Japanese Cinema Melissa Croteau,2022-11-14 This book explores significant representations of Shinto and Buddhist sacred space spiritual symbols and religious concepts that are embedded in the secular framework of Japanese films aimed at general audiences in Japan and globally These cinematic masterpieces by directors Akira Kurosawa Hayao Miyazaki Hirokazu

Koreeda and Makoto Shinkai operate as expressions of and potentially catalysts for transcendence of various kinds particularly during the Heisei era 1989-2019 when Japan experienced severe economic hardship and devastating natural disasters. The book's approach to aesthetics and religion employs the multifaceted concepts of ma (structuring intervals), liminal space, time, ku (emptiness), sky, mono no aware (compassionate sensibility), resigned sadness, and musubi (generative interconnection), examining the dynamic evolving nature of these ancient principles that are at once spiritual, aesthetic, and philosophical. Scholars and enthusiasts of Japanese cinema, live action and anime, religion, and film cinematic aesthetics, and the relationship between East Asian religions and the arts will find fresh perspectives on these in this book which moves beyond conventional notions of transcendental style and essentialized approaches to the multivalent richness of Japanese aesthetics.

Secular Spirituality Harald Walach, 2014-09-18 This book discusses spirituality as an emerging scientific topic from a historical perspective with extensive discussion of the mind-body problem and of scientific concepts of consciousness. While the book focuses on the Western tradition of Enlightenment, it also implicitly addresses the double meaning of the term with the Eastern tradition describing it as a state of true knowledge which is an important goal on an individual's spiritual path and the Western tradition seeing it as the collective process of getting rid of narrow-minded dogmas and concepts. The book is based on a simple yet challenging premise: Science has not gone far enough in the scientific process of going from a collective mind tied up in dogmatic teachings to a truly free mind that seemingly freed itself from bondage and restrictions. The book shows that science and with it our whole Western culture has to incorporate spirituality if it is to realize this goal of enlightenment. If that is done and it can only be done by many individuals actually practicing spirituality, this will also lead to the individual type of enlightenment.

Concept-Based Clinical Nursing Skills Loren Nell Melton Stein, Connie J Hollen, 2020-02-23 Are you looking for a new way of learning skills? Do you want to learn how to problem solve and think conceptually? Stein and Hollen's Concept-Based Clinical Nursing Skills: Fundamental to Advanced covers over 250 nursing skills in an innovative concept-based format with excellent illustrations, concise rationales, and current evidence. Unlike any other text, Stein and Hollen incorporate an overarching framework of seven critical concepts: accuracy, client-centered care, infection control, safety, communication, evaluation, and health maintenance, to drive home the importance of these key themes in performing nursing skills. Each section balances need-to-know narrative with step-by-step skills, and every chapter includes a detailed case study with a concept map to help you apply knowledge and use clinical judgment in clinical situations involving nursing skills. Over 250 step-by-step nursing skills with over 900 photos and illustrations. Language and concepts reflect those used on the NCLEX. Concept-based approach to skills education pairs well with the Giddens framework. Accuracy, Client-Centered Care, Infection Control, Safety, Communication, Evaluation, and Health Maintenance are reinforced throughout as Critical Concepts to skills performance. Case studies with concept maps depict patients with problems that might be experienced in the clinical setting and are followed by a series of critical thinking questions with every chapter.

Application of the QSEN competencies A question that challenges you to apply a QSEN competency is provided within the critical thinking questions of each case study Lessons from the Evidence boxes highlight and summarize current research that can contribute to evidence based clinical practice Lessons from the Courtroom boxes summarize actual court cases related to the skills in the chapter in order to help you understand legal implications and Lessons from Experience boxes use a storytelling format to share the experiences of more experienced nurses with students Application of the nursing process Nursing diagnoses that include specific examples of client outcomes and nursing interventions are presented within each section of the chapters Uses an easy to understand conversational writing style Organized to present fundamental skills first then intermediate acute care skills and finally advanced skills often performed in critical care Critical concepts align with the quality and safety framework of the QSEN competencies Emphasis on safety and client centered care Expect the Unexpected boxes use a storytelling format to present unexpected situations that could occur and explore appropriate responses to them Home Care Lifespan and Cultural Considerations provided in each chapter Performing an Assessment chapter details physical assessment skills Evolve site for students features skills video clips skills checklists for all skills and NCLEX style review questions

Critical Spirituality Ms Fiona Gardner, 2013-01-28 Critical spirituality is a way of naming a desire to work with what is meaningful in the context of enabling a socially just diverse and inclusive society Critical spirituality means seeing people holistically seeking to understand where they are coming from and what matters to them at a fundamental level the level that is part of the everyday but also transcends it What is important in critical spirituality is to combine a postmodern valuing of individual experience of spirituality with all its diversity with a critical perspective that asserts the importance of living harmoniously and respectfully at an individual family and community level Human service professionals currently wrestle with the gradually increasing expectation to work with spirituality often without feeling capable of undertaking such practice Some work with people experiencing major trauma or change such as palliative care or rehabilitation where people ask meaning of life questions to which they feel ill equipped to respond Others work with individuals families and communities experiencing conflict about spiritual issues Increased migration and movement of refugees increases contact with people for whom spirituality is central Such experiences raise a number of issues for existing professionals as well as students what do we mean by spiritual How does this relate to religion How do we work with the spiritual in ways that recognise and value difference without accepting abusive relationships What are the limits to spiritual tolerance if any This book explores these issues and addresses the dilemmas and challenges experienced by professionals It also provides a number of practical tools such as possible questions to ask to assess for spiritual issues to see spirituality as part of a web of relationships
