Stromseth, Edmund J. Malesky, Dimitar D. Gueorguiev, 2017-02-27 China is widely viewed as a global powerhouse that has achieved a remarkable economic transformation with little political change Less well known is that China's leaders have also implemented far reaching governance reforms designed to promote government transparency and increase public participation in official policymaking What are the motivations behind these reforms and more importantly what impact are they having This puzzle lies at the heart of Chinese politics and could dictate China's political trajectory for years to come This extensive collaborative study not only documents the origins and scope of these reforms across China but offers the first systematic assessment by quantitatively and qualitatively analyzing the impact of participation and transparency on important governance outcomes Comparing across provinces and over time the authors argue that the reforms are resulting in lower corruption and enhanced legal compliance but these outcomes also depend on a broader societal ecosystem that includes an active media and robust civil society     The Talent of Shu J. Compassionate Light in Asia Jin Yong, Daisaku Ikeda, 2013-09-17 Life is a drama of encounters writes Daisaku Ikeda at the beginning of this dialogue Beautiful encounters Momentary encounters Each person's drama is unique This particular encounter between a celebrated Chinese novelist and prominent Japanese religious leader illustrates the truth of that reflection For in the discussion that stemmed from their meetings Jin Yong who is sometimes called the Asian Dumas and Daisaku Ikeda were able to find remarkable common ground what they refer to as a karmic bond resulting from the particularity of their experiences in wartime and mutual resistance to adversity Ranging across a variety of engaging themes the interlocutors explore such topics as the nature of friendship theories of civilization world literatures that have inspired them the importance of free speech Buddhist perspectives on life and death and the spiritual search for truth There is sustained reflection on the horrors of war and a plea for the importance of memory Daisaku Ikeda emphasises that peace is a battle against forgetfulness while Jin Yong echoes this in his observation that most important is to strive to avoid war whether it is between countries and whether it be domestic and thus to enable people to build and improve their lives in a peaceful environment Cultural differences between the peoples of China and Japan are explored sometimes amusingly with the Japanese propensity for discipline and rules contrasted with the Chinese spirit of creative individualism But the authors are focused above all on serious issues of meaning and identity and they reveal the mutual solace both have found in the face of personal loss and bereavement in the Buddhist scriptures especially the Lotus Sutra Demonstrating a remarkable capacity for empathy throughout they incarnate in their lives and work an intelligent and sympathetic compassion that represents a beacon of hope to the future direction of Sino Japanese relations
