Rattling Those Dry Bones Women Changing The Church:

Rattling Those Dry Bones June Steffensen Hagen, 1995 Twenty two remarkable women of faith share their personal views and experiences of what holds them in the church This powerful collection includes some of the church's most well respected leaders theologians and teachers such as Madeleine L Engle Susan Cole Elisabeth Moltmann Wendel Virginia Ramey Mollenkott Rosemary Haughton and Nancy Hardesty

The Living Church, 1995 Living on the Boundaries Nicola Hoggard Creegan, Christine D. Pohl, 2005-10-06 Nicola Hoggard Creegan and Christine D Pohl tell their own stories and draw from the experiences of ninety other women scholars to helpfully and hopefully address the boundary between the evangelical world and the concerns of feminism found in the academy

Women Preaching Revolution Elaine J. Lawless, 2015-08-10 Do women preach differently than men In Women Preaching Revolution Elaine J Lawless contends that they do Drawing on her study of more than 150 sermons and extensive interviews with the clergywomen who preached them Lawless argues that women have changed traditional preaching in ways that reflect their socialization as women and their experiences of being female in America Many of the women in her study were expected to take courses on the art of preaching as part of their seminary training Most of them rejected the sermon structure and strategies they were taught in seminary viewing them as part of a male homiletic tradition and developed styles that celebrate their commitment to connection relationship and dialogue

Evangelical Feminism Pamela Cochran, 2005 For most people the terms evangelical and feminism are contradictory Evangelical invokes images of conservative Christians known for their strict interpretation of the Bible as well as their support of social conservatism and traditional gender roles So how could an evangelical support feminism a movement that seeks at its most basic level to redress the inequalities injustice and discrimination that women face because of their sex Evangelical Feminism offers the first history of the evangelical feminist movement It traces the emergence and theological development of biblical feminism within evangelical Christianity in the 1970s how an internal split among members of the movement came about over the question of lesbianism and what these developments reveal about conservative Protestantism and religion generally in contemporary America Cochran shows that biblical feminists have been at the center of changes both within evangelicalism and in American culture more broadly by renegotiating the religious symbols which shape its deepest values

Desperate for Authenticity Patricia Hawley, 2010-08-04 Virginia Ramey Mollenkott is a pioneer in the endeavors to integrate feminism with Christian theology specifically evangelical theology Desperate for Authenticity considers her personal development alongside her theological development to provide insight into her contributions in the scholarly arena Dr Mollenkott was one of the first evangelicals who demanded that concern for marginalized and vulnerable populations of people be nurtured A foreword by Dr Mollenkott is included as a response to some of the ideas within this book

A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further
