was central to their appeal this book situates them within their social political and artistic contexts in Roman Italy Swetnam Burland focuses on what these works meant to their owners and their viewers in their new settings by exploring evidence for the artists who produced them and by examining their relationship to the contemporary literature that informed Roman perceptions of Egyptian history customs and myths Fores et Fenestrae: A Computational Study of Doors and Windows in Roman Domestic Space Lucia Michielin, 2021-06-10 The role doors and windows play in shaping the life and structure of Roman private dwellings has been underestimated they are structures that connect not only rooms but houses to the outside world and they relate to privacy security and light in domestic spaces This volume analyses these structures as an essential part of daily life Roman Construction in Italy from Nerva Through the Antonines .
