Partners Becoming Parents Talks From The Tavistock Marital Studies Institute:

Partners Becoming Parents of Marital Studies, Tavistock Institute, 1997-02 This study examines the often difficult process of being a parent and sustaining a partnership in a changing world It focuses on the connections between parenting and partnering relationships at a time when the foundations of family life are being brought into question Partners Becoming Parents of Marital Studies, Tavistock Institute, 1997-02-01 Christopher Clulow examines the connections between partnership and parenthood focusing on the parents as partners as well as parents and on the child He examines how children change the relationship between their parents and what relevance the couple's relationship has for healthy child development Becoming parents is arguable the most challenging of life changes faced by couples There are no clear guidelines about what is involved the routes are many and the choices range broadly Today diverse lifestyles new technologies and changing socioeconomic circumstances have combined with other factors to further complicate the demands of parenting Against this backdrop couples play out dramas constructed from their own histories and continuing lives together The child is born into this context of subtle interplay between each parent's and the couple's inner and outer experiences This book provides a fascinating and authoritative look at the emotional process of becoming a family

Marriage After Modernity Adrian Thatcher, 1999-09 For most Christians marriage is considered a sacrament created and uniquely blessed by God Yet the theology of marriage rarely matches the actual experience Marriage is too often a violent loveless institution and it is increasingly delayed avoided or terminated Marriage After Modernity offers new hope for Christian marriage at a time of unprecedented social and theological change It provides an unreserved commendation of Christian marriage reaffirming its status as a sacrament and institution of mutual self giving At the same time it breaks new ground It draws on earlier traditions of betrothal and informal marriage to accept some forms of pre marital cohabitation and provides a new defense of the link between marriage and procreation by sketching a theology of liberation for children Chapters shed new light on divorce and legitimate theological grounds for the parting of the ways contraception and the question of whether marriage is a heterosexual institution Particular attention is paid throughout the book to overcoming the androcentric bias of much Christian thought and the distorting effect it has had on marriage Marriage After Modernity argues for a vision of marriage which does not abandon its history and which draws upon its premodern roots to grapple with our current social cultural and intellectual upheavals The Emotional Experience of Adoption Debbie Hindle, Graham Shulman, 2008-04-10 This book demonstrates how psychoanalytic understanding and treatment can contribute to thinking about and working with adopted children and their families It illustrates how psychoanalytic psychotherapy can help both as a treatment and as a distinctive source of understanding for children who are either in the process of being adopted or already adopted Gender, Identity & Reproduction S. Earle, G. Letherby, 2003-10-31 Gender Identity and Reproduction draws on a variety of perspectives relevant to an understanding of reproduction across the life course Through a consideration of the representation of reproductive identities and experiences the book highlights difference and diversity in relation to contemporary reproductive choices The book focuses on women s and men s experiences of agency control and negotiation within the context of cultural medical political theoretical and lay ideologies of the reproductive process in contemporary Western societies

Focus on Fathering Robin Sullivan,2004-01-01 Takes an informative and challenging look at fathering and what it means to be a father It discusses the fascinating moving and often contradictory role in which Australian men find themselves as fathers and looks at issues such as What is a good father these days What is it fathers provide that is so influential to a child s development Is fathering importantly different to mothering Is it a role that a single mother or a substitute parent can take What do fathers and children say What do women think Practitioners share their research and experiences of working with fathers and explore many aspects of fathering including the role they play in a child s life stereotypes issues and pressures they face

Bringing Up Boys ,1998 Mothers raising sons without a father s input face a range of concerns There is a common assumption that a male role model is a prerequisite for normal male development This book focuses on how boys learn to be men and the idea of masculinity how to raise responsible sons and setting limits and disciplining boys

Forensic Psychotherapy and Psychopathology Brett Kahr,2018-03-26 This exceptional book adds to the fast growing area of forensic psychotherapy and shows the relevance of Winnicott s work to therapy with some of the most deprived in our society Contributors Brett Kahr Jennifer Johns Estela Welldon Joan Raphael Leff Valerie Sinason Jeannie Milligan Donald Campbell Em Farrell Peter Giovacchini Charles Socarides Murray Cox

The Psychological Processes of Childbearing Joan Raphael-Leff,2018-05-03 Childbearing seems eternal primordial and universal Yet human reproduction in the 21st century is in a state of flux This accessible book highlights dramatic changes that have occurred over the last decades focusing on both individual and cross cultural diversity across the now elongated childbearing cycle and the uniqueness of desire and emotional experience It does so by locating the transition to parenthood in its psycho sexual and socio economic context emphasising interweaving internal external realities and our inherent interconnectedness with others Included are conscious and unconscious factors determining beliefs expectations and parenting practices and ways in which these are affected by rapid urbanisation shrinking families societal instability HIV governmental maternity and child care policies and attitudes of professionals Drawing widely on empirical and clinical research from disparate disciplines psychoanalytic neuro scientific neonatal sociological obstetric anthropological and midwifery this resource book synthesises these to illustrate a spectrum of processes affecting each person s mental health

La terapia familiar Carles Pérez Testor,Anna Vilaregut,2023-10-31 Una obra valiente y novedosa que actualiza la terapia familiar y ampl a sus l mites al proponer un verdadero di logo que suma esfuerzos por comprender y tratar el sufrimiento familiar Desde mediados del siglo XX la psicolog a ha abordado a la familia como objeto de estudio enfoc ndose en su complejidad sus recursos sus dificultades y sus patolog as Entre las diferentes escuelas que se han interesado por la familia la psicoanalítica y la sistémica son las que tienen un mayor recorrido histórico a pesar de haber transitado caminos divergentes si no diametralmente opuestos. De ahí que sus avances tanto en la teoría como en la práctica clínica no hayan sabido conjugarse de forma satisfactoria. De esta necesidad de articulación nace este libro. Incorporando las aportaciones de las perspectivas psicoanalítica y sistémica y la experiencia clínica acumulada hasta nuestros días, Carles Pérez Testor y Anna Vilaregut, junto a una selección de autores, brindan una importante herramienta para la actualización de los terapeutas a la vez que facilita a los estudiantes de psicología y de medicina que están en formación la integración de los distintos enfoques.
