Room Called Remember Uncollected Pieces:

A Room Called Remember Frederick Buechner, 2009-10-13 A Room Called Remember brings together some of Buechner's finest writings on faith, love, and the power of words in the form of essays, addresses, and sermons. Here Buechner explores autobiography as theology, offers exhilarating reflections on biblical passages, and leads us into the room called Remember that still resides within us all, where the past lives on as part of the present. With patience, with clarity, with quietness of heart, we remember consciously to remember the lives we have lived. The Empathic God Frank Woggon, 2024-05-07 What if Jesus did not come to die for our sins? What if instead Jesus's life and death was intended to provide a way out of our shame? While traditional Christian teachings about the atonement emphasize sin as guilt and transgression against God's will and commandments, Frank Woggon points out that clinical spiritual care reveals that the human condition is predominantly marked by shame rather than guilt. In The Empathic God, Woggon examines myopic readings of the Jesus event that in turn have embedded distortions into traditional paradigms of the atonement. In contrast, Woggon mines narratives of the human condition to engage in a critical examination of the Jesus story. As a clinician and ordained Baptist minister, Woggon presents the Jesus event as God's empathic initiative toward humanity and convincingly argues that salvation comes through empathy rather than forgiveness. Woggon's work constructs a clinical theology of atonement from the perspective of clinical spiritual care. The Empathic God calls for a practical response of caring participation in God's ongoing work of salvation through an empathic praxis of spiritual care. Most importantly, The Empathic God takes seriously that lived human experience is the starting point for theological exploration rather than doctrine. This book will help practitioners and students of spiritual care in the Christian tradition to reflect more critically on the intersection of spiritual care practice and theology. The book also will challenge pastors, ministers of pastoral care, chaplains, pastoral counselors, spiritually oriented therapists to interrogate and re-interpret traumatic shame-filled Christian teachings about the atonement so that they too can join in God's ongoing and liberating work of salvation. Restoring Life's Missing Pieces Caren Goldman, 2011 A powerful and thought-provoking look at reunions of all kinds as roads to remembering and re-membering ourselves.
