Looking Into the Invisible Omraam Mikhaël Aïvanhov, 1991      Looking Into the Invisible Omraam Mikhaël Aïvanhov, 2000-01-01      Looking Through Images Emmanuel Alloa, 2021-10-05 Images have always stirred ambivalent reactions Yet whether eliciting fascinated gazes or iconoclastic repulsion from their beholders they have hardly ever been seen as true sources of knowledge They were long viewed as mere appearances placeholders for the things themselves or deceptive illusions Today the traditional critique of the spectacle has given way to an unconditional embrace of the visual However we still lack a persuasive theoretical account of how images work Emmanuel Alloa retraces the history of Western attitudes toward the visual to propose a major rethinking of images as irreplaceable agents of our everyday engagement with the world He examines how ideas of images and their powers have been constructed in Western humanities art theory and philosophy developing a novel genealogy of both visual studies and the concept of the medium Alloa reconstructs the earliest Western media theory Aristotle's concept of the diaphanous milieu of vision and the significance of its subsequent erasure in the history of science Ultimately he argues for a historically informed phenomenology of images and visual media that explains why images are not simply referential depictions windows onto the world Instead images constantly reactivate the power of appearing As media of visualization they allow things to appear that could not be visible except in and through these very material devices      In Dark Alleys the Role Playing Game ,      Sermons ... Matthew Simpson, 1885      Jews in an Illusion of Paradise Norman Simms, 2018-01-23 These further six chapters of Jews in an Illusion of Paradise now focus on individual exemplary figures and clusters of poets dramatists critics journalists art historians Jews whose achievements were once celebrated but now are almost all but forgotten not because of changes in aesthetic taste or style but because of social political and other ideological issues The book continues to examine the clash between their conscious and unconscious self presentation as Jews in a culture that wilfully or inadvertently misunderstood or rejected this aspect of otherness the men and women represented from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth centuries Whereas the first volume concentrated on the themes images and rhetorical motifs of this awkward status of Jewish intellectuals and artists here the ambiguous personalities and repressed anxieties of the exemplary figures are stressed For millennia Jews were considered outside of normal history passive victims of persecution then suddenly with Emancipation they fell into history and out of their mythical place in the scheme of things Everything seemed to crumble into dust and ashes      Invisibility in African American and Asian American Literature Klara Szmańko, 2008-09-22 The book is a comparative study of the invisibility trope in African American and Asian American literature It distinguishes between various kinds of invisibility and offers a genealogy of the term while providing a theoretical dissection of the invisibility trope itself Investigating the various ways of striving for visibility the author places special emphasis on the need for cooperation among various racial groups While the book explores invisibility in a variety of African American and Asian American literary texts the main focus is on four novels Ralph

Ellison's Invisible Man, Sam Greenlee's The Spook Who Sat by the Door, Maxine Hong Kingston's Tripmaster Monkey, and Chang-rae Lee's Native Speaker. The book not only sheds light on the oppressed but also exposes the structures of oppression and the apparatus of power which often renders itself invisible. Throughout the study, the author emphasizes that power is multi-directional, never flowing only in one direction. The book brings to light mechanisms of oppression within the dominant society as well as within and between marginalized racial groups.

A Companion to Pedro Almodóvar Marvin D'Lugo, Kathleen M. Vernon, 2013-02-22 A Companion to Pedro Almodóvar Marvin D'Lugo and Kathleen M. Vernon give us the ideal companion to Pedro Almodóvar's films. Established and emerging writers offer a rainbow of insights for fans as well as academics. Jerry W. Carlson, Professor of Film Studies, The City College Graduate Center, CUNY, rarely has a contemporary film artist been treated to the kind of broad, rich discussion of their work that can be found in A Companion to Pedro Almodóvar. Richard Peña, Professor of Film Studies, Columbia University, once the enfant terrible of Spain's youth culture explosion, the Movida. Pedro Almodóvar's distinctive film style and career longevity have made him one of the most successful and internationally known filmmakers of his generation. Offering a state-of-the-art appraisal of Almodóvar's cinema, this original collection is a searching analysis of his technique and cultural significance that includes work by leading authorities on Almodóvar as well as talented young scholars. Crucially included here are contributions by film historians from Almodóvar's native Spain, where he has been undervalued by the academic and critical establishment. With a balance between textual and contextual approaches, the book expands the scope of previous work on the director to explore his fruitful collaborations with fellow professionals in the areas of art, design, fashion, and music, as well as the growing reach of a global Almodóvar brand beyond Europe and the United States to Latin America and Asia. It also proposes a reevaluation of the political meanings and engagement of his cinema from the perspective of the profound cultural and historical upheavals that have transformed Spain since the 1970s      Great Thoughts from Master Minds, 1890      Stars, Specters, and Super-Powers Christina Lea, 2023-10-25 Stars Specters and Super Powers includes the following short stories The Black Sphinx of Dover An encounter at a sci fi convention after party changes everything for two newcomers The protagonist s hazy memories of a disturbing incident haunt her until she returns to find out what really happened Starshadows in Sideways Time In the far future a space ark fleeing the dying universe is assaulted by mysterious alien entities All Your Friends Are Monsters Two medieval warriors escape a gladiatorial slave pit with the help of an ally who might be more dangerous than their enemy Turmierre Returns to the Sky Horgic and Charn meet their benefactor and discover the purpose for which they were freed A Bad Habit An enhanced agent in a world of government controlled supermen begins to explore new abilities Its Own Place A traveler s entire reality begins to unravel after encountering an occult ritual Mister Blue Sky An emotionally scarred super powered hero and her friends go up against a quirky magical menace with the help of a famous otherworld champion The Man Comes Around Unfortunate hikers are caught up in the battle between an alien scientist and the villainous Covenant Misfits and Mistakes In the midst of an alien invasion competing factions of super powered beings struggle to claim one powerful but unpredictable resource It also includes two Appendices with extra background material and an RPG adventure based on All Your Friends are Monsters      The Mentor, 1920
