Roman Archaeology And Art Essays And Studies By Ian Richmond:

Richmond, I. A. Roman Archaeology and Art. Essays and Studies Ian Richmond, 1969 The Oxford Handbook of Roman Britain Martin Millett, Louise Revell, Alison Jane Moore, 2016 This handbook is currently in development with individual articles publishing online in advance of print publication At this time we cannot add information about unpublished articles in this handbook however the table of contents will continue to grow as additional articles pass through the review process and are added to the site Please note that the online publication date for this handbook is the date that the first article in the title was published online Roman Britain is a critical area of research within the provinces of the Roman empire Within the last 15 20 years the study of Roman Britain has been transformed through an enormous amount of new and interesting work which is not reflected in the main stream literature The Roman Empire Colin Michael Wells, 1995 This sweeping history of the Roman Empire from 44 BC to AD 235 has three purposes to describe what was happening in the central administration and in the entourage of the emperor to indicate how life went on in Italy and the provinces in the towns in the countryside and in the army camps and to show how these two different worlds impinged on each other Colin Wells s vivid account is now available in an up to date second edition Roman Archaeology and Art Jan Richmond, 1969 The Roman City and Its Periphery Penelope Goodman, 2006-11-07 The only monograph available on the subject this book presents archaeological and literary evidence to provide students with a full and detailed treatment of the little investigated aspect of Roman urbanism the phenomenon of suburban development British and Irish Archaeology, 1994 Trajan Julian Bennett, 2001 i A Brief History of an English Literature: An Augustan Age Rakesh Rathod (MA English), 2019-01-01 The eighteenth century in English literature has been called the Augustan Age the Neoclassical Age and the Age of Reason The term the Augustan Age comes from the self conscious imitation of the original Augustan writers Virgil and Horace by many of the writers of the period Specifically the Augustan Age was the period after the Restoration era to the death of Alexander Pope 1690 1744 The major writers of the age were Pope and John Dryden in poetry and Jonathan Swift and Joseph Addison in prose Dryden forms the link between Restoration and Augustan literature although he wrote ribald comedies in the Restoration vein his verse satires were highly admired by the generation of poets who followed him and his writings on literature were very much in a neoclassical spirit I particularly aimed at interpretation of sociopolitical milieu of Augustan Age of social change of literary tendencies of the age and of prose novel poetry and drama of the Augustan Age Statius' Silvae and the Poetics of Empire Carole E. Newlands, 2002-03-14 Statius Silvae written late in the reign of Domitian AD 81 96 are a new kind of poetry that confronts the challenge of imperial majesty or private wealth by new poetic strategies and forms As poems of praise they delight in poetic excess whether they honour the emperor or the poet s friends Yet extravagant speech is also capacious speech It functions as a strategy for conveying the wealth and grandeur of villas statues and precious works of art as well as the complex emotions aroused by the material and political culture of empire The Silvae are the product of a divided self fashioning voice Statius was born in Naples of non aristocratic parents His position as outsider to the culture he celebrates gives him a unique perspective on it The Silvae are poems of anxiety as well as praise expressive of the tensions within the later period of Domitian's reign Roman archaeology and art: essays and studies, ed Sir Ian Richmond, Peter Salway, Perceptions of the Body and Sacred Space in Late Antiquity and Byzantium Jelena Bogdanovic, 2018-04-09 Perceptions of the Body and Sacred Space in Late Antiquity and Byzantium seeks to reveal Christian understanding of the body and sacred space in the medieval Mediterranean Case studies examine encounters with the holy through the perspective of the human body and sensory dimensions of sacred space and discuss the dynamics of perception when experiencing what was constructed represented and understood as sacred The comparative analysis investigates viewers' recognitions of the sacred in specific locations or segments of space with an emphasis on the experiential and conceptual relationships between sacred spaces and human bodies This volume thus reassesses the empowering aspects of space time and human agency in religious contexts By focusing on investigations of human endeavors towards experiential and visual expressions that shape perceptions of holiness this study ultimately aims to present a better understanding of the corporeality of sacred art and architecture The research points to how early Christians and Byzantines teleologically viewed the divine source of the sacred in terms of its ability to bring together but never fully dissolve the distinctions between the human and divine realms The revealed mechanisms of iconic perception and noetic contemplation have the potential to shape knowledge of the meanings of the sacred as well as to improve our understanding of the liminality of the profane and the sacred History of Law and Other Humanities. Views of the legal world across the time Valerio Massimo Minale, Virginia Amorosi, 2019-07-09 The collection of essays presented here examines the links forged through the ages between the realm of law and the expressions of the humanistic culture We collected thirty five essays by international scholars and organized them into sections of ten chapters based around ten different themes Two main perspectives emerged in some articles the topic relates to the conventional approach of law and in humanities iconography literature architecture cinema music other articles are about more traditional connections between fields of knowledge in particular philosophy political experiences didactics We decided not to confine authors to one particular methodological framework preferring instead to promote historiographical openness Our intention was to create a patchwork of different approaches with each article drawing on a different area of culture to provide a new angle to the history being told The variety of authorial nationalities gives the collection a multicultural character and the breadth of the chronological period it deals with from antiquity to the contemporary age adds further depth of insight As the element that unites the collection is historiographical interpretation we wanted to bring to the fore its historical depth Thus for every chapter we organized the articles in chronological order according to the historical context covered Looking at the final outcome it was interesting to learn that more often than not the connection between law and humanities is not simply a relation between a specific branch of the law and a single field of the humanities but rather a relation that could be developed in many directions at once involving different fields of knowledge and of arts and popular culture We are grateful to Luigi Lacch for his contribution to this collection His essay outlines the coordinates of the law and humanities world laying out the instruments necessary for an understanding of the origins of a complex methodology and the different approaches that exist within it This project is the result of discussions that took place during the XXIII Forum of the Association of Young Legal Historians held in Naples in the spring of 2017 The book was made possible thanks to the advice and support of Cristina Vano The Editors
