Kümmerling-Meibauer, Astrid Surmatz, 2011-05-09 Astrid Lindgren author of the famed Pippi Longstocking novels is perhaps one of the most significant children's authors of the last half of the twentieth century. In this collection contributors consider films, music, and picturebooks relating to Lindgren in addition to the author's reception internationally. Touching on everything from the Astrid Lindgren theme park at Vimmerby, Sweden, to the hidden folk songs in Lindgren's works to the use of nostalgia in film adaptations of Lindgren's novels, this collection offers an important international and intermedial portrait of Lindgren research today. English Translations of Korczak's Children's Fiction Michał Borodo, 2020-02-22 This book investigates major linguistic transformations in the translation of children's literature focusing on the English language translations of Janusz Korczak, a Polish Jewish children's writer known for his innovative pedagogical methods as the head of a Warsaw orphanage for Jewish children in pre-war Poland. The author outlines fourteen tendencies in translated children's literature including mitigation, simplification, stylization, hyperbolization, cultural assimilation, and fairy-talization in order to analyse various translations of King Matt the First, Big Business Billy, and Kaytek the Wizard. The author then addresses the translators' treatment of racial issues based on the socio-cultural context. The book will be of use to students and researchers in the field of translation studies and researchers interested in children's literature or Janusz Korczak. Fairy-Tale Films Beyond Disney Jack Zipes, Pauline Greenhill, Kendra Magnus-Johnston, 2015-09-16 The fairy tale has become one of the dominant cultural forms and genres internationally thanks in large part to its many manifestations on screen. Yet the history and relevance of the fairy tale film have largely been neglected. In this follow-up to Jack Zipes's award-winning book The Enchanted Screen (2011), Fairy Tale Films Beyond Disney offers the first book-length multinational multidisciplinary exploration of fairy tale cinema. Bringing together twenty-three of the world's top fairy tale scholars to analyze the enormous scope of these films, Zipes and colleagues Pauline Greenhill and Kendra Magnus-Johnston present perspectives on film from every part of the globe, from Hayao Miyazaki's Spirited Away to Jan van Kester's Alice to the transnational adaptations of 1001 Nights and Hans Christian Andersen. Contributors explore filmic traditions in each area not only from their different cultural backgrounds but from a range of academic fields including criminal justice studies, education, film studies, folkloristics, gender studies, and literary studies. Fairy Tale Films Beyond Disney offers readers an opportunity to explore the intersections, disparities, historical and national contexts of its subject and to further appreciate what has become an undeniably global phenomenon. Bodies Inhabiting the World Niels Henrik Gregersen, Derek R. Nelson, Bengt Kristensson Ugglå, 2023-11-20 Bodies Inhabiting the World: Scandinavian Creation Theology and the Question of Home offers a multidimensional investigation of how houses, bodies, communities, and the whole universe may be conceived and refigured as places where we belong, where we are at home in God's creation. In this way, revisiting the tradition of Scandinavian creation theology provides profound resources to make theological affirmations of God's omnipresence in the human condition we all share. The emergence here of an exciting new theological program can be recognized beyond the limitations of other contemporary agendas cul de sacs blind spots and diffidence What it is to have a home is a universal question closely connected to what it means to be human and to live a good flourishing life But the negative experiences of homelessness broken homes statelessness and alienation always lurk in the background of the universal quest to find one's home in the world This book contains fourteen essays exploring the dynamics of the human experience of finding losing and finding again a home     A History of Swedish Literature Lars G. Warme,1996-01-01 Volume 3     Historical Dictionary of Children's Literature

Emer O'Sullivan,2023-04-24 History is constantly evolving and the history of children's literature is no exception Since the original publication of Emer O'Sullivan's Historical Dictionary of Children's Literature in 2010 much has happened in the field of children's literature New authors have come into print new books have won awards and new ideas have entered the discourse within children's literature studies Historical Dictionary of Children's Literature Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 700 cross referenced entries This book will be an excellent resource for students scholars researchers and anyone interested in the field of children's literature studies     Our Mythical Childhood... The Classics and Literature for Children and Young Adults ,2016-11-01 In The Classics and Children's Literature between West and East a team of contributors from different continents offers a survey of the reception of Classical Antiquity in children's and young adults literature by applying regional perspectives     The Music of Space Chris Carberry,2024-02-22 Since the early days of motion picture production film scores have helped define our emotional and aesthetic perception of stories on screen particularly with space movies and television The music from The Day the Earth Stood Still 2001 A Space Odyssey Star Wars Star Trek Battlestar Galactica and others has helped define the public's awareness of space almost as much as the films themselves In some cases they have redefined the norms of film music Star Wars not only revived the popularity of orchestral film scores but also helped stimulate an increased public interest in classical orchestral music around the world This work explores the music and the composers who have helped define the sound of space for over a century transforming how we perceive space and even inspiring greater interest in space exploration This book also details how music has been performed and played in space since the early days of the space race     International Companion Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Peter Hunt,2004-08-02 Children's publishing is a huge international industry and there is ever growing interest from researchers and students in the genre as cultural object of study and tool for education and socialization     Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Cinema John Sundholm,Isak Thorsen,Lars Gustaf Andersson,Olof Hedling,Gunnar Iversen,Birgir Thor Møller,2012-09-20 Although relatively small the northern countries of Scandinavia have made a disproportionately large contribution to world cinema Indeed some of their films are among the best known of all times including The Seventh Seal Dancer in the Dark and The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo And Scandinavian directors are also among the best known just to mention Ingmar Bergman and Lars von Trier But there is much more to the cinema of Denmark Norway Sweden Finland and

Iceland than that and this book shows us what they have been accomplishing over more than a century from the beginnings of cinema until the present The Historical Dictionary of Scandinavian Cinema shows just how long and busy this history has been in the chronology starting in 1896 The introduction then describes the situation in each one of the component countries all of which approached and developed the field in a similar but also slightly different manner The dictionary section with over 400 substantial entries looks at the situation in greater detail with over 400 substantial entries on major actors directors and others significant films various genres and themes and subjects such as animation ethnicity migration and censorship Given its contribution to world cinema it is good to finally have an encyclopedia like this which can meet the interests of the scholar and researcher but also the movie fan

Learning how to Feel Ute Frevert, Pascal Eitler, Stephanie Olsen, 2014 This volume demonstrates how children through their reading matter were provided with learning tools to navigate their emotional lives presenting this in the context of changing social political cultural and gender agendas the building of nations subjects and citizens and the forging of moral and religious values

Nordic National Cinemas Gunnar Iverson, Astrid Soderbergh Widding, Tytti Soila, 2005-07-19 Nordic National Cinemas explores the film histories and cultures of Denmark Finland Norway Iceland and Sweden The authors trace the twentieth century development of each country's domestic film production and audiences

The Preacher Camilla Läckberg, 2012-02-07 In the sequel to The Ice Princess a series of sadistic murders spanning two generations remains unsolved and time is running out for the next victim

Empirical Studies of the Construction of Discourse Óscar Loureda, Inés Recio Fernández, Laura Nadal, Adriana Cruz, 2019-08-06 This volume assembles eleven articles addressing current concerns in discourse studies from an empirical perspective Engaging with highly topical issues they indicate the potential of an approach to the construction of discourse via corpus based analysis experimentation or combined methodologies The subject matters of the contributions delivered by renowned scholars and dealing with either one or several languages range from mechanisms through which information structure connection and discourse organization are realized to prosody as a determinant of hierarchy and specific functions of discourse markers as well as innovative tools for visualizing discourse structure The resulting volume addresses scholars working in a variety of topics who either wish to incorporate empirical methods to their research or whose work is already empirically oriented and wish to gain insight into empirical evidence on state of the art discursive phenomena
