How Should We Live? John Kekes, 2014-09-08 A lucid careful tenacious and always accessible inquiry into practical morality for everyday life by the author of The Roots of Evil Notre Dame Philosophical Reviews For centuries moral philosophers have sought a single overriding ideal that should guide everyone always everywhere And after centuries of debate we re no closer to arriving at one In How Should We Live philosopher John Kekes offers a refreshing alternative eschewing absolute ideals and considering our lives as they really are day by day subject to countless vicissitudes and unforeseen obstacles Kekes argues that ideal theories are abstractions from the realities of everyday life The well known arenas where absolute ideals conflict such as abortion euthanasia plea bargaining privacy and other hotly debated topics should not be the primary concerns of moral thinking Instead Kekes focuses on quotidian dilemmas such as how we should use our limited time energy or money how we balance short and long term satisfactions how we deal with conflicting loyalties how we control our emotions how we deal with people we dislike and so on Along the way Kekes engages some of our most important theorists including Donald Davidson Thomas Nagel Christine Korsgaard Harry Frankfurt Charles Taylor Alasdair MacIntyre and Bernard Williams to demonstrate that no single ideal whether autonomy love duty happiness or truthfulness trumps any other Instead How Should We Live offers a way of balancing them using a practical and pluralistic approach
