Stories for Nighttime and Some for the Day Ben Loory,2011-07-26 This guy can write Ray Bradbury Loory s collection of wry and witty dark and perilous contemporary fables is populated by people and monsters and trees and jocular octopi who are united by twin motivations fear and desire In his singular universe televisions talk and sometimes sing animals live in small apartments where their nephews visit from the sea and men and women and boys and girls fall down wells and fly through space and find love on Ferris wheels In a voice full of fable myth and dream Stories for Nighttime and Some for the Day draws us into a world of delightfully wicked recognitions and introduces us to a writer of uncommon talent and imagination Contains 40 stories including The Duck The Man and the Moose and Death and the Fruits of the Tree as heard on NPR s This American Life The Book as heard on Selected Shorts and The TV as published in The New Yorker

Old Time Tales Lawton B. Evans,2024-01-25 THE author of this work makes no pretense of originality in the telling of these stories of olden times They have been gleaned from many sources and are the common heritage of all who love to write them anew and hear them again Only the words belong to the story teller the story itself is as old as the race In the lapse of years and with the much telling of these stories there is no longer a line between fact and fiction How much is true and how much is false does not matter the story itself is the thing and one need not worry whether it really happened or not Much of it is palpable fiction but much of it is true Let us not be too critical of a story when it is a few hundred years old At any rate the stories herein contained are a part of the great inheritance that the boys and girls of this day have received from the past and to which they are entitled in all fullness and freedom If the reading of them shall add anything to the enjoyment or to the information of those who are always young in heart because they always thrill at romance and adventure the writer of these old time tales will be amply repaid

Children of the Mill David Hanson,2014-07-17 Channel 4 s The Mill captivated viewers with the tales of the lives of the young girls and boys in a northern mill Focusing on the lives of the apprentices at Quarry Bank Mill David Hanson s book uses a wealth of first person source material including letters diaries mill records to tell the stories of the children who lived and worked at Quarry Bank throughout the nineteenth century This book perfectly accompanies the television series satisfying viewers curiosity about the history of the children of Quarry Bank It reveals the real lives of the television series main characters Esther Daniel Lucy and Susannah showing how shockingly close to the truth the dramatisation is But the book also goes far beyond this to create a full and vivid picture of factory life in the industrial revolution David Hanson has written an accessible narrative history of Victorian working children and the conditions in which they worked

Criminality and Power in the Postcolonial City Maria Ridda,2022-11-21 This book investigates the literary imaginings of the postcolonial city through the lens of crime in texts set in Naples and Mumbai from the 1990s to the present Employing the analogy of a black hole it posits the discourse on criminality as a way to investigate the contemporary spatial manifestations of coloniality and global capitalist urbanity Despite their different histories Mumbai and Naples have remarkable similarities Both are port cities gateways to their countries and regional trade networks and both are marked by extreme wealth and poverty They are also the sites and symbolic battlegrounds for a wider struggle in which the North exploits the South and the South fights back As one of the characters of the novel The Neapolitan Book of the Dead puts it a narrativisation of the underworld allows for a discovery of a different city from its forgotten corners Crime provides a means to understand the relationship between space and society culture in a number of cities across the Global South by tracing a narrative of postcolonial urbanity that exposes the connections between exploitation and the ongoing coloniality of power

Dobu Susanne Kuehling,2021-09-30 This is an ethnography of Dobu a Massim society of Papua New Guinea which has been renowned in social anthropology since Reo Fortune s Sorcerers of Dobu 1932 Focusing on exchange and its underlying ethics this book explores the concept of the person in the Dobu world view The book examines major aspects of exchange such as labor mutual support apologetic gifts revenge and punishment kula exchange and mortuary gifts It discusses in detail the characteristics of small gifts such as betel nuts big gifts kula valuables pigs and large yams and money as they appear in exchange contexts The ethnography begins with an analysis of the construct of the Dobu person and sets out to examine everyday practices and values The belief system incorporating witches sorcerers and a Christian God is shown to have a powerful influence on individual conduct due to its panoptic character The institutions that link Dobu with the outside world are examined in terms of the ideology concerning money the Church receives offerings for God the difficulties faced by trade store owners evince conflicting notions concerning monetary wealth The last two chapters delve into lived experience in two major domains of Dobu exchange kula and the sagali feast

Facing the Darkness with Courage Pasquale De Marco, 2025-04-11 In a world teeming with wonder and mystery darkness can hold a particular sway over the hearts of our young ones As shadows dance upon their walls casting distorted shapes and shadows fear and trepidation may creep in transforming the familiar into a realm of unknown danger Our children our precious charges deserve to experience the world with joy and unfettered imagination They deserve to embrace the darkness with curiosity and courage rather than with fear and trepidation In this comprehensive guide we embark on a journey of discovery seeking to illuminate the shadows of childhood fears and anxieties related to darkness Through these pages we will unravel the intricate tapestry of childhood fears unraveling the threads that bind them to the realm of darkness We will delve into the science of fear understanding its physiological and psychological manifestations We will explore the role of genetics and environmental factors in shaping our children s responses to the enveloping embrace of night Equipped with this knowledge we will embark on a quest to create a safe and secure environment for our children one where they can flourish and blossom free from the shackles of fear We will learn to foster open communication building bridges of trust and understanding between parent and child We will discover how to equip our children with positive coping mechanisms helping them to confront their fears with resilience and determination Our journey will also lead us to explore the transformative power of imagination and creativity realms where fear can be transformed into excitement and adventure We will learn to harness the boundless energy of a child s imagination transforming shadows into whimsical creatures and tales of wonder We will discover how to cultivate a love for reading and storytelling unlocking the doors to fantastical worlds where darkness holds no sway Moreover we will delve into the profound role of faith and spirituality in overcoming childhood fears We will explore how religious beliefs and practices can provide comfort and guidance offering a guiding light in the face of darkness We will discover how to encourage our children to connect with a higher power finding solace and strength in the embrace of divine love As we progress through these chapters we will amass a wealth of invaluable knowledge and practical strategies We will become better equipped to support our children as they navigate the darkness helping them to find their own inner light their own unwavering strength We will witness their transformation as they emerge from the shadows of fear blossoming into confident and courageous individuals ready to face the world with open hearts and unfettered spirits Together we will illuminate the darkness transforming it into a tapestry of wonder and discovery a realm where our children can explore the boundaries of their imagination and discover the depths of their own resilience If you like this book write a review on google
