period Female chefs were once the rage in ancient China Zhuge Liang defeated his enemy with mantou Youtiao was also known as deep fried ghost Chopsticks were once reputed to detect poison Read about all these and many other enthralling facts in this info packed book With this well illustrated and easy to read volume understanding Chinese culture has never been easier Cosmopatriots ,2015-06-29 This volume analyzes mediated articulations of cosmopatriotism in East and South East Asian popular cultures and arts Cosmopatriots navigate between a loyalty to the home country and a sense of longing for and belonging to the world Rather than searching for the truly globalized cosmopolitans the authors of this collection look for the postcolonial rooted cosmopolitans who insist on thinking and feeling simultaneously beyond and within the nation The cultural sites they discuss include Hong Kong Indonesia China Singapore the United States South Korea and Australia They show how media from both sides of the arbitrary divide between high art and popular culture including film literature the fine arts radio music television and mobile phones function as vehicles for the creation and expression of or reflection upon intersections between patriotism and cosmopolitanism Cultural Nationalism in Contemporary China Yingjie Guo,2004-03-01 In the vast majority of literature on Chinese nationalism the distinction between nation and state is rarely made consequently nationalism usually appears as loyalty to the state rather than identification with the nation Yet since 1989 both the official configuration of the nation and the state s monopolized right to name the nation have come under rigorous challenge Cultural Nationalism in Contemporary China relocates the discussion of nationalism to within a more contemporary framework which explores the disjunction between the people and the state and the relationship of each to the nation With its challenging exploration of one of the most neglected aspects of identity in China this book should appeal to Asianists China watchers and all of those with an interest in cultural and sociological phenomena in East Asia The Cambridge Illustrated History of China Patricia Buckley Ebrey,1999-05-13 In an extraordinary feat of synthesis Patricia Buckley Ebrey a leading scholar of China gives an engaging full gloriously illustrated account of over 8000 years of Chinese civilization from prehistoric times through the rise of Confucianism Buddhism and the imperial dynasties to the modern communist state In addition she explores the different factors and forces ideas and inventions events and leaders that have shaped the remarkable Chinese civilization we know today including the technological advances the population explosion and the turmoil of the Cultural Revolution Everything appears from the influence of leading Chinese historians poets novelists and dramatists to the impact of key philosophical and religious ideas art forms family patterns and the Mongul Manchu and Western intrusions A Brief History of the Relationship Between Confucianism, Daoism, and Buddhism Zhongjian Mou,2023-01-01 Chinese traditions of Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism have a profoundly philosophical dimension The three traditions are frequently referred to as three paths of moral teachings In this book Mou provides a clear account of the textual corpus that emerges to define each of these traditions and how this canonical axis was augmented by a continuing commentarial tradition as each generation reauthorized the written core for their own time and place In his careful exegesis

Mou lays out the differences between the more religious reading of these traditions with their defining practices that punctuate the human journey through life and the more intellectual and philosophical treatment of the texts that has and continues to produce a first order culture of annotation that become integral to the traditions themselves At the center of the alternative religious experience reflected throughout the teachings of Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism is the project of personal cultivation as it comes to be expressed as robust growth in family and communal relations For Mou these three highly distinctive and yet complementary ways of thinking and living constitute a kind of moral ecology wherein each of them complements the others as they stand in service to a different dimension of the human need for an educated spirituality
