have been waiting for Comprehensive detailed and intelligently organized and written in accessible and compelling prose Contemporary American Cinema will be embraced by instructors and students alike Charlie Keil Director Cinema Studies Program University of Toronto Canada Contemporary American Cinema usefully gathers together a range of materials that provide a valuable resource for students and scholars It is also a pleasure to read Hilary Radner University of Otago New Zealand Contemporary American Cinema deepens our knowledge of American cinema since the 1960s This is an important collection that will be widely used in university classrooms Lee Grieveson University College London UK Contemporary American Cinema is a clear sighted and tremendously readable anthology mapping the terrain of post sixties US cinema with breadth and critical verve Paul Grainge University of Nottingham UK This collection of freshly written essays by leading specialists in the field will most likely be one of the most important works of reference for students and film scholars for years to come Liv Hausken University of Oslo Norway Contemporary American Cinema is the first comprehensive introduction to American cinema since 1960 The book is unique in its treatment of both Hollywood alternative and non mainstream cinema Critical essays from leading film scholars are supplemented by boxed profiles of key directors producers and actors key films and key genres and statistics from the cinema industry Illustrated in colour and black and white with film stills posters and production images the book has two tables of contents allowing students to use the book chronologically decade by decade or thematically by subject Designed especially for courses in cinema studies and film studies cultural studies and American studies Contemporary American Cinema features a glossary of key terms fully referenced resources and suggestions for further reading questions for class discussion and a comprehensive filmography Individual chapters include The decline of the studio system The rise of American new wave cinema The history of the blockbuster The parallel histories of independent and underground film Black cinema from blaxploitation to the 1990s Changing audiences The effects of new technology Comprehensive overview of US documentary from 1960 to the present Contributors include Stephen Prince Steve Neale Susan Jeffords Yvonne Tasker Barbara Klinger Jim Hillier Peter Kramer Mark Shiel Sheldon Hall Eithne Quinn Michele Aaron Jonathan Munby Reel Time Robert Morris Seiler, Tamara Palmer Seiler, 2013 In this authoritative work Seiler and Seiler argue that the establishment and development of moviegoing and movie exhibition in Prairie Canada is best understood in the context of changing late nineteenth century and early twentieth century social economic and technological developments From the first entrepreneurs who attempted to lure customers into movie exhibition halls to the digital revolution and its impact on moviegoing Reel Time highlights the pivotal role of amusement venues in shaping the leisure activities of working and middle class people across North America As marketing efforts the lavish interiors of the movie palace and the romantic view of the local movie theatre concealed a competitive environment in which producers exhibitors and distributors tried to monopolize the industry and drive their rivals out of business The pitched battles and power struggles between national movie theatre chains took place at the same time that movie exhibitors launched campaigns to reassure moviegoers that theatres were no longer the unclean and immoral places of amusement of yesteryear. Under the leadership of impresarios, the movie theatre rose up from these attacks to become an important social and cultural centre, one deemed suitable for women and children. An innovative examination of moviegoing as a social practice and movie exhibition as a commercial enterprise, Reel Time depicts how the industry shaped the development of the Canadian Prairie West and propelled the region into the modern era.
