Moser, 2025-09-30 Moser a distinguished philosopher and author of a dozen books continues his quest to find an authentic credible philosophy of religion He asks Can we trust God How do we know that God is benevolent Are there any proofs that God means well and wants us to be well Part of being human is testing the divine Moser asserts putting God on trial so to speak to see if our faith in life and in God is really justified In the end the author finds that we are in fact conscious of the goodness of existence and the proof of God s morality lies in righteousness among humans people s ability to cultivate virtue in and among themselves Human testing is invited by God so long as we use the standard of goodness righteousness suited to a God worthy of worship The book advances this neglected truth In other words God is always seeking to show us God s goodness and our own goodness is itself a vindication of God s The Conclusion of the New Testament (5) Witness Lee, In the Lord s recovery during the past five hundred years the church s knowledge of the Lord and His truth has been continually progressing This monumental and classical work by Brother Witness Lee builds upon and is a further development of all that the Lord has revealed to His church in the past centuries It is filled with the revelation concerning the processed Triune God the living Christ the life giving Spirit the experience of life and the definition and practice of the church In this set Brother Lee has kept three basic principles that should rule and govern every believer in their interpretation development and expounding of the truths contained in the Scriptures The first principle is that of the Triune God dispensing Himself into His chosen and redeemed people the second principle is that we should interpret develop and expound the truths contained in the Bible with Christ for the church and the third governing principle is Christ the Spirit life and the church No other study or exposition of the New Testament conveys the life nourishment or ushers the reader into the divine revelation of God s holy Word according to His New Testament economy as this one does The Coming of God Jürgen Moltmann, Margaret

Kohl, 2004-07-27 Winner of Grawemeyer Award In this remarkable and timely work in many ways the culmination of his systematic theology world renowned theologian Jurgen Moltmann stands Christian eschatology on its head Moltmann rejects the traditional approach which focuses on the End an apocalyptic finale as a kind of Christian search for the final solution He centers instead on hope and God's promise of new creation for all things Christian eschatology he says is the remembered hope of the raising of the crucified Christ so it talks about beginning afresh in the deadly end Yet Moltmann's novel framework deeply informed by Jewish and messianic thought also fosters rich and creative insights into the perennially nettling questions of eschatology Are there eternal life and personal identity after death How is one to think of heaven hell and purgatory What are the historical and cosmological dimensions of Christian hope What are its social and political implications In a heartbreakingly fragile and fragment world Moltmann's comprehensive eschatology surveys the Christian vista bravely envisioning our horizons of expectation for personal social even cosmic transformation in God You Shall Not Condemn Jennifer M. McBride, 2022-06-13 This book tells the story of Kelly Gissendaner the only woman on Georgia's death row until her execution in 2015 and highlights the role theological studies played in her faith and in advocacy efforts on her behalf Central to the book is the written correspondence between Kelly and German theologian Jurgen Moltmann known internationally as the theologian of hope After reading Moltmann's work in a course taught by McBride at the prison Kelly began a five year correspondence with him When Kelly was denied clemency a local and international advocacy movement arose that was rooted in her theological studies and friendship with him The advocacy campaign challenged Christians who supported the death penalty to re-examine basic truths of Christian faith As it was unfolding the story of Kelly's transformation changed people's minds not only about her case but also about the death penalty itself Weaving together powerful storytelling and theological expertise McBride recounts that story again here with an aim toward abolition and offers practical ways that readers may enter the work Prophecy and Passion David Neville, 2002 Essays in honour of a baptist activities who lived in the USA and Australia Contributors include biblical scholars theologians and activists The Bible and Christianity in the Scientific Perspective Byung Kook Hwang, 2025-07-31 Korean Christianity must now be reborn as a biblical agape religion of love and life away from the religion of salvation and self-love that seeks personal blessing God is love 1 John 4:8 Jesus is the source of life There is life in Jesus Christ John 1:4 and Jesus is the Word of life 1 John 1:1 The core of the Christian faith is faith alone in God and Jesus Christ True Christians must understand the Bible correctly obey and believe in God and live righteously and good according to the Bible and God's will The life of Jesus Christ is the highest standard of life for people to imitate Christians in Korea should live a life of action in practice according to God's word in the Bible at home and in society They should love one another in deed and truth not just in word or in tongue 1 John 3:18 Only when this agape style life of God's love takes root in Korean society a truly biblical Christian culture will be established in Korea True Christians have freedom in the Lord Jesus Christ and live a life of faith in obedience to God and Jesus Christ
