Roosters Paradise The:

The Hallucinogenic Rooster David White, 2005-03-15 The Hallucinogenic Rooster is a moment captured in time a dreamlike and nightmarish expansion of one brief moment In a place called Fairy Tale Town some years ago I walked with a girl I was in love with among grimy fantasies a concrete Pirate ship a castle and drinking fountains in the form of hippos and tin soldiers Strange music came over loudspeakers Three of us we were baby sitting her sister s infant as a sort of makeshift family walked in this strange place I watched a rooster walk in and out of shadows and light I hallucinated that I was seeing its molecules and atoms coming apart and reassembling in bright colors I chose this event to represent the moment when we could have spoken to each other with our hearts but instead kept our silence This book is a sort of poetic expansion of that brief lonely and beautiful moment

The Rooster Sibel Roller, 2024-04-16 This is the story of a father as seen through the prism of a daughter s memories of him The personal story is offset against a greater political context and the destructive impact of nationalism on individuals and their families It is a tale of survival resilience and humanity The book covers the time that the father Dragan spent in a World War II concentration camp set up by the separatist Independent State of Croatia a Nazi supported puppet state run by Croatian ultra nationalists The camp and the atrocities perpetrated there are still highly contentious issues in contemporary Croatia Serbia and especially in Bosnia and Hercegovina The absence of reconciliation over the events in the camp was one of the contributing factors in the disintegration of Yugoslavia in the 1990s the subsequent Balkan wars and the continued instability of the region today The memoir contains the manuscript left by Dragan in conversation with his daughter Sibel the author It is indeed a deeply personal learning experience about a part of her father that she never knew

Chaucer and the Invention of Biblical Narrative Chad Schrock, 2024-10-17 Demonstrating how Chaucer uses the Bible in The Canterbury Tales as an authoritative literary source and model for his own literary production this book explores the ways in which the Bible was a key tool for Chaucer's self definition and innovation as an author Chad Schrock unravels Chaucer's Tales in the light of topics important to biblical reception in 14th century England authority textuality interpretation translation rephrasing and marginalia When the Canterbury Tales are summed up in this way they show the great extent to which Chaucer was drawing upon the Bible as a meta poetical resource for his own poetry its fictional tale tellers and characters its quotations allusions and images its plots its imaginative engagement with an audience of listeners and readers and its hidden intentions Schrock demonstrates that the Bible is a uniquely potent literary source for Chaucer because it combines infinite authority and plenitude with unprecedented freedom of interpretive invention As a world making text the Bible's authority includes the literary as subcategory but surpasses and contextualizes it which gives Chaucer's deferential biblical invention a different kind of freedom and safety Within Chaucer's tales a biblical image is often where a given narrative peaks and its plot comes clear but a biblical world also and without strain contains his biblical fictioneers and whatever they make from the Bible whether orthodoxy or heresy whether sin or worship Meet the National Animals Catherine Veitch, 2022-10-11 Meet the National Animals is a playful and humorous look at the animals all around the world who represent their country The Rooster Mask Henry Hart, 1998 The Short Stories in Palestinian Children's Literature During the Twentieth Century Dr. Rafi' Saed Mohammad Yehya, 2024-12-01 The study of children's stories in Palestine during the twentieth century will examine the history and development of this genre understand the main aspects and consider the historical and geographical characteristics The thesis combines the theoretical with the practical aspect It consists of an introduction four chapters a conclusion and an appendix The introduction explains the importance of the study its process and its procedural applications and objectives The first chapter deals with the processes of the Palestinian narrative and children's literature through a historical comparison that includes historical retracing the conditions of the historical and geographical stages and finally the general characteristics of the period The Trident, 1925 Before the Rooster Crows Kimani, Peter, 2007-06-06 This is the story of Muriuki a young man from a Kenyan village who leaves his home and back breaking job on a coffee plantation for the city to pursue wealth and happiness with his childhood sweetheart Mumbi But life is not straightforward for the young lovers who become steeped in the quagmire of Kenyan politics and are confronted with the sophistication of a new world its economic hardships and brutality and the racism and persistent inequities of the post colonial and global society Then Mumbi is murdered on account of her activism and race in lineage with so many of her country's historical and fictional female activists Muriuki avenges her death in a controversial act which reverberates historically and throughout the society in which he lives But then he experiences betrayal by his own people which changes him irrevocably
