A Personal Journal

"The story of Paul's life and death by suicide absorbed me, tormented me, transfixed me, infuriated me, and personally tore me apart with its brutal honesty. A deep and profound book that keeps alive an abiding relationship between a father and a son—a relationship more full of love and sharing than most of us will ever know."

The Infinite Thread Alexandra Kennedy, 2011-03-15 The loss we feel when a loved one dies is profound often accompanied by regret for all that we didn't say or do Such regret can hinder emotional growth and create wounds that affect all other aspects of our lives But loss doesn't necessarily mean the end of a connection with a loved one In fact it can open the doors to a unique relationship that offers intimacy healing and renewal In The Infinite Thread author Alexandra Kennedy helps us deal with loss in a powerful new way by using active imagination letters and inner dialogue to re-create and heal past relationships In doing so we also amend the often strained ties with those still living The Infinite Thread strips away the veils of mystery surrounding death and transcends preconceptions about death and dying Rich with opportunities for reflection it brings enormous comfort to anyone who has ever lost a loved one or been faced with their own mortality
