

A person is walking away from the camera down a long, straight asphalt road. The road has a white line on the left and two yellow lines in the center. The landscape is flat with low-lying vegetation on both sides. In the distance, there are utility poles and a small building. The sky is filled with large, soft clouds, and the overall lighting suggests a late afternoon or early morning setting.

Long Way to the Horizon Robert Hunter, 2020-11-05 This book is a treasure among the works of Robert Hunter He spent years crafting this saga but sadly was unable to get it published before his death in 2005 The story is a three generational saga The focus of the story is that of the life of the oldest girl in a large French Canadian prairie family Bernadette Bernadette is always looking for an escape from the stilted life she experiences We venture with her and feel what it is like to be a child of the prairies in the early part of the 20th century Her journey is at times heartfelt at other times painful and at the end of a long road we find that it has always been human A Long Way to Goulacullin John Kingston McMahon,2013-12-05 The seasons of my life have passed by so quickly and now as I reach the autumn of my life I reflect on what has been and what might have been I have been lucky and am somewhat surprised that I have made it this far on my journey of life Now I look back and remember on these pages those that I knew and those whose lives were never fulfilled I am only one of a quarter of a million people who were brought up in the child welfare system in the 1950s and 60s in Australia and who are now referred to as the Forgotten Australians The Long Way Home M.M.
