The Individual and Utopia Clint Jones, Cameron Ellis, 2016-03-09 Central to the idea of a perfect society is the idea that communities must be strong and bound together with shared ideologies However while this may be true rarely are the individuals that comprise a community given primacy of place as central to a strong communal theory This volume moves away from the dominant current macro level theorising on the subject of identity and its relationship to and with globalising trends focusing instead on the individual's relationship with utopia so as to offer new interpretive approaches for engaging with and examining utopian individuality Interdisciplinary in scope and bringing together work from around the world The Individual and Utopia enquires after the nature of the utopian as citizen demonstrating the inherent value of making the individual central to utopian theorizing and highlighting the methodologies necessary for examining the utopian individual The various approaches employed reveal what it is to be an individual yoked by the idea of citizenship and challenge the ways that we have traditionally been taught to think of the individual as citizen As such it will appeal to scholars with interests in social theory philosophy literature cultural studies architecture and feminist thought whose work intersects with political thought utopian theorizing or the study of humanity or human nature inspiring life receives a fresh retelling in this new biography written especially for students and general readers This volume is an enjoyable authoritative and balanced way to not only understand a great man but also to understand a critical time in world history and race relations Mandela's quest for racial justice for black South Africans as a leader of the African National Congress led to twenty seven years of imprisonment South African Apartheid consumed the attention of the world coming to a head in the 1980s With intense international pressure on the Apartheid government Mandela was finally freed in 1990 Through the landmark presidency of South Africa and post Nobel Peace Prize years up until today he has continued as a peacemaker and agent for change Chapter 1 covers his birth into a strong Xhosa family and clan with cultural historical and geographical context and the next chapter follows his elite education path taking into consideration the forces and people who helped shape the future leader Chapter 3 discusses his law practice African National Congress work and his first wife Chapters 4-6 continue with his growing political involvement and family Chapter 7 and 8 deal with the long imprisonment and then freedom The final chapters discuss his presidency and Nobel Peace Prize and life today A timeline photo essay and selected bibliography complement the narrative

Long Walk to Freedom Chris Van Wyk, Nelson Mandela, 2013-11-28
Long Walk to Freedom by Nelson Mandela is the amazing story of a true hero of our times his famous biography has been specially adapted for children in a beautiful illustrated picture book format Discover how a little boy whose father called him troublemaker grew up to fight apartheid become South Africa's first black president and campaign for freedom and justice throughout the world Adapted by poet Chris van Wyk and illustrated by South African artist Paddy Bouma with an introduction from Archbishop Desmond Tutu Long Walk to Freedom introduces children to the life of one of the world's most beloved leaders

A Critical Perspective: Nelson Mandela-Long Walk to Freedom Nandkumar Shinde, 2018-11-03
Nelson Mandela completed and published this autobiography at the age of 73 when he became President of South Africa He selected to narrate his own story which is defined as the stand point in the autobiographical discourse This stand point which Nelson Mandela chose was very crucial and vital because he wanted to personify his journey from rags to riches from literally nothing to becoming everything He wanted to write his autobiography when he fulfilled the aim of his life He could see the life backward from the highest point of his life As an autobiographer Nelson Mandela became iconic figure in public life He felt to share his life story because there was tremendous curiosity amongst all the readers around the world about his experiences and sacrifices The very act of writing a life down constitutes an attempt on the part of the writer to justify one's life The every act of autobiography is the judgment of the writer to feel that life is worth being written down Only 1972-57 According to Marcus the critic on this genre adds autobiography thus should rather belong to the people of lofty reputation or people who have something of historical importance to say Marcus 1984: 31-32 Nelson Mandela in his acknowledgement clearly says that I began writing it autobiography clandestinely in 1974 during my imprisonment on Robben Island Apparently Mahatma Gandhi finished his autobiography in his imprisonment time Solitude seems a necessary requirement for political personalities to write as writing needs time and concentration Want of time is the main constraint in the life of political figures Another similar example is the case of Martin Luther King Jr He attempted to write his autobiography Stride towards freedom but could not complete it in his short span of life simply because of want of time Martin Luther King Jr s wife completed the dream of her husband by compiling his autobiography Nelson Mandela admits since my release my schedule has been crowded with numerous duties and responsibilities which have left me little free time for writing acknowledgement Long Walk to Freedom Nelson Mandela,Chris Van Wyk,2009 Discover how a little boy whose father called him troublemaker grew up to fight apartheid become South Africa s first black president and campaign for freedom and justice throughout the world Indigenous Biography and Autobiography Peter Read,Frances Peters-Little,Anna Haebich,2008-12-01 In this absorbing collection of papers Aboriginal Maori Dalit and western scholars discuss and analyse the difficulties they have faced in writing Indigenous biographies and autobiographies The issues range from balancing the demands of western and non western scholarship through writing about a family that refuses to acknowledge its identity to considering a community demand not to write anything at all The collection also presents some state of the art issues in teaching Indigenous Studies based on auto biography in Austria Spain and Italy
