Business School and the Noble Purpose of the Market Andrew J. Hoffman,2025-04-08 The intellectual foundation for the next generation of business leaders Today s business schools were designed for a world that no longer exists Capitalism raised the standard of living for billions of people over the past 150 years but is now causing systemic challenges it is unable to address including climate change and inequality And yet business schools continue to teach ideas that are making things worse elevating the primacy of shareholder profits above the interests of employees the environment and society viewing government as an intrusion on the free market rather than an arbiter of its proper functioning and promoting unlimited economic growth despite the devastating environmental and social consequences Business schools cannot simply drop an elective into their curriculum to address these challenges We must rethink the faulty foundations Business School and the Noble Purpose of the Market explains the intellectual foundation MBA students faculty and administrators need to reform capitalism and restore its noble purpose for the 21st century Many business students are in fact seeking this kind of education and frustrated that they are not getting it from their professors This book will fill in gaps in their education equipping them with the models and mindset to rethink shareholder capitalism and serve society s needs Business faculty and administrators will find a practical program for amending curriculum and pedagogy changing student and faculty rewards and bringing a new spirit and sensibility to the business school

How to Lead Academic Departments Successfully Lindgreen, Adam,Irwin, Alan,Poulfelt, Flemming,Thomsen, Thyra U.,2021-12-07 It is an old cliché that leading and managing academics is like herding cats This book challenges this myth and presents a way to deal with the many challenges of academic leadership from managing departments research groups and teams to managing tensions between research and teaching The book is a practical and stimulating guide to different pathways to successful academic leadership both in personal and organizational terms

COVID-19 and Society Mustafa Polat,Serhat Burmaoglu,Ozcan Saritas,2022-11-16 This timely book presents a collection of expert insights into the impacts of COVID 19 in a broader socio economic context In each chapter the authors identify the current impact of COVID 19 by demonstrating transformative signals and project these signals to the future by considering their alternative futures and implications The book emphasizes that dealing with major global pandemics like COVID 19 requires all countries and regions to take different but synchronized measures to decrease its socio economic effects in the short medium and long run The consequences of COVID 19 will go beyond medicine to cover all other aspects of life and are bound to change the nature of organizations Moving beyond the medical viewpoint the experts in this book discuss the topic from multi dimensional and multi disciplinary angles by focusing on the domains of technology business finance marketing law public administration and education

Corporate Stewardship Susan Albers Mohrman,James O'Toole,Edward E. Lawler III,2017-09-29 Stewardship entails a profound understanding and acceptance of the challenges that result from the organization's interdependence with the societal and ecological contexts in which it operates and of what it takes to embrace the challenges to be a force for building a viable future. This book dares to ask why business leaders should embrace stewardship in the current market where profit reigns supreme. A shift in approach represents fundamental change for the corporate world and even the most advanced corporations consider themselves to be in the starting block of this transition. The book sets out the practical ways in which corporate stewardship can be achieved through embedding new approaches across the different functions of a business. This book, written by the leading thinkers in sustainability research, provides practical guidance on how companies can resolve the paradoxical challenges they face. How can they be at the same time profitable and responsible, effective and ethical, sustainable and adaptable? It explores what businesses are doing, what they can and should do to effectively respond to external challenges, and focuses on how leaders can create cultures, strategies, and designs far beyond business as usual. Stewards must not only make proper current use of that which they hold in trust; they also must leave it in better condition for use by future generations. Corporate Stewardship challenges managers, executives, and directors of global corporations to think and act as stewards of both their organizations and the physical and social environments in which they operate.

Symposium, the Corporation and the Human Person, 2006      U.S. Catholic Historian, 2003      The Global Business Environment Janet Morrison, 2023-03-09. This text challenges students to think critically about global issues that affect the business environment and provides them with a wealth of pedagogical features that help cement learning. Its coverage includes the economic, political, social, legal, cultural, technological, and financial environments. The book is truly global in coverage with case studies and examples from all over the world, including Afghanistan, China, Sweden, and Thailand. It also has a strong focus on ethics, responsibilities, and sustainability and what this means for business organizations. Janet Morrison's writing style makes difficult concepts easy to understand, and its clarity makes it suitable for students with English as a second language. New to this edition: The theme of uncertainty in global contexts; examining how best to assess and confront the challenges of uncertainties and risks in the differing dimensions of the business environment; A chapter on the worldwide pandemic and the global business environment; Increased coverage of FDI, industrial policy, and global communication; New coverage relating to race relations and decolonising the curriculum; 10 new cases, making a total of 52 cases, with all other cases fully updated; A brand new decision-making feature linked to some of the case studies.
