his country was boundless He became close to the NSDAP and participated in Hitler's rise to power attracted by his economic program Quickly appointed president of the Reichsbank in a still very weak Germany he did not try to restore the balance of the state's accounts Quite the contrary Abolishing the dogma of balanced public finances he applied an economic policy close to the New Deal launching major works and implemented his own solutions repatriation of German capital limiting imports to only those raw materials necessary for rearmament organizing Germany's insolvency vis vis external creditors creating MEFO bills etc It was the end of unemployment that became the factor of social stabilization for Adolf Hitler and of consolidation of his power and of military hegemony In this regard sadly the incredible story of Hjalmar Schacht is the most painful demonstration of this process Jean Francois Bouchard began a classic executive career in 1986 after studying law with positions in the banking industry and at the corporate level He also taught financial analysis at the University of Toulon In 1995 he joined the Inspection Generale de la Banque de France From then on he carried out control missions in French and foreign banks France Europe the Caribbean and Africa as a specialist in banking supervision risk control and the fight against money laundering In 2005 he was resident advisor for two years to the National Bank of Romania where on behalf of the European Commission he piloted the upgrading program of this institution in view of Romania's admission to the European Union which took place on January 1 2007 He then went to Bulgaria to work on the preparation of that country's entry into the euro a project that did not materialize in the end due to the turbulence in the euro zone and the Bulgarian political authorities preferred to give up Back in France he was appointed head of mission at the Autorite de contr le prudentiel he also headed the Lyon branch of the Banque de France for three years As head of mission he participated in the major European bank assessment exercise before the European Central Bank took over banking supervision in the framework of the Banking Union At the end of this large project he left in June 2014 as resident advisor to the International Monetary Fund in Libreville Gabon He is in charge of banking supervision for Central Africa i e the six countries of the CEMAC zone Gabon Cameroon Equatorial Guinea Central African Republic Congo Brazzaville and Chad as well as for the Democratic Republic of Congo Congo Kinshasa and Burundi Hitler's Charisma Laurence Rees, 2014-01-28 At the age of twenty four in 1913 Adolf Hitler was eking out a living as a painter of pictures for tourists in Munich Nothing marked him in any way as exceptional but he did possess certain distinguishing characteristics a capacity to hate an inability to accept criticism and a massive overconfidence in his own abilities He was a socially and emotionally inadequate individual without direction from whence came a sense of personal mission that would transform these weaknesses and liabilities into strengths certainties that would provide him not only with a sense of identity but of purpose in a communal enterprise This is the focus of Laurence Rees s social psychological and historical investigation into a personality that would end up articulating the hopes and dreams of millions of Germans With 16 pages of black and white illustrations World War II George R.
