Gustav Gröber in 1905 is among the most renowned publications in Romance Studies. It covers the entire field of Romance linguistics including the national languages as well as the lesser studied Romance languages. The editors welcome submissions of high quality monographs and collected volumes on all areas of linguistic research on medieval literature and on textual criticism. Each collected volume should be as uniform as possible in its contents and in the choice of languages.

The Oxford Guide to the Languages of the Central Andes Matthias Urban, 2025-03-27. This volume presents the most comprehensive overview in English of the languages of the Central Andes spoken primarily in Peru and Bolivia. Efforts to describe and document Central Andean languages as well as philological research into colonial documentation and texts have blossomed in recent decades; here the major protagonists and drivers of these exciting developments are given the opportunity to showcase their research achievements in one volume. Following an introductory part providing background information on the region and its cultural and linguistic diversity, chapters in Part II provide extensive descriptions of individual languages that not only reflect current knowledge but also add to our understanding of their phonological and grammatical structures. The third part offers substantial typological comparative analyses that reflect the pivotal role Central Andean languages have played in investigations into topics of current theoretical interest such as the notions of linguistic complexity and evidentiality. Part IV explores topics relating to the history of the language from early prehistory to the colonial period, while chapters in the final part shed light on the cultural, geographic and sociolinguistic settings in which Central Andean languages are spoken and discuss language contact situations and language ideologies. The Oxford Guide to the Languages of the Central Andes will be of interest not only to students and researchers specializing in Andean languages but also to typologists, comparative linguists and linguistic anthropologists.

Transfer and Interference in Language Monika Brügge, Dietmar Fütterer, 1984. The topic of this bibliography in its broadest sense is the subject of a wide range of academic disciplines. Given these circumstances, the particular associations and connotations of the terms transfer and interference in each of these areas are legion, with resultant differences in meaning in the disparate literature on these subjects. And yet it is in one way or another contact and interaction of languages in the speaker-hearer and learner in language acquisition contexts as well as in society in general which is basic to these two concepts throughout the various disciplines. The discovery of this basic unitary notion is surely one of the reasons for the new interest in these phenomena. In light of all this, a bibliography cannot at present avoid being highly selective in order to demarcate an interdisciplinary area of research in its own right and with its own status. The establishment of such an area is one of our main aims. The focus of interest in this bibliography admittedly is directed towards the psycholinguistics of language contact and interaction.

A Bibliography on Writing and Written Language Konrad Ehlich, Florian Coulmas, Gabriele Graefen, 2011-06-01 The bibliography offers information on research about writing and written language over the past 50 years No comprehensive bibliography on this subject has been published since Sattler's 1935 handbook. With a selection of some 27 500 titles it covers the most important literature in all scientific fields relating to writing. Emphasis has been placed on the interdisciplinary organization of the bibliography creating many points of common interest for literacy experts, educationalists, psychologists, sociologists, linguists, cultural anthropologists and historians. The bibliography is organized in such a way as to provide the specialist as well as the researcher in neighboring disciplines with access to the relevant literature on writing in a given field. While necessarily selective it also offers information on more specialized bibliographies. In addition an overview of norms and standards concerning script and writing will prove very useful for non professional readers. It is therefore also of interest to the generally interested public as a reference work for the humanities. Aspects of Language. Studies in Honour of Mario Alinei, Volume I: Geolinguistics, 2023-07-10. Papers Presented to Mario Alinei by his Friends and Colleagues of the Atlas Linguarum Europae on the Occasion of his 60 th Birthday. The Art of Badī' Az-Zamān Al-Hamadhānī as Picaresque Narrative James T. Complément bibliographique 2007 Frankwalt Möhren, 2011-11-10. The DEAF bibliography is the key to French medieval literature and pertaining research. It offers bibliographical data for all the sources cited in the DEAF, gives a qualitative characterisation of these sources and provides the users with further reaching information e.g. the identification of the manuscripts, the dating and localisation of the texts and manuscripts, cross references to the most important bibliographical handbooks etc. Zu FEW 21, 221, 222 und 23 Kurt Baldinger, 2011-09-12. Ferner sind in diesem Band bereits publizierte Lösungsvorschläge weiterführende bibliographische Hinweise, Vordatierungen und Korrekturen etc. ebenso wie Nachträge und Ergänzungen zu den in Etymologien 1 und Etymologien 2 bereits publizierten Artikeln eingearbeitet. Das Darstellungsprinzip folgt wieder der begrifflichen Anordnung der Materialien und dem Aufbauf der Bände 21-23 des FEW. Ein alphabetisches Gesamtregister für Etymologien 1-3 und eine Kurzbibliographie schließen den Band ab. Lexicografía y lexicología latinas, 1975-1997 Matilde Conde Salazar, Cristina Martín Puente, 1998. Error Analysis Bernd Spillner, 1991. Errors are information. In contrastive linguistics they are thought to be caused by unconscious transfer of mother tongue structures to the system of the target language and give information about both systems. In the interlanguage hypothesis of second language acquisition errors are indicative of the different intermediate learning levels and are useful pedagogical feedback. In both cases error analysis is an essential methodological tool for diagnosis and evaluation of the language acquisition process. Errors too give information in psychoanalysis e.g. the Freudian slip in language universal research and in other fields of linguistics such as linguistic change. This bibliography is intended to stimulate study into cross language, cross discipline and cross theoretical as well as for language universal use of the numerous but sometimes hard to come by error analysis studies 5398 titles covering the period 1578 up to 1990 with work in more than 144 languages and language families are cited cross referenced and described The subject areas covered are numerous For example Theoretical Linguistics Linguistic Typology Cognitive Linguistics Historical Linguistics Language Change Applied Linguistics e g Speech Disorders Translation Mother Tongue Acquisition Foreign Language Learning Negative Transfer Intralingual and Interlingual Errors Psychoanalysis Slips of the Tongue Typography Shorthand Clinical Linguistics and Speech Pathology Reading Research Automatic Error Detection Contact Linguistics Code switching Interference etc Heidelberger Jahrbücher H.
