President,2000 Inside the United Nations Gert Rosenthal,2017-03-16 Inside the United Nations illustrates some of the parameters surrounding consensus building at the United Nations seeking to provide new insights beyond what is already known The author spent twelve years as P R of Guatemala at the UN offering him privileged observatories in all three of the main inter governmental organs the General Assembly the Economic and Social Council and the Security Council In this book Rosenthal focuses on six case studies that offer the breadth and scope of what the UN does and illustrate some of the main elements of the dynamics of consensus building providing concrete examples of the ingredients that shape decision making in a multilateral setting The chapters cover the origin preparation and outcome of two successful international conferences the 2000 Millennium Summit and the 2002 International Conference on Financing for Development look at the 2000 negotiation on the scale of assessments to finance the UN s budget in the General Assembly s fifth committee 2000 2001 focus on the relevance of the Economic and Social Council consider the internal politics involved in vying for elected posts in intergovernmental bodies by focusing on the campaign to be elected to the Security Council between Guatemala and Venezuela in 2006 reflect on the peculiarities of decision making in the Security Council Providing an insider s view on the UN and exploring different facets of multilateral diplomacy at the UN this book will be of great use and interest to scholars of international relations as well as the diplomatic community A Human Rights Framework for Intellectual Property, Innovation and Access to Medicines Joo-Young Lee,2016-03-09 This book examines the relationship between intellectual property in pharmaceuticals and access to medicines from a human rights perspective with a view to contributing to the development of a human rights framework that can guide States in enacting and implementing intellectual property law and policy The study primarily explores whether conflicts between patents and human rights in the context of access to medicines are inevitable or whether patents can be made to serve human rights What could be a normative framework that human rights might provide for patents and innovation Joo Young Lee argues that it is necessary to have a deepened understanding of each of the two sets of norms that govern this issue that is patent law and international human rights law The chapters investigate the relevant dimensions of patent law and analyse particular human rights bearing upon the issue of intellectual property and access to medicines This study will be of great interest to academic specialists practitioners or professionals in the fields of human rights trade and intellectual property as well as policy makers activists and health professionals across the world working in intellectual property and human rights PC Mag, 1997-06-24 PCMag com is a leading authority on technology delivering Labs based independent reviews of the latest products and services Our expert industry analysis and practical solutions help you make better buying decisions and get more from technology

What Can One Person Do? Sabina Alkire, Edmund Newell, 2005-10 Addresses the challenge of living in a world broken by intractable issues of poverty and injustice and offers meditations followed by practical suggestions on how churches and individuals can actually make a difference What Can One Person Do confronts a poverty stricken world and with clarity of purpose offers practical steps to create lasting change Global poverty can be reduced through a series of achievable objectives the eight Millennium Development goals agreed to by the international community at the Millennium Summit in 2000 World leaders and faith communities have adopted the MDGs as well as the ideas found within this book for the authors demonstrate that as shared vision grows and as these goals are accomplished human communities shall indeed flourish

International Development Assistance Olav Stokke, 2019-03-08 This book provides a comprehensive search for the basic political drivers of international development cooperation based on the policy and performance of the OECD countries from the early 1960s to the present The author focuses on the stated and implemented policies of the four so called frontrunners and the Western hegemon scrutinizing the changing trends in the justifications objectives and guidelines set for the policy and their evolving performance vis vis the international ODA target Through extensive research the work examines predominant world views societal value systems and foreign policy traditions in order to find the policy drivers that vary nation to nation and how development assistance has evolved globally

International Organizations and the Law of the Sea 2002 Barbara Kwiatkowska, Harm Dotinga, Erik J. Molenaar, Alex G. Oude Elferink, Alfred H.A. Soons, 2005-04-01 This is the last volume in the Series Now in its 18th year the NILOS Documentary Yearbook provides the reader with an excellent collection of documents related to ocean affairs and the law of the sea issued each year by organizations organs and bodies of the United Nations system Documents of the UN General Assembly and Security Council Meeting of States Parties to the UN Law of the Sea Convention CLCS ISBA ITLOS Follow ups to the UN Fish Stocks and Small Island States Conferences WSSD ECOSOC UNEP and UNCTAD are reproduced first followed by the documents of FAO IAEA IMO and UNESCO IOC As in the previous volumes documents which were issued in the course of 2002 are reproduced while other relevant documents are listed The NILOS Documentary Yearbook has proved to be of invaluable assistance in facilitating access of the international community of scholars and practitioners in ocean affairs and the law of the sea to essential documentation The entry of the 1982 UN Law of the Sea Convention into force in 1994 and of the Part XI Agreement in 1996 as well as of the UN Fish Stocks Agreement in 2001 coupled with the ongoing follow up to review of the UNCED Agenda 21 by the 2002 Johannesburg World Summit make continuation of this assistance of particular significance in the years to come The members of the Yearbook s Advisory Board are Judges Abdul Koroma and Shigeru Oda of the ICJ UNDOALOS Director Dr Vladimir Golitsyn ITLOS President Dolliver Nelson and Judges Thomas Mensah and Tullio Treves as well as Rosalie Balkin Edward Brown Bernard Oxman and Shabtai Rosenne World Report on Child Injury Prevention M. M. Peden,2008 Child injuries are largely absent from child survival initiatives presently on the global agenda Through this report the World Health Organization the United Nations Children s Fund and many partners have set out to elevate child injury to a priority for the global public health and development communities It should be seen as a complement to the UN Secretary General s study on violence against children released in late 2006 that report addressed violence related or intentional injuries Both reports suggest that child injury and violence prevention programs need to be integrated into child survival and other broad strategies focused on improving the lives of children Evidence demonstrates the dramatic successes in child injury prevention in countries which have made a concerted effort These results make a case for increasing investments in human resources and institutional capacities Implementing proven interventions could save more than a thousand children s lives a day p vii Research Handbook on International Solidarity and the Law Cecilia M. Bailliet,2024-04-12 This comprehensive and insightful Research Handbook addresses the interpretation of international solidarity within topical legal regimes and regional systems as well as in relation to decolonization and the concepts of Ummah and Ubuntu It examines the way in which international solidarity enables the global community to respond to intercontinental challenges including climate change forced migration health emergencies and inequality
