Restructuring The Gatt System:

Restructuring the Gatt John H. Jackson, 1990 The multilateral trading system based on the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade GATT is being eroded by a shift to bilateralism surging protectionism and flouting of its rules by the major trading countries The inclusion of the complex issues of services intellectual property and investment in the Uruguay Round has only increased the strain on the GATT's structure Reform and strengthening of the GATT system can no longer be delayed Jackson argues that part of the problem lies in the defective constitutional nature of the GATT itself He examines the institutional and constitutional changes the GATT would need in order to contain protectionist pressure and respond to the new issues in the evolving international economy Jackson outlines the provisions of a new charter that would strengthen the foundations of the system His proposed reform challenges policymakers and practitioners to think beyond the modest objectives of the Uruguay Round Unedited summary from book cover

Liberalising Trade in the EU and the WTO Sanford E. Gaines, Birgitte Egelund Olsen, Karsten Engsig Sørensen, 2012-08-02 This comparison of EU and WTO approaches to common trade liberalisation challenges brings together eighteen authors from Europe and America. Together they explore fundamental legal issues such as the role of general principles of law, the role of the judiciary in the development of law, the effect of the principle of non discrimination and the elimination of non discriminatory barriers to trade. The contributions also examine the most recent developments in trade law across a full range of trade issues including TBT and SPS services, intellectual property, customs rules, safeguards, anti dumping and government procurement. Adopting a comparative perspective throughout, this volume sheds light on today's trade law and suggests paths forward for each system through the perennial tensions between open non discriminatory trade and strongly held national values and objectives.

Trachtman, 2009-07-20 Ruling the World: Constitutionalism, International Law and Global Governance provides an interdisciplinary analysis of the major developments and central questions in debates over international constitutionalism at the UN, EU, WTO and other sites of global governance. The essays in this volume explore controversial empirical and structural questions, doctrinal and normative issues and questions of institutional design and positive political theory. Ruling the World grows out of a three year research project that brought twelve leading scholars together to create a comprehensive and integrated framework for understanding global constitutionalization. Ruling the World is the first volume to explore in a cross cutting way constitutional discourse across international regimes, constitutional pluralism and relations among transnational and domestic constitutions. The volume examines the core assumptions, basic analytic tools and key challenges in contemporary debates over international constitutionalization.

WTO Law and Policy Jae Sundaram, 2022-04-11 WTO Law and Policy presents an authoritative account of the emergence of the World Trade Organization (WTO) and the basic principles and institutional law of the WTO. It explores how political economy has shaped the WTO's legal philosophy and policies and provides insights into how international trade law at the WTO has developed. This textbook examines the legal obligations of the Member States of the WTO under the multilateral trade agreements, the legal remedies available under the rules based dispute settlement system and incorporates the most relevant case laws from the WTO's jurisprudence. It outlines several key contemporary issues which the WTO faces as well as areas that need reforming. Each chapter covers a specific topic in relation to the framework and functionality of the WTO with particular focus on the legal aspects of the multilateral trade order The book is guided by the legal pronouncements of the Dispute Settlement Body Panels and Appellate Body and the commentaries on the interpretation of the provisions of the covered agreements This book is ideal for all students studying international trade law including those coming to international law international trade law and WTO law for the first time

Governing Global Trade Theodore H. Cohn, 2017-05-15 Cohn's topic of global trade is of enormous and proliferating interest He provides a good background from 1945 to the present and on core contemporary themes such as civil society participation and the domesticisation of the trade agenda Whilst there is a wealth of literature on policy oriented aspects such as negotiating rounds there are few that provide the careful comprehensive historical overview that this work offers and none that do so with reference to international institutions such as the G7 Quad OECD and UNCTAD as well as the WTO in global trade governance This seminal work has been awarded the British Columbia Political Science Association Weller Prize for 2003 Cohn's political science background will appeal directly to a university audience and a broader public policy market It is also suitable for those interested in trade in the cognates of economics and law This work's theoretical framework embraces and synthesises the major approaches in the field of international relations and will be appropriate for the dominant schools of realists and liberal institutionalists alike It could therefore be apt for courses on international relations theory or international political economy taught in a theoretical mode This book reinforces and broadens the focus of all previous works in The G8 and Global Governance series

Sugar and the Making of International Trade Law Michael Fakhri, 2014-11-27 This book traces the changing meanings of free trade over the past century through three sugar treaties and their concomitant institutions The 1902 Brussels Convention is an example of how free trade buttressed the British Empire The 1937 International Sugar Agreement is a story of how a group of Cubans renegotiated their state's colonial relationship with the US through free trade doctrine and the League of Nations In addition the study of the 1977 International Sugar Agreement maps the world of international trade law through a plethora of institutions such as the ITO UNCTAD GATT and international commodity agreements all against the backdrop of competing Third World agendas Through a legal study of free trade ideas interests and institutions this book highlights how the line between the state and market domestic and international and public and private is always a matter of contest

Romano, 2009-08-31 The Sword and the Scales is the first in depth and comprehensive study of attitudes and behaviors of the United States toward major international courts and tribunals including the International Courts of Justice WTO and NAFTA dispute settlement systems the Inter American Court of Human Rights and all international criminal courts Thirteen essays by American legal scholars map and analyze current and past patterns of promotion or opposition use or neglect of international judicial bodies by various branches of the United States government suggesting a complex and deeply ambivalent relationship The United States has been and continues to be not only a promoter of the various international courts and tribunals but also an active participant of the judicial system It appears before some of the international judicial bodies frequently and supports more both politically and financially At the same time it is less engaged than it could be particularly given its strong rule of law foundations and its historical tradition of commitment to international law and its institutions

From Coexistence to Cooperation Edward McWhinney, 1991-08-15 In four short years the international landscape has been completely reorganized The major political fault line of the Cold War has been for the most part erased and the foundations have been laid for an entirely new era in international relations Serious focused analysis is urgently needed to help facilitate the process of ending the Cold War This volume the product of a Canada Soviet bilateral conference of jurists and other scholars specialized in International Law and International Organization and International Conflicts Resolution held at Simon Fraser University Vancouver in June 1990 attempts to provide such analysis Written by a professionally and scientifically distinguished team of Canadian and Soviet experts it deals with such issues as the winding up of the Nuclear and General Disarmament process the current main proposals on strengthening the United Nations and on reforming and modernizing its main arenas and institutions new approaches to International Trade and Commerce on a multilateral basis developing new norms of International Environmental Protection Law and the International protection of Human Rights It is characterized above all by a common emphasis Soviet and Canadian on pragmatism and on a rigorously empirical problem oriented approach and offers not merely a description of international Law as it might now happen to exist The result is a surprisingly far ranging consensus not merely on the major World Community problems that should be deemed ripe for present study but also on their most desirable practical and realizable solutions
