Institute of Library Research, University of California, Berkeley, 1972 Heroines, new edition Kate Zambreno, 2024-03-05 A manifesto reclaiming the wives and mistresses of literary modernism that inspired a generation of writers and scholars reissued after more than a decade I am beginning to realize that taking the self out of our essays is a form of repression Taking the self out feels like obeying a gag order pretending an objectivity where there is nothing objective about the experience of confronting and engaging with and swooning over literature On the last day of December 2009 Kate Zambreno then an unpublished writer began a blog called Frances Farmer Is My Sister arising from her obsession with literary modernism and her recent transplantation to Akron Ohio where her partner held a university job Widely reposted Zambreno's blog became an outlet for her highly informed and passionate rants and melancholy portraits of the fates of the modernist wives and mistresses reclaiming the traditionally pathologized biographies of Vivienne Eliot Jane Bowles Jean Rhys and Zelda Fitzgerald writers and artists themselves who served as male writers' muses only to end their lives silenced erased and institutionalized Over the course of two years Frances Farmer Is My Sister helped create a community of writers and devised a new feminist discourse of writing in the margins and developing an alternative canon In Heroines Zambreno extends the polemic begun on her blog into a dazzling original work of literary scholarship Combing theories that have dictated what literature should be and who is allowed to write it she traces the genesis of a cultural template that consistently exiles feminine experience to the realm of the minor and diagnoses women for transgressing social bounds ANXIETY When she experiences it it's pathological writes Zambreno When he does it's existential With Heroines Zambreno provided a model for a newly subjectivized criticism prefiguring many group biographies and forms of autotheory and hybrid memoirs that were to come in the years to follow A book that has become its own canon Heroines was named one of the 50 Books that define the past 5 Years in Literature by Flavorwire an Essential Feminist Manifesto by Dazed and one of the 50 Greatest Books by Women in Buzzfeed Matrixial Subjectivity, Aesthetics, Ethics, Volume 1, 1990-2000 Bracha L. Ettinger, 2020-11-17 This book is the first of two volumes that together present for the first time a comprehensive collection of three decades of the theoretical writings of artist and theorist Bracha L. Ettinger Edited and introduced by Griselda Pollock they provide a systematic anthology of Ettinger's path breaking and influential concept of Matrixial subjectivity as encounter and jointness in difference and chart her radical intervention in aesthetics ethics and theories of subjectivity far beyond classical feminist and current gender queer theory This first volume includes the writings in which Ettinger elaborates her original concepts of Matrixial space time and metamorphosis fascination with nesting resonance transcriptum compassion self fragilization and resistance co emergence and copoiesis transform theories of the subject Eros alliance and love sexual difference alterity relationality trauma and violence Her critical dialogue with theorists including Levinas Lacan Lyotard and Deleuze Guattari Butler Cavarero and Irigaray is evident here A leading authority on Matrixial theory Griselda Pollock provides explanatory prefaces to each chapter and a lengthy introduction that situates Ettinger s work in relation to socio psychoanalytical theory and practice and current social and philosophical debates Ettinger s interlacing of psychoanalysis ethics and aesthetics can be seen here to address some of the deepest challenges of our social cultural and political existence today Incriminations Karen S. McPherson,2021-09-14 Maintaining that women s storytelling is a telling activity Karen McPherson reads for guilt in novels by five twentieth century writers Simone de Beauvoir L Invite Marguerite Duras Le ravisement de Lol V Stein Anne H bert Kamouraska Virginia Woolf Mrs Dalloway and Nicole Brossard Le d sert mauve She finds in the vocabulary and atmosphere of these novels a linking of female protagonists to crime and culpability The guilt however is not clearly imputed or assumed it tends to trouble the conscience of the entire narrative Through critical close readings and an inquiry into the interrelations among narration transgression and gender McPherson explores how the women in the stories come under suspicion and how they attempt to reverse or rewrite the guilty sentence The author examines the complex process and language of incrimination reflecting on its literary philosophical social and political manifestations in the texts and contexts of the five novels She looks for signs of possible subversion of the incriminating process within the texts Can female protagonists and women writers escape the vicious circling of the story that would incriminate them In the course of this book the stories are made to reveal their strikingly modern and postmodern preoccupations with survival The Subject of Psychosis: A Lacanian Perspective S. Vanheule,2011-10-03 This book discusses what Jacques Lacan s oeuvre contributes to our understanding of psychosis Presenting a close reading of original texts Stijn Vanheule proposes that Lacan s work on psychosis can best be framed in terms of four broad periods Umbr(a): Writing ,2010 The Novel After Theory Judith Ryan,2012 Novels began to incorporate literary theory in unexpected ways in the late twentieth century Through allusion parody or implicit critique theory formed an additional strand in fiction raising questions about the nature of authorship and the practice of writing Investigating theories of textuality psychology and society in the work of Don DeLillo Thomas Pynchon J M Coetzee Margaret Atwood W G Sebald and Umberto Eco as well as Monika Maron Alain Robbe Grillet Marguerite Duras Marilynne Robinson David Foster Wallace and Christa Wolf Judith Ryan identifies subtle negotiations between author and theory and the richness this dynamic adds to texts Resetting the way we think and learn about literature her book reads current literary theory while uniquely tracing its shaping of a genre Situating the Feminist Gaze and Spectatorship in Postwar Cinema Marcelline Block,Angela Laflen,2009-01-14 Marcelline Block s Situating the Feminist Gaze and Spectatorship in Postwar Cinema breaks new ground in exploring feminist film theory It is a wide ranging collection revisiting important theoretical questions as well as offering close analyses of films produced in the United States France England Belgium and Russia This anthology investigates exciting areas of research for critical inquiry into film and gender studies as well as feminist queer and postfeminist theories and treats film texts from Marguerite Duras to 21st century horror films from Agnès Varda's 2007 installation at the Pantheon to the post-Soviet Russian filmmakers Aleksei Balabanov and Valerii Todorovskii from Quentin Tarantino's Death Proof to Sofia Coppola's postfeminist trilogy from Chantal Akerman's transhistorical transgressive and transgendered gaze to the quantum gaze in Steven Spielberg's Jurassic Park from Hitchcock's good-looking blondes to the career woman in peril thriller among others. According to the semiotician Marshall Blonsky of the New School University in New York, given the breadth of the editor's choices, this volume makes a splendid contribution to feminist and cinematic fields as well as cultural and media studies, postmodernism, and postfeminism. It lends readers new eyes to view canonical and other film texts. David Sterritt, chairman of the National Society of Film Critics, states that this anthology should be required reading for students and scholars among other readers interested in the interaction of cinema with contemporary culture. Situating the Feminist Gaze and Spectatorship is prefaced by Jean Michel Rabat's brilliant essay Mulvey was the First. Umbr\(a\): The Dark God, Fifty Key Contemporary Thinkers John Lechte, 2006-08-21. Fifty Key Contemporary Thinkers surveys the most important figures who have influenced post-war thought. The reader is guided through structuralism, semiotics, post-Marxism, and Annales history on to modernity and postmodernity. With its comprehensive biographical and bibliographical information, this book provides a vital reference work of the last fifty years.

Lacan and Marx Pierre Bruno, 2019-08-13. Lacan and Marx: The Invention of the Symptom provides an incisive commentary on Lacan's reading of Marx, mapping the relations between these two vastly influential thinkers. Unlike previous books, Bruno provides a detailed history of Lacan's reading of Marx and surveys his references to Marx in both his writings and seminars. Examining Lacan's key argument that Marx invented the symptom, Bruno shows how Lacan went on to criticize Marx and contrasts Marx's concept of surplus value with Lacan's surplus enjoyment. Exploring the division between Marxist and psychoanalytic perspectives on social and psychological need and Lacan's formalisation of the capitalist discourse, the book compares the positions of Althusser, Deleuze, and Guattari and links them to the relations between Lacan, Marx, and capitalism using a wide range of cultural examples from Stevenson's Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde to Brecht's Joan Dark and Pierpont Mauler. Through these readings, Bruno also elaborates an extended commentary on Lacan's central idea of the division of the subject. His focus is not only on showing how we can exit from capitalism but also, and just as importantly, on showing how we can make capitalism exit from us. This book will be of great interest to scholars and readers of Lacan and Marx from across the fields of psychoanalysis, philosophy, and political economy and will also appeal to Lacanian psychoanalysts in clinical practice.

On Both Sides of the Tracks Morgane Cadieu, 2024-01-09. An analysis of social mobility in contemporary French literature that offers a new perspective on figures who move between social classes. Social climbers have often been the core characters of novels. Their position between traditional tiers in society makes them touchstones for any political and literary moment, including our own. Morgane Cadieu's study looks at a certain kind of social climber in contemporary French literature whom she calls the parvenant Taken from the French term parvenu which refers to one who is newly arrived a parvenant is a character who shuttles between social groups A parvenant may become part of a new social class but devises literary ways to come back constantly undoing any fixed idea of social affiliation Focusing on recent French novels and autobiographies On Both Sides of the Tracks speaks powerfully to issues of emancipation and class Cadieu offers a fresh critical look at tales of social mobility in the work of Annie Ernaux Kaoutar Harchi Michel Houellebecq douard Louis and Marie NDiaye among others shedding fascinating light on upward mobility today as a formal literary problem

Foundations of the Everyday Eran Dorfman,2014-06-04 We are used to seeing the everyday as an ordinary aspect of life something that we need to overcome whereas it actually plays a crucial role in any event of our lives This highly original book engages with a range of thinkers and texts from across the fields of phenomenology psychoanalysis and critical theory including Husserl Heidegger Merleau Ponty Freud and Benjamin together with innovative analysis of French literature and the visual arts to demonstrate that the role of repetition and deferral in modernity has changed dramatically Rather than allowing the everyday gradually to integrate singular events into its repetitive texture events are experienced now as self enclosed entities allegedly disconnected from the everyday leading to its impoverishment The book thus offers a novel understanding of being body trauma and shock but within the framework of the everyday as a concept that deserves a theory of its very own

Out There Russell Ferguson,Martha Gever,Trinh T. Minh-Ha,Cornel West,1992-02-11 Out There addresses the theme of cultural marginalization the process whereby various groups are excluded from access to and participation in the dominant culture It engages fundamental issues raised by attempts to define such concepts as mainstream minority and other and opens up new ways of thinking about culture and representation All of the texts deal with questions of representation in the broadest sense encompassing not just the visual but also the social and psychological aspects of cultural identity Included are important theoretical writings by Homi Bhabha Helene Cixous Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari and Monique Wittig Their work is juxtaposed with essays on more overtly personal themes often autobiographical by Gloria Anzaldua Bell Hooks and Richard Rodriguez among others This rich anthology brings together voices from many different marginalized groups groups that are often isolated from each other as well as from the dominant culture It joins issues of gender race sexual preference and class in one forum but without imposing a false unity on the diverse cultures represented Each piece in the book subtly changes the way every other piece is read While several essays focus on specific issues in art such as John Yau's piece on Wilfredo Lam in the Museum of Modern Art or James Clifford's on collecting art others draw from debates in literature film and critical theory to provide a much broader context than is usually found in work aimed at an art audience Topics range from the functions of language to the role of public art in the city from gay pornography to the meanings of black hair styles Out There also includes essays by Rosalyn Deutsche Richard Dyer Kobena Mercer Edward Said Gayatri Spivak Gerald Vizenor and Simon Watney as well as by the editors Copublished with the New Museum of Contemporary Art New York Distributed by The MIT Press

Levinas and Lacan Sarah Harasym, 1998-10-01 Levinas and Lacan traces the similar concepts and logics of Jacques Lacan and Emmanuel Levinas to explicitly render the rigorous questioning of the philosophic tradition undertaken by these thinkers and to articulate the theoretical stakes and practical consequences of such a conjunction for ethics In this book contemporary philosophers examine this missed encounter between Levinas and Lacan by tracing their preoccupation with issues that emerge in late modernity language subjectivity alterity and ethics

Democracy, Dialogue, Memory Idit Alphandary, Leszek Koczanowicz, 2018-09-24 Arguing that the politics of democracy is inseparable from a notion of dialogue that emerges from conflicting and often traumatic memories Democracy Dialogue Memory examines the importance of dialogue for the achievement of understanding in civil society rather than consensus so that democratic participation and inclusion can be strengthened With attention to the importance for marginalized communities of the ability to disclose fundamental ethnic religious gendered racial or personal and affective characteristics born of trauma and so cease to represent otherness this book brings together studies from Europe Israel and the United States of literary and visual attempts to expand dialogue with the other particularly where democracies are prone to vacillating between the desire to endorse otherness and political dread of the other A critique of the practices of forced inclusion and forced consensual negotiation that seeks to advance dialogue as a crucial safeguard against the twin dangers of exclusion and enforced assimilation Democracy Dialogue Memory will appeal to scholars with interests in political theory political sociology collective and contested memory and civil society at the same time as allowing scholars from the humanities and the arts to examine seminal chapters that pivot on psychoanalytical approaches to literature film and philosophy at the borderline of political thinking
