Geopolitical Implications Fritz Dufour, Linguist, MBA, DESS, 2017-07-08 Westward expansion has always been more important to China than eastward expansion because except for the Korean peninsula and Japan China is looking at the vast Pacific Ocean The west has always been and continues to be China's lifeline China has come a long way Civilizations rise and fall They come and go But the Chinese civilization is one of the oldest and most stable The Chinese engaged in world trade way before America was even discovered They did that thanks to the Silk Road which was an ancient caravan route linking Xi'an in central China with the eastern Mediterranean It was established during the period of Roman rule in Europe and took its name from the silk which was brought to the west from China Although trading with the West was quintessential China has always sought to retain their own economic model When the four leading powers of the West England France Spain and Portugal decided to build their politico economic empires on triangular trade or face failure China was thriving as it had been for millennia But World War II dealt a serious blow to China's economy as the United States emerged as the only superpower on both the political and economic levels and put shortly after a policy of containment towards China That along with past failures exacerbated if not China's resentment at least its mistrust towards the West and especially towards the United States

Iran and China Shirzad Azad, 2017-02-09 Because of their historical roles and politico economic significance in contemporary international politics Iran and China have perpetually been in the crosshairs of both policy circles and interested observers in almost every other part of the world Crucial interactions touching upon any aspect of Tehran Beijing ties from diplomatic and military links to economic and cultural connections have especially been in the limelight of such riveting inquisitiveness which has often given rise to a flurry of rash comments sensational claims and impetuous conclusions But a detached probe into critical developments involving Iran and China however elucidates this rather inconvenient eventuality that the relations between the two important countries are not essentially based on pivotal principles and clear cut commitments nor do their ties really rest on tenuous thoughts and flimsy foundations devoid of any common interests in short term or well conceived objectives in long run In the same way the two political systems in Tehran and Beijing may ultimately end up each contributing to a separate pole of power regionally and internationally rather than moving faithfully and steadfastly in lockstep with what it requires them to truly materialize their more recent aspiration and design to move toward achieving a very close strategic partnership

Power of Bonding and Non-Western Emerging Great Powers Engagement Md. Nazmul Islam,2023-10-30 In international politics states often strive to maintain their position through either cooperation or force Soft power theory has emerged as a non violent approach for states to achieve national interest by utilizing intangible resources China and India have both successfully employed soft power strategies to expand their influence and Pakistan is a relevant case study for examining the soft power of China and India as it neighbors of both countries The withdrawal of the United States from Afghanistan has raised questions about how India and China will engage and cooperate in dealing with Pakistan as well as how they will fill the regional gap left by the US Nazmul Islam considers Joseph S Nye s Soft Power theory and develops a new idea of Power of Bonding based on non Western perspectives to examine India and China s soft power strategy on Pakistan Additionally it evaluates their areas of influence and soft power strategy in three thematic areas political and diplomatic engagement cultural attributions and attraction for power bonding and economic partnerships To accomplish these objectives the study relies on various research methods including content analysis of articles published in Pakistan s Dawn newspaper and one on one interviews with participants from Pakistan India and China China's Growth as a Regional Economic Power U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission,2003 Contains testimony and prepared statements by various experts as well as remarks by members of the Commission

Digest; Review of Reviews Incorporating Literary Digest ,1927 Population in China Nancy E. Riley,2016-12-16 China is home to a fifth of the worlds inhabitants For the last several decades this huge population has been in flux fertility has fallen sharply mortality has declined and massive rural to urban migration is taking place The state has played a direct role in these changes seeing population control as an important part of its intention to modernize the country In this insightful new work Nancy E Riley argues that Chinas population policies and outcomes are not simply imposed by the state onto an unresponsive citizenry but have arisen from the social organization of China over the past sixty years Riley demonstrates how Chinas population and population policy are intertwined and interact with other social and economic features Riley also examines the unintended consequences of state directives including the extraordinary number of missing girls the rapid aging of the population and an increase in inequality particularly between rural and urban residents Ultimately Chinas demographic story has to be understood as a complex multi pieced phenomenon This book will be essential reading for researchers and students of China and social demography as well as non specialists interested in the changing nature of Chinas population Mainstreaming the Northeast in India's Look and Act East Policy Atul Sarma,Saswati

Choudhury,2017-11-16 This book provides a detailed account of the evolution of India's Look and Act East Policy addressing the nuances of the policy and its efficacy for the Northeast Region. The Northeastern India as a region is landlocked sharing most of its boundary with neighbouring countries of South and South East Asia. It empirically explores the progress in and prospects for trade investment and connectivity between Northeast India and Southeast Asian countries. Further it discusses a range of regional and sub regional multilateral initiatives e.g. the Bay of Bengal Initiative for Multi Sectoral Technical and Economic Cooperation BIMSTEC, Bangladesh China India Myanmar BCIM and Mekong Ganga Cooperation MGC that could potentially strengthen the cooperation between Northeast India and neighboring regions in the social cultural and economic spheres.

China's Foreign Aid and Investment

Diplomacy, Volume III John F. Copper, 2016-04-29 Today by many accounts China is the world's foremost purveyor of foreign aid and foreign investment to developing countries. This is the product of China's miracle economic growth over a period of more than three decades together with China's drive to become a major player in world affairs and accomplish this through economic rather than military means. This three volume work is the first comprehensive study of China's aid and investment strategy to trace how it has evolved since Beijing launched its foreign aid diplomacy at the time of the founding of the People's Republic of China in 1949. Volume III offers an analysis of China's foreign aid and investment to countries outside of Asia in Africa, Europe, the Middle East, Latin America and Oceania. Africa was and is the most important of these regions and it is given special treatment. In the concluding chapter Copper reviews the findings of previous volumes, delineates China's most important victories and setbacks and notes opposition to and criticism of China's aid and investment diplomacy. Copper gives evidence that will be shocking to some of the reality that China's financial help to developing countries is one of the most salient trends in international politics and constitutes a formidable challenge to the United States, Japan and Europe as well as international financial institutions.
