Vasile,2011-01-01 Political Leadership in an Era of Decolonisation Malcolm Murfett,2023-11-10 What is leadership and why is it so important In what ways does it look very different in different contexts and in what ways does it look the same Malcolm Murfett brings together a range of emerging and established scholars to examine these questions in light of some of the mid twentieth century s most intriguing national leaders In a series of striking biographical chapters lessons are drawn from the apartheid era in South Africa Lee s remarkable socio economic transformation of Singapore Castro s revolutionary overhauling of Cuba and the playing out of Bandaranaike s populist agenda in Sri Lanka The book illuminates what Brezhnev and Nixon were looking for in the Cold War and what happened when the people turned against Nyerere in Tanzania the Shah in Iran and Ceau escu in Romania These case studies address what leadership meant for the individuals whose record in power is being examined These are not idealised portraits of how to do leadership but warts and all portrayals of exceptional individuals who scrabbled their way to the top and stayed there for several years during a period of great change Business schools have long studied the theoretical axioms of corporate leadership What this book does however is to move beyond the theory into the practical realm of politics and statecraft This is a fascinating book on leadership that will be of interest for students researchers and practitioners studying leadership in business and politics as well as for students of global history decolonisation and the Cold War Nicolae Ceaușescu and the Romanian Political Leadership Mary Ellen Fischer,1983 The Political Economy of China's Systemic Transformation V. Mantzopoulos,R. the transitional societies of Eastern Europe Women in the Politics of Postcommunist Eastern Europe Marilyn Rueschemeyer, 2016-09-16 During the Communist period in most of these countries even women with small children typically worked outside the home and their participation in formal institutions was virtually mandatory Today as they are being disproportionately affected by marketization downsizing the dramatic erosion of social services and as their sons are being drafted to participate in an unending series of border wars have women found a new political voice Handbook of Political Science Research on the USSR and Eastern Europe Ray Taras, 1992-10-23 This critical history of and guide to Soviet studies aims to take stock of the achievements and shortcomings in Western research on the region's politics and to serve as a who's who of Western Sovietologists identifying many prominent political scientists from the former Communist states

Hesitant Histories on the Romanian Screen László Strausz, 2017-07-20 This book argues that hesitation as an artistic and spectatorial strategy connects various screen media texts produced in post war Romania The chapters draw a historical connection between films made during the state socialist decades televised broadcasts of the 1989 Romanian revolution and films of the new Romanian cinema The book explores how the critical attitude of new Romanian cinema demonstrates a refusal to accept limiting binary discourses rooted in Cold War narratives Strausz argues that hesitation becomes an attempt to overcome restrictive populist narratives of the past and present day By employing a performative and mobile position audiences are encouraged to consider conflicting approaches to history and social transformation
