Legends of the Twins Cîrpaci Terry B. Murphy, 2021-10-19 In 2001 the author and her husband traveled to Romania to adopt their two year old son Upon arrival they received the shocking news that he had a twin sister with special needs living at the same orphanage Legends of the Twins Cîrpaci describes their frantic three year effort to adopt her and reunite her with her brother all in the midst of Romania's moratorium on intercountry adoption as the country attempted to join the European Union The book also recounts the deleterious impact of Romania's harsh orphanage system on the children's development in various areas of their lives and their courage in overcoming these challenges Compelling and poignant this is a story that every parent not just adoptive parent could benefit from reading Unlike many adoption books it also includes the twins perspectives on what happened to them As such older adopted children might also find it helpful Both biography and parenting narrative it describes a nearly unbelievable but it really did happen situation in a relatable way Filled with humor and heart Legends of the Twins Cîrpaci is ultimately a triumph of the extraordinary power of care the capacity of human beings to overcome severe deprivation and the beauty of the human spirit Legends of the Twins Cîrpaci is a heart warming and sometimes heart wrenching tale of a journey of love determination patience and humor Reading it is a reminder of all that family can be in its best incarnation and that belonging does not depend on biology A wonderful funny read Anne Marie Slaughter CEO New America author of Unfinished Business Women Men Work Family Europe in the Classroom Simona Szakács, 2017-10-13 This book provides an unconventional account of post 1989 education reform in Romania By drawing on policy documentation interviews with key players qualitative data from everyday school contexts and extensive textbook analysis this groundbreaking study explores change within the Romanian education system as a process that institutionalises world culture through symbolic mediation of the concept Europe The book argues that the education system s structural and organisational evolution through time is decoupled from its self depiction by ultimately serving a nation building agenda It does so despite notable changes in the discourse reflecting increasingly transnational definitions of the mission of the school in the post 1989 era The book also suggests that the notions of nation and citizen institutionalised by the school are gradually being redefined as cosmopolitan matching post war patterns of post national affiliations on a worldwide level Visual Rhetorics of Communist Romania Adriana Cordali,2023-01-10 Visual Rhetorics of Communist Romania Life under the Totalitarian Gaze offers personal accounts and theoretical insight into the Cold War era when little information about life beyond the Iron Curtain could transpire to the West Adriana Cordali develops a unique visual rhetorical theory for analyzing communist totalitarian propaganda and the resistance to it and reveals the deliberate strategic in visibilities the rhetoric of power engaged in Building upon the local history ideology and politics of the regime imposed after WWII she identifies propaganda s rhetorical features visual tropes and symbols and examines striking photographs and print materials from Ceau escu s regime 1966 1989 and the time of regime change 1989 1990 as well as an award winning Romanian film that depicts women s life at the time Converging visual rhetoric and culture with history and politics Visual Rhetorics of Communist Romania is a first book of this kind and will interest readers of rhetoric and communication visual rhetoric and political discourse in the region British Journal of Photography ,2009 Romania Yearbook ,1989 Neutron Imaging Dinesh K. Aswal,Partha S. Sarkar,Yogesh S. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy,1992 Handbook of Transnational Families Around the World Javiera Cienfuegos,Rosa Brandhorst,Deborah Fahy Bryceson,2023-01-01 This handbook compiles the most up to date research on transnational families It employs a dialogue between classical approaches and cutting edge directions in transnational family research to identify continuities and changes in terms of socioeconomic disparities and actors and to analyze coexistence Further the volume adopts a twofold global and international comparative perspective On the one hand it focuses on different migratory flows around the world and describes their entangled logics on the other it is written by an international group of contributors with a diverse range of professional backgrounds Their contributions are based on sound empirical research and explore geographical regions around the world The handbook presents different thematic perspectives on transnational families including an analytical focus on gender global sociodemographic inequalities power asymmetries and border and mobility regimes as well as the organization of transnational care transnational fatherhood ageing family reunions and return It also includes a variety of methodological approaches to transnational family research ranging from ethnography biographical research and life course methods to multi sited approaches and quantitative surveys Investigating an emergent debate it sheds new light on migratory fluxes their common and specific determinants the types of actors involved and ways to empirically and methodologically approach them This is a must read reference for social scientists interested in family research migration and gender studies Chapter 7 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com

Romania ,1956 Children's Catalog Anne Price,Juliette Yaakov,1996 Work, Ideology, and Film under Socialism in Romania Roxana Cuciumeanu,2024-08-19 Work Ideology and Film under Socialism in Romania examines the cinematic architecture of work imaginary as developed through films produced between 1960 and 1989 This book provides rich insight into the intimate configuration of cinematic thinking of work and displays of this form of social life with focus on the relationship between conceived and lived ideology of work during socialist modernization on the relationship between individuals and political power in the reflexive experiences and contexts of work Plays from Romania: Dramaturgies of Subversion Mihaela Panainte,Matéi Visniec,György Dragomán,András Visky,Giuvlipen Theatre Company,2021-09-23

Plays from Romania Dramaturgies of Subversion reflects the diversity of dramatic writing exploring the past and present of Romania and takes stock thirty years after the collapse of communism In addition to plays originally written in Romanian the collection includes work by German Hungarian and Roma authors born and or working in Romania and brings together plays written during the communist period and its aftermath The plays included in the collection edited and translated by Jozefina Komporalý and fully published for the first time in English demonstrate broad variety in terms of form and content ranging from family dramas to allegories and absurdist experiments to modular texts rooted in open dramaturgy and are the work of both individual playwrights and the results of collective creation These works share a preoccupation with critically reflecting urgent concerns rooted in Romanian realities and are notable dramaturgical experiments that push the boundaries of the genre In addition these plays also seek novel ways to examine universal experiences of the human condition such as love loss abuse betrayal grief violence manipulation and despair This unique anthology celebrates the renewed vitality and variety of writing for the stage after 1990 and endeavours to place Romanian theatre in a forward looking transnational context

Lowlands Niederungen by Herta Müller adapted for the stage by Mihaela Panainte German This stage adaptation is based on a volume of short stories by Herta Müller written in German in 1982 and focuses on the perspective of a child narrator by way of a series of episodes that centre on mundane aspects of daily life in a remote village against the backdrop of the oppressive atmosphere of mid twentieth century Romania

The Spectator Sentenced to Death Spectatorul condamnat la moarte by Marius Visniec Romanian This play is a bitter parody of the Stalinist justice system which totally disregards the fundamental question whether the accused is actually guilty or not

The Passport Kalucsni by György Dragomir Hungarian This play is set pre 1989 in a typical small town in the Transylvanian province of Romania in which the lives of the various social classes and the fate of the persecuted and that of those who persecute are closely intertwined

The Man Who Had His Inner Evil Removed Omul din care a fost extras răul by Marius Visniec Romanian This topical play is a sharp reflection on the voluntary servitude in which we place ourselves often unawares in conditions of our contemporary consumer culture and a fierce critique of increasingly dominant tendencies to abandon moral criteria in political life

Stories of the Body Artemisia Eva Lina Teresa A test t r t netei by András Visky Hungarian The cycle Stories of the Body comprises four plays based on real life stories as experienced by remarkable women including Mother Teresa and Italian Renaissance painter Artemisia Gentileschi and are connected to various cities including Budapest Cluj Kolozsvár Kolkata and Rome from the 17th to the 21st century
