Romantic Dream:

The Romantic Dream Douglas B. Wilson, 1993-01-01 Although criticism on the medieval and Renaissance dream abounds a strange lacuna exists in the critical literature of dream in the English Romantics Every major Romantic poet relied frequently and explicitly on dream imagery and Romantic poems conduct a long discussion about the meaning power value and provenance of dreams Douglas B Wilson s book traces the wide web of connections that the Romantics wove between dreams and other expressions of consciousness sensation emotions illusions creativity personality and memory Situating his study of the Wordsworthian dream between ancient interpretation and Freudian interpretation Wilson gains a new perspective on the oneiric moment of Romanticism while liberating it from a narrowly psychoanalytic reading Wordsworth embodies virtually all of the dream theory of his time thus making him the perfect object of Wilson s multiple approaches to dream activity as poetic creation Back cover

Animal Visions Susan Mary Pyke, 2019-03-15 Animal Visions considers how literature responds to the harms of anthropocentrism working with Emily Brontë's Wuthering Heights 1847 and various adaptations of this canonistic novel to show how posthumanist dream writing unsettles the privileging of the human species over other species Two feminist and post Freudian responses Kathy Acker's poem Obsession 1992 and Anne Carson's The Glass Essay 1997 most strongly extend Brontë's dream writing in this direction Building on the trope of a ludic Cathy ghost who refuses the containment of logic and reason these and other adaptations offer the gift of a radical peri hysteria This emotional excess is most clearly seen in Kate Bush's music video Wuthering Heights 1978 and Peter Kosminsky's film Wuthering Heights 1992 Such disturbances make space for a moor love that is particularly evident in Jane Urquhart's novel Changing Heaven 1989 and to a lesser extent Sylvia Plath's poem Wuthering Heights 1961 Brontë's Wuthering Heights and its most productive afterings make space for co affective relations between humans and other animal beings Andrea Arnold's film Wuthering Heights 2011 and Luis Buñuel's Abismos de Pasi n 1954 also highlight the rupturing split gaze of non acting animals in their films In all of these works depictions of intra active and entangled responses between animals show the potential for dynamic and generative multispecies relations where the human is one animal amongst the kin of the world

Kierkegaard and Dostoevsky Petr Vaškovic, 2024-10-21 The book brings together the philosophy of Søren Kierkegaard with that of another prominent proto existentialist thinker Fyodor Dostoevsky Asking the question What constitutes an authentic Christian life the book explores the answer given by both authors which is that one should rid oneself of selfish inclinations and strive for a life of faith that revolves around the virtues of humility and non preferential love However as we learn from Dostoevsky and Kierkegaard becoming an authentic individual is no easy task and the book goes on to examine the obstacles that lie in the path of individual existential self development The book then examines the ways in which the various characters and pseudonymous authors who populate Dostoevsky's and Kierkegaard's books struggle in their attempts to become authentic ethical and religious individuals The examination of this struggle termed existential entrapment and defined as the inability to progress on the path of one's existential self development forms the core of the book and helps to map out the ethical religious landscape of Dostoevsky's and Kierkegaard's thought

Careful the Spell You Cast Ben Francis, 2023-02-09 Stephen Sondheim is one of the best known and most loved musical theatre composers but also one of the most misunderstood often being labelled as distant or cynical Careful the Spell You Cast instead argues that Sondheim firmly belongs to the Broadway aspirational tradition in that many of his characters are defined by their dreams to abandon one's dream as Ben does in Follies Frank does in Merrily We Roll Along and Addison does in Road Show is to lose one's soul Rather than take the established view of Sondheim as a cynic this book contends that throughout Sondheim's work letting go of one's illusions is a process that his characters need to go through that they must cast off illusions and false dreams without becoming cynical and destroying their genuine dreams in the process In turn this view aligns Sondheim's work as being aspirational and a logical continuation from the work of his mentor Oscar Hammerstein II Following the trajectory of Sondheim's career Careful the Spell You Cast shows how Sondheim has dramatized this process throughout his writing life alongside different collaborators From his work as a lyricist with the musicals Gypsy and West Side Story through to his later collaborations with Hal Prince Company Follies and James Lapine Into the Woods Sunday in the Park with George this book reframes the established view through lyrical and structural analysis in relation to the characters within each of these celebrated works of musical theatre arguing that Sondheim is in the popular sense of the word a romantic within the tradition of the Broadway musical
