Studies in the New Perspective on Paul Don Garlington, 2008-06-15 This collection of essays follows upon its predecessor originally entitled In Defense of the New Perspective on Paul Essays and Reviews Wipf and Stock 2005 This second edition differs from the first in that five new chapters have been added and one review article has been deleted The change of the main title to Studies in the New Perspective on Paul is due to the conviction that the New Perspective on Paul actually represents a return to the original context in which Paul proclaimed the gospel of Christ Therefore it is not something to be defended but propounded in the most positive terms possible

Resourcing New Testament Studies David L. Dungan, 2009-03-01 Twenty internationally known scholars honor the distinguished teaching research and publishing career of Prof David Laird Dungan

Reading Romans within Judaism Mark D. Nanos, 2018-06-28 Over fifty years ago Vatican II's Nostra Aetate 4 drew from Romans 11 to challenge the way Paul's voice has been used to negatively discuss Jews and Judaism The church called for Catholics to conceptualize Jews as brothers in an everlasting covenant and many other Christian organizations have expressed similar sentiments in the years since Nevertheless the portrayal of Jews as branches broken off hardened without faith disobedient and enemies of God whom Christians have replaced as true Israel are among the many ways that readers encounter Paul's views of Jews and Judaism in today's translations and interpretations of this chapter and throughout the letter as well In the chapters in this volume Nanos shows why these translations and interpretive decisions among others do not likely represent what Paul wrote or meant Each essay offers challenges to the received view of Paul from the research hypothesis that Paul and the Christ followers to whom he wrote were still practicing Judaism a Jewish way of life within subgroups of the Jewish synagogue communities of Rome and that they understood Paul to observe Torah and promote Judaism for their communities

A Poetics of Postcolonial Biblical Criticism Aliou Cisse Niang, 2019-12-18 Telling in current biblical postcolonial discourse that draws insights from the works of Aimé Césaire Frantz Fanon and postcolonial theorists is the missing contribution of Léopold Sédar Senghor the architect of Negritude If mentioned at all Senghor is often read through conclusions drawn by his critics or dismissed altogether as irrelevant to postcolonialism Restored to its rightful place

Senghorian Negritude is a postcolonial lens for reading Scripture and other faith traditions with a view to reposition conscientize liberate and rehabilitate the conquered and enable them to reclaim their faith traditions and practices that once directed a mutual relationship between God human and nature a delicate symbiosis before the French colonial advent in West Africa A keen eye for cross cultural analysis and contextualization enriched this volume with an intriguing reading of scripture Ancient Near Eastern and Greco Roman texts in conversation with other faith traditions particularly Senegalese Diola Religion As a Poetics of Postcolonial Biblical Criticism Negritude is an optic through which people of faith may look around themselves critically reread their sacred texts reassess their vocation and practice mutuality with God and nature on the heels of chilling climate change Enshrined in this innovative argument is a call for introspection and challenge for people of faith to assume their vocation human participatory agency

Gardner, 2021-01-19

Winter Theme: Holy This Spring

Lessons center around the theme Holy, Holy, Living These. These lessons continue a unit we began last quarter on the first Sunday of February. It proceeded through all of February and continues through March. The eight lessons of the unit invite us to think about what it means to be the people of God and to pursue holy living. The four lessons for March help us examine how God defines holiness, how holiness is nourished, what holiness means in terms of sexual morality, and how we ought to pray. Much of this unit overlaps Lent, which is an especially appropriate time to think about holiness.

Spiritual Practice: Fasting

Scriptures: Leviticus 19:1-37, 1 Peter 2:1-10, 1 Corinthians 6:12-20, Matthew 6:5-18

New in Christ

The theme of this unit draws its direction from the Apostle Paul's words in 2 Corinthians 5:17, which is used as the key verse for each lesson. In the first lesson, we look at the resurrection of Jesus, which is the basis for our new creation. Over the remaining three lessons, we consider some of the ways we are new in Christ: we live by new standards, we behave differently, and we allow ourselves to become carriers of the gospel message.

Spiritual Practice: Sabbath

Scriptures: Luke 24:13-35, 2 Corinthians 5:11-21, Ephesians 4:21-32, 2 Corinthians 4:7-20

God Revealed

This five-lesson unit explores some of the ways God has revealed God's self in the biblical account. These include self-declaration, quietness through Jesus' visions, and love. God is not limited to these avenues of expression, of course, but the lessons help us grasp some of the scope of the ways God comes to us.

Spiritual Practices: Praise, thanksgiving, and song

Scriptures: Exodus 33:12-23, 34:5-8, 1 Kings 19:9-18, Luke 9:28-36, Daniel 7:1-14, 1 John 4:7-21

Gupta,2020-03-17 This accessible and balanced introduction helps readers sort out key views on the most important debated issues in New Testament studies Well known New Testament scholar Nijay Gupta fairly presents the spectrum of viewpoints on thirteen topics and offers reflections on why scholars disagree on these matters Written to be accessible to students and readers without advanced training in New Testament studies this book will serve as an excellent supplementary text for New Testament introduction courses      Revisiting the God-fearer Thesis in the Development of Early Christianity Thomas A. Robinson,2025-09-04 This volume examines in depth the theory evidence and trail of scholarly work on god fearers Thomas A Robinson argues for substantial revisions in the depiction of the god fearer phenomenon the story of early Christianity and its engagement with both Jews and with the larger Greco Roman population Robinson provides a thorough analysis of the god fearer theory examining scholarly debate and primary literary and inscriptional materials put forward as evidence for the god fearer theory Robinson begins with an exploration of the god fearing community its definition or lack thereof and its role as a bridge to Christianity in the Greco Roman world He then examines the key features of god fearers and the scholarly appeal to circumcision as the primary barrier preventing god fearer conversion to Judaism The volume concludes with an exploration of Luke s Acts and its readers and a thorough investigation of inscriptional and literary evidence supporting god fearer theory      Letter & Spirit: Vol. 12: According to the Scriptures: The Mystery of Christ in the History of Salvation Curtis J Mitch,Fr. David Vincent Meconi,Fr. Thomas Esposito,William Bales,John Cavadini,2018-06-29 Letter The Spiritual Experience of St Paul in the Monastic Theology of St Bernard by Fr Thomas Esposito O Cist Paul s Rhetorical Purpose in Ephesians 4 9 10 Upsilon Vector Mim sis by William Bales and Exegesis and Ecclesiology in Augustine s City of God by John Cavadini      The "Man Christ Jesus" Stephen Oliver Stout,2011-06-17 Does the Apostle Paul have any use for the person of Jesus presented in the Gospels Critical scholarship thinks not but this book argues that Paul not only mentions more than seventy specific details of the historical Jesus but he also commends the character of Jesus and echoes His teachings repeatedly in his letters and sermons in full agreement with the Gospel accounts Stout examines Paul s intriguing description of the Man Christ Jesus 1 Tim 2 5 and suggests that this title fulfills the OT expectation of God appearing in human history as a man In his incarnated humanity the Man Christ Jesus accomplished salvation in the historical events of his life and death and in his resurrected humanity he appeared to Paul on the Damascus Road rooting Paul s Christology deeply in human experience Furthermore Stout shows how Paul rests his concept of salvation on a neglected aspect of his doctrine that the entire church is associated with the historical events of the life death and resurrection of Jesus an association which also unites his church with one another in fellowship and service This book then demonstrates that Paul s gospel rests upon Jesus as a man of history who brings salvation into human history in his life death and exaltation as the Man Christ Jesus      Participating in Christ Michael J. Gorman,2019-09-17 World renowned scholar Michael Gorman examines the important Pauline theme of participation in Christ and explores its contemporary significance for Christian life and ministry One of the themes Gorman explores is what he calls resurrectional cruciformity that participating in Christ is simultaneously dying and rising with him and that cross shaped living infused with the life of the resurrected Lord is life giving Throughout the book Gorman demonstrates the centrality of participating in Christ for Paul's theology and spirituality
