Social Ethics in the Making

Gary Dorrien, 2011-04-06 In the early 1880s proponents of what came to be called the social gospel founded what is now known as social ethics This ambitious and magisterial book describes the tradition of social ethics one that began with the distinctly modern idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform the structures of society in the direction of social justice Charts the story of social ethics the idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform society from its roots in the nineteenth century through to the present day Discusses and analyzes how different traditions of social ethics evolved in the realms of the academy church and general public Looks at the wide variety of individuals who have been prominent exponents of social ethics from academics and self styled public intellectuals through to pastors and activists Set to become the definitive reference guide to the history and development of social ethics Recipient of a CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 award

Ecotheology and Nonhuman Ethics in Society Melissa Brotton, 2016-11-30 This book promotes Christian ecology and animal ethics from the perspectives of the Bible science and the Judeo Christian tradition In an age of climate change how do we protect species and individual animals Does it matter how we treat bugs How does understanding the Trinity and Christ s self emptying nature help us to be more responsible earth caretakers What do Christian ethics have to do with hunting How do the Foxfire books of Southern Appalachia help us to love a place Does ecology need a place at the pulpit and in hymns How do Catholic approaches past and present help us appreciate and respond to the created world Finally how does Jesus respond to humans nonhumans and environmental concerns in the Gospel of Mark African American Theological Ethics

Peter J. Paris, Julius Crump, 2015-12-18 This volume in the Library of Theological Ethics series draws on writings from the early nineteenth through the late twentieth centuries to explore the intersection of black experience and Christian faith throughout the history of the United States The first sections follow the many dimensions of the African American struggle with racism in this country struggles against theories of white supremacy against chattel slavery and against racial segregation and discrimination The latter sections turn to the black Christian vision of human flourishing drawing on perspectives from the arts religion philosophy ethics and theology It introduces students to major voices from African American Christianity including Frederick Douglass Richard Allen W E B DuBois Marcus Garvey Martin Luther King Jr

Moral Man and Immoral Society Reinhold Niebuhr, 2013-01-01 Arguably his most famous book Moral Man and Immoral Society is Reinhold Niebuhr's important early study 1932 in ethics and politics Widely read and continually relevant this book marked Niebuhr's decisive break from progressive religion and politics toward a more deeply tragic view of human nature and history Forthright and realistic Moral Man and Immoral Society argues that individual morality is intrinsically incompatible with collective life thus making social and political conflict inevitable Niebuhr further discusses our inability to imagine the realities of collective power the brutal behavior of human collectives of every sort and ultimately how individual morality can mitigate the persistence of social immorality This new edition includes a foreword by Cornel West that explores the continued interest in Niebuhr's thought and its contemporary relevance

Religious Ethics William Schweiker, David A. Clairmont, 2020-04-14 An inclusive and innovative account of religious ethical thinking and acting in the world Rather than merely applying existing forms of philosophical ethics Religious Ethics defines the meaning of the field and presents a distinct and original method for ethical reflection through comparisons of world religious traditions Written by leading scholars and educators in the field this unique volume offers an innovative approach that reveals how religions concur and differ on moral matters and provides practical guidance on thinking and living ethically The book's innovative method integrating descriptive normative practical fundamental and metaethical dimensions of reflection enables a far more complex and nuanced exploration of religious ethics than any single philosophical language method or theory can equal First introducing the task of religious ethics the book moves through each of the five dimensions of reflection to compare concepts such as good and evil perplexity and wisdom truth and illusion and freedom and bondage in various theological contexts Guides readers on understanding assessing and comparing the moral teachings and practices of world religions Applies a disciplined scholarly approach to the subject of religious ethics Explores the distinctions between religious ethics and moral philosophy Provides a methodology which can be applied to comparative ethics for various religions Compares religious traditions to illuminate each of the five dimensions of ethical and moral reflection Religious Ethics Meaning and Method will help anyone interested in the relation between religion and ethics in the modern world including those involved in general and comparative religion studies religious and comparative ethics and moral theory Christ and Human Rights Professor George Newlands,2013-05-28 Human rights is one of the most important geopolitical issues in the modern world Jesus Christ is the centre of Christianity Yet there exists almost no analysis of the significance of Christology for human rights This book focuses on the connections Examination of rights reveals tensions ambiguities and conflicts This book constructs a Christology which centres on a Christ of the vulnerable and the margins It explores the interface between religion law politics and violence East and West North and South The history of the use of sacred texts as texts of terror is examined and theological links to legal and political dimensions explored Criteria are developed for action to make an effective difference to human rights enforcement and resolution between cultures and religions on rights Christ and Human Rights George Newlands,2017-09-29 Human rights is one of the most important geopolitical issues in the modern world Jesus Christ is the centre of Christianity Yet there exists almost no analysis of the significance of Christology for human rights This book focuses on the connections Examination of rights reveals tensions ambiguities and conflicts This book constructs a Christology which centres on a Christ of the vulnerable and the margins It explores the interface between religion law politics and violence East and West North and South The history of the use of sacred texts as texts of terror is examined and theological links to legal and political dimensions explored Criteria are developed for action to make an effective difference to human rights enforcement and resolution between cultures and religions on rights The Meaning of Revelation Helmut Richard Niebuhr,2006-02-01 This reissue of a 20th century classic emphasizes an understanding of God's revelation that takes seriously both the Bible itself and modern ideas about the nature of history Includes a new Foreword by Ottati which sets Niebuhr's work in the context of his other writings and explores the significance of this book Missional Ecclesiologies in Creative Tension Joon-Sik Park,2007 In this masterful study of the critical issues in missional ecclesiology Joon Sik Park reflects on two prominent twentieth century theologians H Richard Niebuhr 1894 1962 and John Howard Yoder 1927 1997 and integrates the insights of their respective traditions Although ecclesiology was a major concern to both Niebuhr and Yoder their views on the nature and calling of the church were distinct Whereas Niebuhr a theologian in the Evangelical and Reformed tradition was concerned with defining the church in relation to a universal community Yoder standing within the Mennonite tradition was interested in representing the church as an alternative community Although Niebuhr was reluctant to distinguish the church sharply from the world Yoder stressed the distinctiveness of the church from the world and considered the Christian faith a decisive difference between believing and unbelieving communities Seeking to construct an integral missional ecclesiology Joon Sik Park carefully engages Niebuhr and Yoder and proposes a critical synthesis of their strengths

He holds in creative tension the contradistinctive ecclesiologies of Niebuhr and Yoder by means of Lesslie Newbigin's logic of election providing a way to overcome an impasse between the two theologians
