H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley, 1967-10 In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men's efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and From Lowbrow to Nobrow Peter Swirski, 2005 From Lowbrow to Nobrow vindicates popular fiction the First World War as an art form that expresses and reflects the aesthetic and social values of its readers Raymond Chandler, Romantic Ideology, and the Cultural Politics of Chivalry Anthony Dean Rizzuto, 2021-12-03 Raymond Chandler Romantic Ideology and the Cultural Politics of Chivalry responds to the general consensus that Philip Marlowe represents a chivalric knight out of romance The book argues that this commonplace reading requires a stunningly rosy rewriting of Marlowe knighthood chivalry and romance The book offers a history of the cultural politics of chivalry from the Middle Ages through British Romanticism to the modern United States exposing the elitism violent masculinism racism and ethno national othering harbored within Rizzuto also considers the survival of the chivalric ideology after World War I and argues that the narrative of the Great War destroying chivalry rewrites the ghastly history of warfare Touching on Chandler throughout these cultural histories the book then directly confronts the question of knighthood and romance in the Marlowe novels Rizzuto identifies an explicit rejection of romance in the service of hardboiled gender class and genre norms including a seldom remarked pattern of violence against women and sexual assault The volume concludes by offering some ideas about Chandler s

motivations and the reception of the Marlowe novels The Post Office London Directory ,1847 Thinking about Movies Peter Lehman, William Luhr, 2018-10-30 A complete introduction to analyzing and enjoying a wide variety of movies for film students and movie lovers alike Thinking About Movies Watching Questioning Enjoying Fourth Edition is a thorough overview of movie analysis designed to enlighten both students and enthusiasts and heighten their enjoyment of films Readers will delve into the process of thinking about movies critically and analytically and find how doing so can greatly enhance the pleasure of watching movies Divided roughly into two parts the book addresses film studies within the context of the dynamics of cinema before moving on to a broader analysis of the relationship of films to the larger social cultural and industrial issues informing them This updated fourth edition includes an entirely new section devoted to a complete analysis of the film adaptation of The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo along with many in depth discussions of important films such as Citizen Kane and Silence of the Lambs The chapter on television integrates a major expansion distinguishing between television in the digital era of the convergence of the entertainment and technology industries in comparison to the era of broadcast analogue television The final chapter places film within the current context of digital culture globalization and the powerful rise of China in film production and exhibition The authors clearly present various methodologies for analyzing movies and illustrate them with detailed examples and images from a wide range of films from cult classics to big budget award winning movies This helps viewers see new things in movies and also better understand and explain why they like some better than others Thinking About Movies Watching Questioning Enjoying Fourth Edition is ideal for film students immersed in the study of this important contemporary medium and art form as well as students and readers who have never taken a class on cinema before Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche, 2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research Film/Music Analysis Emilio Audissino, 2017-10-14 This book offers an approach to film music in which music and visuals are seen as equal players in the game The field of Film Music
