historical consciousness Gender and Identity Formation in Contemporary Mexican Literature Marina Pérez de Mendiola, 1998 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Borges and the Politics of Form Jose Eduardo Gonzalez, 2013-05-13 Jorge Luis Borges one of the most important Latin American writers has also attained considerable international stature and his work is commonly cited in a wide array of scholarship on contemporary fiction Partly as a consequence of Borges international identity and partly because of a long standing view in Borges criticism that his writing is principally concerned with abstract ideas critics have been reluctant to address the question of politics in his writing Filling this critical gap Gonzalez begins by rejecting the proposition that Borges withdraws from the real and provides a detailed analysis of the various political issues that Borges takes up in his essays and short stories The author places particular emphasis on the turbulent questions that shaped Argentine social history during the period of Borges output Flash and Crash Days David George, 2002-09-11 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Readers and Writers in Cuba Pamela María Smorkaloff, 1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Written in Exile Ignacio Lopez-Calvo, 2019-07-16 On September 11 1973 Chile's General Pinochet led a quick and brutal military coup ousting the Allende government Ignacio Lopez Calvo argues that the rise of the Pinochet dictatorship and the subsequent imprisonment of any Allende sympathizers shaped Chilean narrative into two structural forms liberationist narrative cathartic journalistic testimonies that provide models for revolutionary behavior against authoritarianism and demystifying narrative which uses the events of 1973 as well as the colonial aspirations of European countries as a Paradise Lost backdrop in which the characters of this type of fiction are able to create their non political realities that become models of democratization
