Responding To Crises In The African Great Lakes:

Responding to Crises in the African Great Lakes G. Evans, 2014-01-09 Examines the international responses to the ethnic conflicts in Burundi and Rwanda from 1993 1997 and their overspill into Zaire Concludes that the external reaction was impotent and incoherent and urges a number of changes in response by the international community Responding to Crises in the African Great Lakes Glynne Evans, 1997 African Borders, Conflict, Regional and Continental Integration Innocent Moyo, Christopher Changwe Nshimbi, 2019-04-25 This book looks at the ways African borders impact war and conflict as well as the ways continental integration could contribute towards cooperation peace and well being in Africa African borders or borderlands can be a source of problems and opportunity There is often a historical geospatial and geopolitical architecture rooted in trajectories of war conflict and instability which could be transformed into those of peace regional and continental integration and development An example is the cross border and regional response to the Boko Haram insurgency in West Africa This book engages with cross border forms of cooperation and opportunity in Africa It considers initiatives and innovations which can be put in place or are already being employed on the ground within the current regional and continental integration projects Another important element is that of cross border informality which similarly provides a ready resource that if properly harnessed and regulated could unleash the development potential of African borders and borderlands Students and scholars within Geography International Relations and Border Studies will find this book useful It will also benefit civil society practitioners policymakers and activists in the NGO sector interested in issues such as migration social cohesion citizenship and local development State Failure in Sub-Saharan Africa Catherine Scott, 2017-06-30 How should failed states in Africa be understood Catherine Scott here critically engages with the concept of state failure and provides an historical reinterpretation She shows that although the concept emerged in the context of the post Cold War new world order the phenomenon has been attendant throughout and even before the development of the Westphalian state system Contemporary failed states however differ from their historical counterparts in one fundamental respect they fail within their existing borders and continue to be recognised as something that they are not This peculiarity derives from international norms instituted in the era of decolonisation which resulted in the inviolability of state borders and the supposed universality of statehood Scott argues that contemporary failed states are in fact failed post colonies Thus understood state failure is less the failure of existing states and more the failed rooting and institutionalisation of imported and reified models of Western statehood Drawing on insights from the histories of Uganda and Burundi from pre colonial polity formation to the present day she explores why and how there have been failures to create effective and legitimate national states within the bounds of inherited colonial jurisdictions on much of the African continent Peacebuilding, Power, and Politics in Africa Devon Curtis, Gwinyayi A. Dzinesa, 2012-09-21 Peacebuilding Power and Politics in Africa is a critical reflection on peacebuilding efforts in Africa The authors expose the tensions and contradictions in different clusters of peacebuilding activities including peace negotiations statebuilding security sector governance and disarmament demobilization and reintegration Essays also address the institutional framework for peacebuilding in Africa and the ideological underpinnings of key institutions including the African Union NEPAD the African Development Bank the Pan African Ministers Conference for Public and Civil Service the UN Peacebuilding Commission the World Bank and the International Criminal Court The volume includes on the ground case study chapters on Sudan the Great Lakes Region of Africa Sierra Leone and Liberia the Niger Delta Southern Africa and Somalia analyzing how peacebuilding operates in particular African contexts The authors adopt a variety of approaches but they share a conviction that peacebuilding in Africa is not a script that is authored solely in Western capitals and in the corridors of the United Nations Rather the writers in this volume focus on the interaction between local and global ideas and practices in the reconstitution of authority and livelihoods after conflict The book systematically showcases the tensions that occur within and between the many actors involved in the peacebuilding industry as well as their intended beneficiaries It looks at the multiple ways in which peacebuilding ideas and initiatives are reinforced questioned reappropriated and redesigned by different African actors A joint project between the Centre for Conflict Resolution in Cape Town South Africa and the Centre of African Studies at the University of Cambridge

African Crisis Response Initiative-- the New U.S. Africa Policy Werner Biermann,1999 The publication looks at the most recent turn in the United States policy in Africa The so called ACRI African Crisis Response Initiative defines the new policy outlook that restores the U S as the major player in Africa s political games Backing from local client states combines with military elements and both seem to promise earliest possible intervention in emerging socio political crises that if unimpeded might easily threatened international politics and American global leadership The author is reader in sociology and co director of ikoplan a research network of economics and social science at the University of Paderborn Africa's Peacemaker? Kurt Shillinger,2009 South Africa has done much in the 15 years since the fall of apartheid to establish its leadership on the continent It has been a constant architect of Africa s new peace and security architecture and an advocate of new diplomatic norms Demilitarisation and Peace-Building in Southern Africa Peter Batchelor,2018-12-17 First published in 2004 this work is based on a collaborative research project this trilogy considers the dynamics of demilitarisation and peace building in southern Africa in the aftermath of major violent conflicts The overall aim of the research is to support and facilitate the achievement of sustainable peace and human development in southern Africa by analysing demilitarisation and peace building processes in the region and identifying policy options and interventions for peace building The central focus of the research is the extent to which demilitarisation following the termination of wars has contributed to broad processes of peace building in the affected region Has the military in southern Africa downsized and refocused towards new roles Has there been a peace dividend allowing more investment in economic and human development thereby dealing with some of the root causes of conflict Volume I provides a conceptual framework for the analysis of demilitarisation and peace building processes applicable particularly in the southern Africa context This volume argues that a broad concept of peace building has to take into account economic political social and cultural factors at the local national and regional level United Nations Peacekeeping in Africa Since 1960 Norrie Macqueen, 2014-07-30

United Nations Peacekeeping in Africa provides an exploration of United Nations military intervention in Africa from its beginnings in the Congo in 1960 to the new operations of the twenty first century The scene is set by an examination of the theoretical bases both of United Nations peacekeeping and of Africa s post independence politics and international relations The peacekeeping project in Africa is then described on a region by region basis Central Africa Southern Africa West Africa the Horn and Trans Saharan Africa with comparisons and contrasts within and between each part of Africa highlighted throughout A number of key questions are considered how have developments in the broader international system affected conflicts in Africa what are the internal and external forces which have caused African states to fail and collapse how have external powers used UN Peacekeeping in pursuit of their own political agendas what determines success and failure in African peacekeeping are there African solutions to African problems which could supplant UN involvement As well as providing an account of UN involvement the book is concerned to explore the long historical origins of the African conflicts with which the UN has been engaged Written in an engaging and accessible manner United Nations Peacekeeping in Africa provides an invaluable examination of the complex issues surrounding UN interventions in Africa Africa Various

Authors, 2013-01-11 Complete set Since 1961 the Adelphi Papers have provided some of the most informed accounts of international and strategic relations Produced by the world renowned International Institute of Strategic Studies each paper provides a short account of a subject of topical interest by a leading military figure policy maker or academic The project reprints the first forty years of papers arranged into thematic sets The collection as a whole provides a rich and insightful account of international affairs during a period which spans the second half of the Cold War the fall of the communist bloc and the emergence of a new regime with the United States as the sole superpower There is a wealth of global coverage Four volumes on east and southeast Asia as well as individual volumes on China Japan and Korea Particular attention is given to the Middle East with volumes addressing internal sources of instability geo politics and the role of the superpowers the Israel Palestine conflict and the Iran Iraq War and the first Gulf War There is also a volume on oil and insecurity There are also two volumes on Africa the site of most of the world s wars during the period The IISS has obviously made a particular contribution to the understanding of military strategy and this is reflected with material on topics such as urban and guerrilla warfare nuclear deterrence and the role of information in modern warfare Volumes on military strategy are complemented by approaches from other disciplines such as defence economics Key selling points Early papers were only distributed by the IISS and will have achieved limited penetration of the academic market A host of major authors on a range of different subjects eg Gerald Segal on China Michael Leifer on Southeast Asia Sir Lawrence Freidman on the revolution in military affairs Raymond Vernon on multinationals and defence economics Individual volumes will have a strong appeal to different markets eg the volume on defence economics for economists various volumes for Asian Studies etc Modern Genocide Paul R. Bartrop, Steven Leonard Jacobs, 2014-12-17 This massive four volume work provides students with a close examination of 10 modern genocides enhanced by documents and introductions that provide additional historical and contemporary context for learning about and understanding these tragic events Modern Genocide The Definitive Resource and Document Collection spans nearly 1 700 pages presented in four volumes and includes more than 120 primary source documents making it ideal for high school and beginning college students studying modern genocide as part of a larger world history curriculum The coverage for each modern genocide from Herero to Darfur begins with an introductory essay that helps students conceptualize the conflict within an international context and enables them to better understand the complex role genocide has played in the modern world There are hundreds of entries on atrocities organizations individuals and other aspects of genocide each written to serve as a springboard to meaningful discussion and further research The coverage of each genocide includes an introductory overview an explanation of the causes consequences perpetrators victims and bystanders the international reaction a timeline of events an Analyze section that poses tough questions for readers to consider and provides scholarly pro and con responses to these historical conundrums and reference entries This integrated examination of genocides occurring in the modern era not only presents an unprecedented research tool on the subject but also challenges the readers to go back and examine other events historically and consequently consider important questions about human society in the present and the future Historical Dictionary of the Democratic Republic of the Congo Emizet Francois Kisangani, 2016-11-18 This book looks at 55 years of independence over eight decades of colonial rule and earlier kingdoms and groups that shared the Congolese territory This fourth edition highlights new developments and the increasing importance of the DRC in the Great Lakes Region and Africa in particular as well as its important role in the international environment This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of the Democratic Republic of the Congo contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Democratic Republic of the Congo Africa and the Americas Richard M. Juang, Noelle Morrisette, 2008-03-12 This encyclopedia explores the many long standing influences of Africa and people of African descent on the culture of the Americas while tracing the many ways in which the Americas remain closely interconnected with Africa Ranging from the 15th century to the present Africa and the Americas Culture Politics and History explores the many ways Africa and African peoples have shaped the cultural life of the Americas and how in turn life in the Americas reverberates in Africa This groundbreaking three volume encyclopedia offers hundreds of alphabetically organized entries on African history nations and peoples plus African influenced aspects of life in the Americas It also features authoritative introductory essays on history culture and religion demography international relations economics and trade and arts and literature In doing so it traces the complex and continuous movement of peoples of African descent to the West the mechanics and lingering effects of colonialism and the slave trade and the crucial issues of cultural retention and adaptation that are essential to our understanding of the effects of globalization

Politics of Origin in Africa Morten Bøås, Kevin C. Dunn, 2013-02-14 In this revealing new book Bøås and Dunn explore the phenomenon of autochthony literally son of the soil in African politics In contemporary Africa questions concerning origin are currently among the most crucial and contested issues in political life directly relating to the politics of place belonging identity and contested citizenship Thus land claims and autochthony disputes are the hallmark of political crises in many places on the African continent Examining the often complex reasons behind this recent rise of autochthony across a number of high profile case studies including the Democratic Republic of Congo Côte d'Ivoire Liberia and Kenya this is an essential book for anyone wishing to understand the impact of this crucial issue on contemporary African politics and conflicts

Conflict and Peacebuilding in the African Great Lakes Region Kenneth Omeje, Tricia Redeker Hepner, 2013-06-19 Driven by genocide civil war political instabilities ethnic and pastoral hostilities the African Great Lakes Region primarily Uganda Rwanda Democratic Republic of the Congo and Burundi has been overwhelmingly defined by conflict Kenneth Omeje Tricia Redeker Hepner and an international group of scholars many from the Great Lakes region focus on the interlocking conflicts and efforts toward peace in this multidisciplinary volume These essays present a range of debates and perspectives on the history and politics of conflict highlighting the complex internal and external sources of both persistent tension and creative peacebuilding Taken together the essays illustrate that no single perspective or approach can adequately capture the dynamics of conflict or offer successful strategies for sustainable peace in the region
