Sanabria,2015-09-16 The first single authored comprehensive introduction to major contemporary research trends issues and debates on the anthropology of Latin America and the Caribbean The text provides wide and historically informed coverage of key facets of Latin American and Caribbean societies and their cultural and historical development as well as the roles of power and inequality Cymeme Howe Visiting Assistant Professor of Cornell University writes The text moves well and builds over time paying close attention to balancing both the Caribbean and Latin America as geographic regions Spanish and non Spanish speaking countries and historical and contemporary issues in the field I found the geographic breadth to be especially impressive Jeffrey W Mantz of California State University Stanislaus notes that the contents reflect the insights of an anthropologist who knows Latin America intimately and extensively Black Popular Music in Britain Since 1945

Jon Stratton,Nabeel Zuberi,2016-04-15 Black Popular Music in Britain Since 1945 provides the first broad scholarly discussion of this music since 1990 The book critically examines key moments in the history of black British popular music from 1940s jazz to 1970s soul and reggae 1990s Jungle and the sounds of Dubstep and Grime that have echoed through the 2000s While the book offers a history it also discusses the ways black musics in Britain have intersected with the politics of race and class multiculturalism gender and sexuality and debates about media and technology Contributors examine the impact of the local the ways that black music in Birmingham Bristol Liverpool Manchester and London evolved differently and how black popular music in Britain has always developed in complex interaction with the dominant British popular music tradition This tradition has its own histories located in folk music music hall and a constant engagement since the nineteenth century with American popular music itself a dynamic mixing of African American Latin American and other musics The ideas that run through various chapters form connecting narratives that challenge dominant understandings of black popular music in Britain and will be essential reading for those interested in Popular Music Studies Black British Studies and Cultural Studies

Historical Theory and Methods through Popular Music, 1970-2000 Kenneth L. Shonk, Jr., Daniel Robert McClure, 2017-08-17 This book examines the post 1960s era of popular music in the Anglo Black Atlantic through the prism of historical theory and methods By using a series of case studies this book mobilizes historical theory and methods to underline different expressions of alternative music functioning within a mainstream musical industry Each chapter highlights a particular theory or method while simultaneously weaving it through a genre of music expressing a notion of alterity an explicit positioning of one's expression outside and counter to the mainstream Historical Theory and Methods through Popular Music seeks to fill a gap in current scholarship by offering a collection written specifically for the pedagogical and theoretical needs of those interested in the topic

Vinyl Records and Analog Culture in the Digital Age Paul E. Winters, 2016-07-18 Vinyl Records and Analog Culture in the Digital Age Pressing Matters examines the resurgence of vinyl record technologies in the twenty first century and their place in the history of analog sound and the recording industry It seeks to answer the questions why has this supposedly outmoded format made a comeback in a digital culture into which it might appear to be unwelcome Why in an era of disembodied pleasures afforded to us in this age of cloud computing would listeners seek out this remnant of the late nineteenth century and bring it seemingly back from the grave Why do many listeners believe vinyl with its obvious drawbacks to be a superior format for conveying music to the relatively noiseless CD or digital file This book looks at the ways in which music technologies are both inflected by and inflect human interactions creating discourses practices disciplines and communities
