Spirituality, Education & Society Njoki N. Wane,Energy L. Manyimo,Eric J. Ritskes,2011-10-29 Spirituality education and society An integrated approach argues the value of spirituality in education as a way to address the lived experiences and personal knowledge of students with the goal of creating a more holistic transformative educational process This edited volume has a wide array of viewpoints which all point to the importance of spirituality in the authors personal lives their communities and society at large Spirituality is conceptualised as a base from which to challenge dominant forms of knowing while in the process being able to center and engage with an important aspect of the student that has been missing from current evaluations their spiritual selves Within the diversity of this volume it becomes evident that spirituality cannot be confined to a singular definition and that educators must be willing to create spaces to foster spiritual growth and exploration if we are to break away from the commoditized disempowering system that is so dominant today. This edited collection is a valuable resource for students, practitioners, educators and administrators who wish to engage in transformational schooling. Its multidisciplinary approach engages ideas around critical pedagogy, sociology of education and inclusive schooling. There is an increasing need for exploring novel paradigms of studying education in the context of the dynamics that straddle social, economic and technological processes that have come to characterize the world in recent years. This book is a timely contribution in this respect as its focus transcends hitherto applied approaches that depend largely on western orientation. The book breaks new grounds in studying education and society that find significant relevance in societies that are marginalized by the dominant western understanding. The authors draw from the rich heritage of spirituality that is akin to the non-western social paradigms to develop a rigorous but creative concept of schooling. I am sure practitioners, researchers and students of education will find it a valuable source of practical and theoretical information that would widen their horizon of understanding of sociology of education. Tom Mongare Ndege, PhD, Moi University, Kenya. The editors have compiled a brilliant collection of essays. Each piece of scholarly work shows how spirituality is a paramount part of our everyday lives and is connected to teaching, learning, living and healing. This is a timely and most relevant work that is sure to spur critical dialogue and discussion. This collection shows that while the spirit may be wounded, it can never be broken. Erica Neeganagwedgin, PhD, University of Toronto.

Identity Work in the Contemporary University Jan Smith, Julie Rattray, Tai Peseta, Daphne Loads, 2015-12-24. Academic identities research is a growing area of scholarly enquiry, especially as academics themselves question the evolving nature of their roles in rapidly changing university environments. Performative frameworks in many countries around the world reflect these changes and this volume brings a number of disciplinary perspectives to bear on how we understand the lived experiences of academic life in a global context. Contributors explore the power of conceptual tools drawn from Philosophy, Psychology, Sociology and Politics to challenge increasingly instrumental neoliberal political approaches to higher education supported by empirical evidence. Worthwhile teaching, learning and research require significant personal investment and the book pays particular attention to the deeply affective dimensions of current academic practices In Part One tools to conceptualise academic identity work drawn from foundational academic disciplines are applied to contemporary higher education practices Part Two foregrounds how working in universities today proceeds with a particular focus on how academics respond to the multiplicity of institutional demands The most pressing perceived demand supported by contributions in Part Three is publication the need to be visible to count is now a global imperative with the affective dimensions not yet well understood at policy level In Part Four those who support colleagues negotiating a reconfigured academic terrain explore productive approaches towards this task to ensure that academic practice remains rooted in the values previously outlined This book will be of interest to those working in universities globally who seek a deeper appreciation of the contextual drivers that shape academic work
