Commemorating the Polish Renaissance Child Jeannie Labno, 2016-05-23 The study of funeral monuments is a growing field but monuments erected to commemorate children have so far received little attention Whilst the practice of erecting monuments to the dead was widespread across Renaissance Europe the vast majority of these commemorated adults with children generally only appearing as part of their parents memorials However as this study reveals in Poland there developed a very different tradition of funerary monuments designed for and dedicated to individual children daughters as well as sons The book consists of five major parts which could be read in any order though the overall sequencing is based on the premise that an understanding of the context and background will enhance a reading of these fascinating child monuments Consequently there is a progression of knowledge presented from the broader context of the earlier parts towards the final parts where the actual child monuments are discussed in detail Thus the book begins with an overview of the wider cultural contexts of funerary monuments and where children fitted into this. It then moves on to look at the forgotten Renaissance of central Europe and specifically the situation in Poland. The middle part addresses the culture of memory examining the role of funerary monuments in reinforcing social, religious and familial continuity. The last parts deal with the physical monuments, empirical data, iconography and iconology. Through this illuminating consideration of children's monuments, the book raises a host of fascinating questions relating to Polish social and cultural life, family structure, attitudes to children and gender. It also addresses the issue of why Poland witnessed this unusual development and what this tells us about the transmission of cultural and artistic ideas across Renaissance Europe. Drawing upon social and cultural history, visual and gender studies, the work not only asks important new questions but provides a fresh perspective on some familiar topics and themes within Renaissance history.

Entangled Art Histories in Ukraine Stefaniia Demchuk, Illia Levchenko, 2024-11-29. This book explores ideologies, conflicts and ideas that underpinned art historical writing in Ukraine in the 20th century. Disciplinary beginnings testify both to its deep connection to Krakow, Saint Petersburg and especially Vienna with its school of art history and originality of theoretical thought. Art history started as another imperial project in Ukraine but ultimately transformed into the means of assertion of national identity. The volume looks closely at the continuity and ruptures in scholarship caused by the establishment of Soviet power and challenges a number of existing stereotypes like total isolation under Communist rule and strict adherence to a Marxist-Leninist methodology. It showcases intellectual exchanges through published work, personal contacts and ways to resist the politically enforced methodology. Despite keeping the focus on one country, it contributes to understanding the development of art history as an academic discipline in Europe more generally. It also uncovers unknown or little researched personal and academic connections between art historians from Ukraine and their peers abroad. Starting with the 19th-century quest for the method and proceeding by disentangling the complexities of the 20th century, the authors move on to the specifics of historiography after the formal collapse of the USSR. The volume transgresses purely academic boundaries and tackles the development of the discourse in periodicals, exhibition spaces and public discussions. Thus, the findings will be pertinent to all interested in politics, art history, museum studies, intellectual history, historiography and Eastern European studies.
