and Carl Jung Considers unexplained ESP related happenings including bilocation the ability to locate lost items early knowledge of one's own death and perceptions regarding the well being of loved ones Whether a premonition of an impending event a warning of potential danger or an unlikely synchronistic experience such things are surprisingly common even if they often cannot be clearly explained Taking readers on a historical and cross cultural voyage through extrasensory experiences Daniel Bourke contextualizes and sheds light on these mysterious phenomena From the plains of Peru and the haunted highlands of Scotland to the snowy taiga forests of the Far North and the Indigenous cultures of Australia and America Bourke examines the strange psychic occurrences that seem to appear in all places at all times These include instances of bilocation premonitions about the coming of visitors intuitions of the location of lost items or treasures the discovery of cures by telepathic means and even accurate pre perceptions about one's own demise or the perilous situation of a loved one He looks at the renowned Greek seers including Iamos who announced the death of Hercules at the moment it occurred the far reaching visions of the shaman in a trance who might warn his tribe of danger and the witches wizards and heroes of legend and romance who were privy to secret knowledge through magical means Bourke's survey incorporates rare accounts from people all around the world and across the ages including figures like Rumi Saint Anthony Charles Dickens Mark Twain and Carl Jung Shedding light on our cultural and mythic past Bourke shows that wherever you look in the world whatever culture or time telepathic tales are unfolding all around us

Scripturalizing the Human

Vincent L. Wimbush, 2015-07-16 Scripturalizing the Human is a transdisciplinary collection of essays that reconceptualizes and models scriptural studies as a critical comparative set of practices with broad ramifications for scholars of religion and biblical studies This critical historical and ethnographic project is focused on scriptures scripturalization scripturalizing as shorthand for the psycho cultural and socio political work we make language do for and to us Each essay focuses on an instance of or situation involving such work engaging with the Bible Book of Mormon Bhagavata Purana and other sacred texts artifacts and practices in order to explore historical and ongoing constructions of the human Contributors use the category of scriptures understood not simply as texts but as freighted shorthand for the dynamics and ultimate politics of language as tools for self illumination and self analysis The significance of the collection lies in the window it opens to the rich and complex view of the highs and lows of human un making as it establishes the connections between a seemingly basic and apolitical religious category and a set of larger social cultural phenomena and dynamics

Medicine Rômulo Romeu Nóbrega Alves, Ierecê Lucena Rosa, 2012-09-19 People have relied on medicinal products derived from natural sources for millennia and animals have long been an important part of that repertoire nearly all cultures from ancient times to the present have used animals as a source of medicine Ingredients derived from wild animals are not only widely used in traditional remedies but are also increasingly valued as raw materials in the preparation of modern medicines Regrettably the unsustainable use of plants and animals in traditional medicine is recognized as a threat to wildlife conservation as a result of which discussions concerning the links between traditional medicine and biodiversity are becoming increasingly imperative particularly in view of the fact that folk medicine is the primary source of health care for 80% of the world s population This book discusses the role of animals in traditional folk medicine and its meaning for wildlife conservation We hope to further stimulate further discussions about the use of biodiversity and its implications for wildlife conservation strategies Western Folklore ,1975 Southwest Review ,1981 The Cumulative Book Index ,1981 A world list of books in the English language Southern Folklore ,1991 The Writer's Directory, 1998-2000 Miranda H.
