Restoring Our World Soul Colleen Mac Dougall, 2012-10 What to do to set our world right again The author posits that it is less about getting it right and more about standing back long enough to see together what at the core of our global noise is agitating and demanding our attention Getting at the root of these disturbances we can move past the posturing and the grabs for power and get serious about preserving the inalienable Rights of Life that is liberty meaning dignity and realization of potential that all world peoples possess We can create conditions within which the ideals of equality justice and peace can progressively be made real in our world Creating such conditions is possible in proportion to our will to re position to get out front and to implant the less divisive sensibilities of soul into the heart of our global politic and into the very soil of our nations Approaching our historical dilemmas through the lens of these sensibilities identified in the book and convening our United Nations around their demands our recycling and projections of fear can be calmed There is indeed a way to get beyond the politics of right and to turn the tide on problems that remain stubbornly resistant to clinical religious and military intervention 100% of proceeds go to Tashinga Women Trust an apolitical independent economic initiative for women in Zimbabwe

Restoring the Soul of the World David Fideler, 2014-11-20 Humanity's creative role within the living pattern of nature Explores important scientific discoveries that reveal the self organizing intelligence at the heart of nature Examines the idea of a living cosmos from its roots in the earliest cultures to its eclipse during the Scientific Revolution to its return today Reveals ways to reengage our creative partnership with nature and collaborate with nature's intelligence For millennia the world was seen as a creative interconnected web of life constantly growing developing and restoring itself But with the arrival of the Scientific Revolution in the 16th and 17th centuries the world was viewed as a lifeless clock like mechanism bound by the laws of classical physics Intelligence was a trait ascribed solely to human beings and thus humanity was viewed as superior to and separate from nature Today new scientific discoveries are reviving the ancient philosophy of a living interconnected cosmos and humanity is learning from and collaborating with nature's intelligence in new life enhancing ways from ecological design to biomimicry Drawing upon the most important scientific discoveries of recent times David Fideler explores the self organizing intelligence at the heart of nature and humanity's place in the cosmic pattern He examines the ancient vision of the living cosmos from its roots in the world soul of the Greeks and the alchemical tradition to its eclipse during the Scientific Revolution to its return today He explains how the mechanistic worldview led to humanity's profound sense of alienation for if the universe only functioned as a machine there was no longer any room for genuine creativity or spontaneity He shows how this isn't the case and how even at the molecular level natural systems engage in self organization self preservation and creative problem solving mirroring the ancient idea of a creative intelligence that exists deep within the heart of nature Revealing new connections between science religion and culture Fideler explores how to reengage our creative partnership with nature and new ways to collaborate with nature's intelligence

The Search for Shalom Will Dickerson, 2025-09-01 Many analysts have noted that this is an age of high anxiety Nowadays most bookstores have shelves of books documenting people s anxious condition and offering a variety of self help cures The Search for Shalom is not a self help book Rather it argues that self guided efforts to treat this anxious condition will only make it worse The search for peace must lead elsewhere Many people have been scammed by Satan the prince of scammers As a result they don t give much attention to the one who actually offers them shalom true peace Instead they continue to be controlled by their fears and anxieties People spend their lives serving various idols the most popular of which is Mammon They nurture their grudges refuse to forgive and live in the rubble of broken relationships Some of those who consider themselves Christians instead of serving as ministers of reconciliation enlist as soldiers in the culture wars and end up fighting the wrong battles with the wrong weapons Many people therefore live in a state of war No one should be surprised therefore at the sharp rise in the use of antidepressants and anti-anxiety medications So where can people find peace
