Ronald Bladen, Thomas Kellein

Ronald Bladen Sculpture:

Ronald Bladen Robert S. Mattison, 2019-11-12 The first monograph on a pivotal figure of postwar American art Best known for his monumental sculptures Ronald Bladen 1918 1988 was regarded as an artistic forerunner by such minimalist artists as Donald Judd Sol Lewitt and Carl Andre But in contrast to the matter of fact work of these artists Bladen's sculptures are charged with emotional power They fill entire rooms pressing outward against the walls and ceiling their themes include the force of gravity the dynamism of planar surfaces the impact of scale and confrontation with the viewer This splendidly illustrated book presents a comprehensive overview of Bladen's career his breakthrough works such as Untitled Three Elements a standout at the Jewish Museum's legendary Primary Structures exhibition of 1966 his monumental outdoor commissions of the late 1960s through the 1980s and his reflective wall reliefs of 1980s Bladen's drawings and working models are discussed in detail and his early career as a painter is considered in the light of his later sculptural oeuvre Art historian Robert S Mattison's thoughtful analysis of Bladen's art is informed not only by extensive archival research but also by numerous interviews with Bladen's contemporaries including fellow artists like Bill Jensen Alex Katz and Dorothea Rockburne In addition this volume collects several of the most important critical essays on Bladen by Irving Sandler April Kingsley Bill Berkson and Naomi Spector The full scholarly apparatus includes an illustrated chronology of the artist's life and career Today Bladen's works are in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art the National Gallery of Art Storm King Art Center and the Staatliche Museen zu Berlin among many others His grasp of the expressive power of mass and abstract form continues to influence sculptors from Richard Serra to Ursula von Rydingsvard Here finally is a book that reveals and elucidates the full extent of his achievement

Ronald Bladen Ronald Bladen, 1967 Ronald Bladen Ronald Bladen, Emily Lowe Gallery, Michael Phillips, Fischbach Gallery, 1967 Ronald Bladen Sculpture Ronald Bladen, Thomas Kellein, 1998 One of the characteristics I think of all my pieces is that they have a front and they have a back They seem very human to me they always do In much abstract sculpture it does not matter where you see it from but I want my pieces read in sequence you see them from the front first then around and the back is another identity The white and black are philosophically opposed The white of the inside of the piece is well it's acceptance it's love it's gentle it's very moving and the black becomes slightly forbidding totally different in experience The curve was just worked out by eye It was not drawn it was simply laid out on the floor and it seemed a very nice curve and that was it As you approach the piece as you are drawn into it you find there is really nothing for the eye to relate to except for an expanse of light that's involving you And there is the quality of flowing into the piece and not quite being able to determine where the piece begins or stops You reach a point of stillness in the white Going around the black outside is really very nice because it is disappearing in front of your eyes You can only see a little bit of it at a time and it takes quite a long while to walk around And the other interesting thing is that the back is the same template curve as the front though the structure is different that's hard to realize because the experience of walking on the outside is so different
