Horsfjord offers an analysis of texts from an international dialogue process between Christian and Muslim leaders Through detailed engagement with the Muslim dialogue letter A Common Word between Us and You 2007 and a large number of Christian responses to it the study analyses the dialogue process in the wake of the Muslim initiative and shows how the various texts gain meaning through their interaction The author uses tools from critical discourse analysis and speech act analysis and claims that the Islamic dialogue initiative became more important as an invitation to Muslim-Christian dialogue than as theological reflection He shows how Christian leaders systematically chose to steer the dialogue process towards practical questions about peaceful coexistence and away from theological issues Islamic Politics, Politics of love and fraternity, 2007 the hajj the journey of love IslamKotob, 1980-01-01 Muslim Marriage and Non-Marriage Julie McBrien, Annelies Moors, 2023-11-09 Unconventional Muslim marriages have been topics of heated public debate Around the globe religious scholars policy makers political actors media personalities and women's activists discuss promote or reject unregistered transnational interreligious and other boundary crossing marriages Couples entering into such marriages however often have different concerns from those publicly discussed Based on ethnographic research in Europe the Middle East North Africa and Asia the chapters of this volume examine couples' motivations for aspirations about and abilities to enter into these marriages The contributions show the diverse ways in which such marriages are concluded and inquire into how they are performed authorized or contested as Muslim marriages These marriages may challenge existing ties of belonging and transform boundaries between religious and other communities but they may also and sometimes simultaneously reproduce and solidify them Building on insights from different disciplines both from the social sciences anthropology political science gender and sexuality studies and from the

The Impossibility of Muslim Boyhood Shenila Khoja-Moolji, 2024-07-30 How the construction of Muslim boys as proto terrorists is integral to the story of American racial capitalism How do we understand an incident where a five year old Muslim boy arrives at Dulles airport and is preemptively detained as a threat To answer that question Shenila Khoja Moolji examines American public culture arguing that Muslim boyhood has been invented as a threat within an ideology that seeks to predict future terrorism Muslim boyhood bridges actual past terrorism and possible future events justifying preemptive enclosure surveillance and punishment Even in the occasional reframing of individual Muslim boys as innocent Khoja Moolji identifies a pattern of commodity antiracism through which elites buy public goodwill but leave intact the collective anti Muslim notion that fuels an expanding carceral and security state Framing Muslim boyhood as a heuristic device she turns to a discussion of Hindutva ideology in India to show how Muslim boyhood may be resituated in global contexts

Islam and China's Hong Kong Wai-Yip Ho, 2013-06-07 Hong Kong is a global city state under the sovereignty of the People s Republic of China and is home to around 250 000 Muslims practicing Islam However existing studies of the Muslim majority communities in Asia and the Northwest China largely ignore the Muslim community in Hong Kong Islam and China s Hong Kong skillfully fills this gap and investigates how ethnic and Chinese speaking Muslims negotiate their identities and the increasing public attention to Islam in Hong Kong Examining a range of issues and challenges facing Muslims in Hong Kong this book focuses on the three different diasporic Muslim communities and reveals the city state s triple Islamic heritage and distinctive Islamic culture It begins with the transition from the colonial to the post colonial era and explores how this has impacted on the experiences of the Muslim diaspora and the ways this shift has compelled the community to adapt to Chinese nationalism whilst forging greater links with the Gulf Then with reference to the rise of new media and technology the book examines the heightened presence of Islam in the Chinese public sphere alongside the emergence of Chinese Islamic websites which have sought to balance transnational Muslim solidarity and sensitivity towards Chinese government s concern of external extremism Finally it concludes by investigating Hong Kong s growing awareness of the Muslim minorities demands for Islamic religious education and how this links with the city state s aspiration to become the new gateway for Islamic finance Indeed Wai Yip Ho posits that Hong Kong is now shifting from its role as the broker that bridged East and West during the Cold War to that of a new mediator between China and the Middle East Drawing on extensive ethnographic research this book thoughtfully charts a new area of inquiry and as such will be welcomed by students and scholars of Chinese studies Islamic studies Asian studies and ethnicity studies
