South African Autobiography as Subjective History Lena Englund, 2021-09-14 This book examines 21st century South African autobiographical writing that addresses the nation's socio-political realities both past and present. The texts in focus represent and depict a South Africa caught in the midst of contradictory and competing images of the Rainbow Nation. Arguing that recent memoirs question and criticize the illusion of a united nation, the study shows how these texts reveal the flaws and shortcomings not only of the apartheid past but of contemporary South Africa. It encompasses a broad range of autobiographical works largely published since 2009 that engage with South Africa's past, present, and future. At its centre is the quest for space and belonging, and this book investigates who can comfortably belong in South Africa in its post-apartheid, post-Truth and Reconciliation, post-Mbeki, and post-Zuma state.
