Southern Postcolonialisms Sumanyu Satpathy, 2020-11-29 Southern Postcolonialisms is an anthology of critical essays on new literary representations from the Global South that seeks to re-invent/reorient the ideological disciplinary aesthetic and pedagogical thrust of Postcolonial Studies in accordance with the new and shifting politico-economic realities/transactions between the North and the South as well as within the Global South in an era of globalization. Since the emergence of Postcolonial Theory in the 1980s the shape of the world has changed dramatically. Old Cold War boundaries have shifted in the wake of the collapse of communism. Globalization on an unprecedented scale has dramatically changed the meaning of time and space. The rise of the US as a new imperial power has profound implications for the world order. In the South, new emerging markets have challenged the older division of industrial first world and non-industrial third world. In most parts of the world, the academy is struggling to keep up with these developments. One result has been a major transnational turn in the humanities and social sciences. Terms like world history, globalization, glocalization, and transnationalism now dominate academic agendas worldwide. These changing circumstances raise far-reaching questions: What does the new emerging world order mean for established models of postcolonial theory? Is postcolonialism as a field of study being overtaken by models of globalization and transnationalism? What implications do the new configurations in the South have for postcolonial theory? This volume, drawn from a major literary conference at Delhi University, provides a set of perspectives on these questions. With a majority of contributions by scholars from the South, these research articles have a dual focus: they revisit older debates on postcolonial theory while suggesting new perspectives and directions.

The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty-five years. This is an opportunity for stock-taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered, reclaimed, and republished. There are entries on writers, on individual texts, and on general terms, genres, and movements, all printed in a single alphabetical sequence. The earliest written documents in medieval English, the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe, are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day. The book reflects the spread of literacy, the history of colonisation, and the development of post-colonial cultures using and changing the English language. The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered. The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality, wealth, and diversity of women's writing.

Leftover Women Leta Hong Fincher, 2023-11-02 A China Books Review Best China Book of 2023 Leta Hong Fincher's landmark book Leftover Women shone a light on the resurgence of gender inequality in 21st-century China. Ten years on, women in China continue to experience a dramatic rolling back of rights and gains in the increasingly patriarchal political climate of the Xi Jinping era. Leftover Women explores the structural discrimination against women and the broader problems with China's economy politics and development that lie behind it This updated edition includes a new preface exploring developments in China in the 10 years since the book s original publication including the new three child policy the growth in online feminist and LGBTQ activism and the state s increasingly repressive moves against dissent Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1999
