Night Flight to Hanoi Daniel Berrigan, 1968 Night Flight to Hanoi Daniel Berrigan (S.I.), 1968 The League of Wives Heath Hardage Lee, 2019-04-02 With astonishing verve The League of Wives persisted to speak truth to power to bring their POW MIA husbands home from Vietnam And with astonishing verve Heath Hardage Lee has chronicled their little known story a profile of courage that spotlights 1960s era military wives who forge secret codes with braverychutzpah and style Honestly I couldn't put it down Beth Macy author of Dopesick and Factory Man Exhilarating and inspiring Elaine Showalter Washington Post The true story of the fierce band of women who battled Washington and Hanoi to bring their husbands home from the jungles of Vietnam On February 12 1973 one hundred and sixteen men who just six years earlier had been high flying Navy and Air Force pilots shuffled limped or were carried off a huge military transport plane at Clark Air Base in the Philippines These American servicemen had endured years of brutal torture kept shackled and starving in solitary confinement in rat infested mosquito laden prisons the worst of which was The Hanoi Hilton Months later the first Vietnam POWs to return home would learn that their rescuers were their wives a group of women that included Jane Denton Sybil Stockdale Louise Mulligan Andrea Rander Phyllis Galanti and Helene Knapp These women who formed The National League of Families would never have called themselves feminists but they had become the POW and MIAs most fervent advocates going to extraordinary lengths to facilitate their husbands freedom and to account for missing military men by relentlessly lobbying government leaders conducting a savvy media campaign conducting covert meetings with antiwar activists and most astonishingly helping to code secret letters to their imprisoned husbands In a page turning work of narrative non fiction Heath Hardage Lee tells the story of these remarkable women for the first time The League of Wives is certain to be on everyone's must read list The ^ACatonsville Nine Shawn Francis Peters, 2012-06-29 In the spring of 1968 a group of Catholic antiwar activists barged into a draft board in suburban Baltimore stole hundreds of Selective Service records and burned the documents in a fire fueled by homemade napalm The bold actions of the Catonsville Nine quickly became international news and they remained in the headlines throughout the summer and fall of 1968 when the activists were tried in federal court Shawn Francis Peters tells the fascinating story of this singular witness for peace and social justice Witness to the Revolution Clara Bingham, 2017-04-18 The electrifying story of the turbulent year when the sixties ended and America teetered on the edge of revolution NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY THE ST LOUIS POST DISPATCH As the 1960s drew to a close the United States was coming apart at the seams From August 1969 to August 1970 the nation witnessed nine thousand protests and eighty four acts of arson or bombings at schools across the country It was the year of the My Lai massacre investigation the Cambodia invasion Woodstock and the Moratorium to End the War The American death toll in Vietnam was approaching fifty thousand and the ascendant counterculture was challenging nearly every aspect of American society Witness to the Revolution Clara Bingham's unique oral history of that

tumultuous time unveils anew that moment when America careened to the brink of a civil war at home as it fought a long futile war abroad Woven together from one hundred original interviews Witness to the Revolution provides a firsthand narrative of that period of upheaval in the words of those closest to the action the activists organizers radicals and resisters who manned the barricades of what Students for a Democratic Society leader Tom Hayden called the Great Refusal We meet Bill Ayers and Bernardine Dohrn of the Weather Underground Daniel Ellsberg the former Defense Department employee who released the Pentagon Papers feminist theorist Robin Morgan actor and activist Jane Fonda and many others whose powerful personal stories capture the essence of an era We witness how the killing of four students at Kent State turned a straitlaced social worker into a hippie how the civil rights movement gave birth to the women s movement and how opposition to the war in Vietnam turned college students into prisoners veterans into peace marchers and intellectuals into bombers With lessons that can be applied to our time Witness to the Revolution is more than just a record of the death throes of the Age of Aquarius Today when America is once again enmeshed in racial turmoil extended wars overseas and distrust of the government the insights contained in this book are more relevant than ever Praise for Witness to the Revolution Especially for younger generations who didn t live through it Witness to the Revolution is a valuable and entertaining primer on a moment in American history the likes of which we may never see again Bryan Burrough The Wall Street Journal One of the best paperbacks of 2017 so far The book is a rich tapestry of a volatile period in American history Time A gripping oral history of the centrifugal social forces tearing America apart at the end of the 60s This is rousing reportage from the front lines of US history O The Oprah Magazine The familiar voices and the unfamiliar ones are woven together with documents to make this a surprisingly powerful and moving book New York Times Book Review An Enthralling and brilliant chronology of the period between August 1969 and September 1970 Buffalo News Bingham captures the essence of these fourteen months through the words of movement organizers vets students draft resisters journalists musicians government agents writers and others This oral history will enable readers to see that era in a new light and with fresh sympathy for the motivations of those involved While Bingham s is one of many retrospective looks at that period it is one of the most immediate and personal

Booklist A Checklist of Vietnam War Literature ,1994 The Movements of the New Left, 1950-1975 NA

NA,2016-09-23 Movements of the New Left is a documentary history of the movements for fundamental social change and radical democracy that disrupted the United States from their emergence in the 1950s through their dispersion and institutionalization in the early 1970s Using an inclusive definition of the New Left Gosse tracks the development and commonalities of the civil rights and black power movements and other struggles of people of color of the peace antiwar and student movements and of feminism and gay liberation The introduction presents a solid overview of the history of these movements combining chronological and thematic approaches against the backdrop of Cold War liberalism Forty five documents follow each with an informative headnote providing context and explanatory footnotes that help students make sense of manifestoes testimonies speeches newspaper advertisements letters and book excerpts from the tumultuous era referred to as the Sixties A chronology of the New Left questions for consideration a selected bibliography and an index provide further pedagogical support

Faith, Resistance, and the Future James L. Marsh, Anna J. Brown, 2012 The book presents Daniel Berrigan's contribution and challenge to Catholic social thought The aim of this book is for the first time to make Berrigan's thought and life available to the academic Catholic community and to activists so that a fruitful interaction takes place

Divine Rebels Deena Guzder, 2011-05 In an effort to reclaim the fundamental principles of Christianity moving it away from religious right wing politics and towards the teachings of Jesus the American Christian activists profiled in this book agitate for a society free from racism patriarchy bigotry retribution ecocide torture poverty and militarism These activists view their faith as a personal commitment with public implications their world consists of people of religious faith protecting the weak and safeguarding the sacred Recounting social justice activists on the frontlines of the Christian Left since the 1950s including Daniel Berrigan Roy Bourgeois and Sue Zann Bosler this book articulates their faith based alternative to the mainstream conservative religious agenda and liberal cynicism and describes a long standing American tradition which began with the nation's earliest Quaker abolitionists

Hanoi William Stewart Logan, 2000 This text traces the history of the fabric of Hanoi from its origins 1000 years ago It examines how the shape of the city reflects changing political cultural and economic conditions over a millennium of intermittent warfare and waves of cultural change and migration Drawing on his experience as heritage advisor the author looks at the challenges facing those who seek to preserve the best features of Hanoi's architecture and streetscapes while improving the living conditions of its residents

Lift Up Your Voice Like a Trumpet Michael B. Friedland, 2000-11-09 When the Supreme Court declared in 1954 that segregated public schools were unconstitutional the highest echelons of Protestant Catholic and Jewish religious organizations enthusiastically supported the ruling and black civil rights workers expected and actively sought the cooperation of their white religious cohorts Many white southern clergy however were outspoken in their defense of segregation and even those who supported integration were wary of risking their positions by urging parishioners to act on their avowed religious beliefs in a common humanity Those who did so found themselves abandoned by friends attacked by white supremacists and often driven from their communities Michael Friedland here offers a collective biography of several southern and nationally known white religious leaders who did step forward to join the major social protest movements of the mid twentieth century lending their support first to the civil rights movement and later to protests over American involvement in Vietnam Profiling such activists as William Sloane Coffin Jr Daniel and Philip Berrigan Abraham Joshua Heschel Eugene Carson Blake Robert McAfee Brown and Will D Campbell he reveals the passions and commitment behind their involvement in these protests and places their actions in the context of a burgeoning ecumenical movement

House of War James Carroll, 2007-06 An analysis of the Pentagon the military and their vast frequently hidden influence on American life argues that the Pentagon has since its inception operated beyond the control of any force in government or society The Long March Roger Kimball, 2010-09 In The Long March Roger Kimball shows how the cultural revolution of the 1960s and 70s took hold in America lodging in our hearts and minds and in our innermost assumptions about what counts as the good life Kimball believes that the counterculture transformed high culture as well as our everyday life in terms of attitudes toward self and country sex and drugs and manners and morality Believing that this dramatic change cannot be understood apart from the seductive personalities who articulated its goals he intersperses his argument with incisive portraits of the life and thought of Allen Ginsberg Norman Mailer Timothy Leary Susan Sontag Eldridge Cleaver and other cultural revolutionaries who made their mark For all that has been written about the counterculture until now there has not been a chronicle of how this revolutionary movement succeeded and how its ideas helped provoke today's culture wars The Long March fills this gap with a compelling and well informed narrative that is sure to provoke discussion and debate David Dellinger Andrew E. Hunt, 2006-05 His instrumental role in the creation of Liberation magazine in 1956 launched him onto the national stage Writing regular essays for the influential radical monthly on the arms race and the Civil Rights movement he became in Abbie Hoffman's words the father of the antiwar movement and the architect of the 1968 demonstrations in Chicago He remained active in anti war causes until his death on May 25 2004 at age 88 A Companion to Post-1945 America Jean-Christophe Agnew, Roy Rosenzweig, 2008-04-15 A Companion to Post 1945 America is an original collection of 34 essays by key scholars on the history and historiography of Post 1945 America Covers society and culture people and movements politics and foreign policy Surveys and evaluates the best scholarship on every important area and topic Includes book review section on essential readings The Unfinished War Walter H. Capps, 1990-08-31 Vietnam and the American Conscience Revised Edition A provocative and noteworthy contribution to the dialogue on the meaning of Vietnam San Francisco Review of Books Walter Capps is professor of religious studies the University of California Santa Barbara The United States and the Vietnam War, 1954-1975 Louis Peake, 2007-11-13 The United States in the Vietnam War 1954 1975 is an invaluable reference guide to the costly and controversial war the U S waged in Vietnam over the course of five presidential administrations Focusing not only on the conflict in Southeast Asia but also on the tumult the war inspired on the domestic front Louis Peake provides an authoritative guide to the wide range of media available on the U S involvement in Vietnam From collections of art work and poetry about the soldiering experience to journalistic accounts of battles and military training films the entries consistently provide clear and concise descriptions allowing the reader to easily identify the value of any particular resource With revised and updated annotations and over 150 new entries this second edition of The United States in the Vietnam War 1954 1975 is an invaluable reference tool for researchers and students of the Vietnam War Routledge Research Guides to American Military Studies provide concise annotated bibliographies to the major areas and events in American military history With the inclusion of brief critical annotations after each entry the student and

Transforming Ourselves, Transforming the World Mary Beth Combs, Patricia Ruggiano Schmidt, 2013-09-02 Transforming Ourselves Transforming the World is an insightful collection that articulates how Jesuit colleges and universities create an educational community energized to transform the lives of its students faculty and administrators and to equip them to transform a broken world The essays are rooted in Pedro Arrupe's ideal of forming men and women for others and inspired by Peter Hans Kolvenbach's October 2000 address at Santa Clara in which he identified three areas where the promotion of justice may be manifested in our institutions formation and learning research and teaching and our way of proceeding Using the three areas laid out in Fr Kolvenbach's address as its organizing structure this stimulating volume addresses the following challenges How do we promote student life experiences and service How does interdisciplinary collaborative research promote teaching and reflection How do our institutions exemplify justice in their daily practices Introductory pieces by internationally acclaimed authors such as Rev Dean Brackley S J David J O'Brien Lisa Sowle Cahill and Rev Stephen A Privett S J pave the way for a range of smart and highly creative essays that illustrate and honor the scholarship teaching and service that have developed out of a commitment to the ideals of Jesuit higher education The topics covered span disciplines and fields from the arts to engineering from nursing to political science and law The essays offer numerous examples of engaged pedagogy which as Rev Brackley points out fits squarely with Jesuit pedagogy insertion programs community based learning study abroad internships clinical placements and other forms of interacting with the poor and with cultures other than our own This book not only illustrates the dynamic growth of Jesuit education but critically identifies key challenges for educators such as How can we better address issues of race in our teaching and learning Are we educating in nonviolence How can we make the college or university greener How can we evoke a desire for the faith that does justice Transforming Ourselves Transforming the World is an indispensable volume that has the potential to act as an academic facilitator for the promotion of justice within not only Jesuit schools but all schools of higher education

The Berrigans Anne Klejment, 1979

Disarmed And Dangerous Murray Polner, 2018-02-02 What transformed Daniel and Philip Berrigan from conventional Roman Catholic priests into holy outlaws for a time the two most wanted men of J Edgar Hoover's FBI And how did they evolve from their traditionally pious second generation immigrant beginnings to become the most famous some would say notorious religious rebels of their day Disarmed and Dangerous the first full length unauthorized biography of the Berrigans answers these questions with an incisive and illuminating account of their rise to prominence as civil rights and antiwar activists It also traces the brothers careers as constant thorns in the side of church authority as well as their leadership of the ongoing Plowshares movement a highly controversial campaign of civil disobedience against the contemporary arms trade and nuclear weapons Murray Polner and Jim O Grady plumb the

Berrigan's contradictions among them Philip's secret marriage while he was still a Josephite priest to Elizabeth McAlister then a Catholic nun which led to their dismissals by their respective religious orders and Philip's excommunication from the church and Daniel's speech faulting Israel's treatment of Palestinians and the resulting criticism loosed upon him from pro-Israeli Americans and many of his allies on the left Disarmed and Dangerous is a fascinating study of brothers linked by faith and the dreams of peace and social justice in a century bloodied by war mass murders and weapons of immense destructive power It is above all an original contribution to modern American history that is sure to be widely read and discussed
