Re Education Of The American Working Class:

The Re-education of the American Working Class Steven London, Elvira Tarr, Joseph Wilson, 1990-10-17 This work brings together articles and papers by union leaders activists social scientists and educators to provide an overview of the field of worker education Along with presenting the major historical models of worker education the book addresses the present issues confronting worker educators today The book s final sections present alternative models of worker education that illustrate a variety of approaches currently being employed All selections found in this volume represent original contributions not published elsewhere The first section of the book considers the field of worker education from four levels of social determinism institutional ideological pedagogical and personal The second part focuses on three historical stages of worker education The articles cover the early radical phase of worker education the period of union university cooperation and the current dominant union sponsored model of worker education The third section considers issues which have risen from worker education s history institutional configurations and worker education s place in modern American society The final section of the book presents evaluations of working alternatives to the dominant models of worker education The authors not only discuss specific programs and institutions but they do so in the context of the historical models outlined in the first two sections and the issues raised in Part 3 This book will be of value to students of the social science and education disciplines adult and labor educators trade unionists and others interested in this burgeoning field Activist Rhetorics and American Higher Education, 1885-1937 Susan Kates, 2001 In this study of the history of rhetoric education Susan Kates focuses on the writing and speaking instruction developed at three academic institutions founded to serve three groups of students most often excluded from traditional institutions of higher education in late nineteenth and early twentieth century America white middle class women African Americans and members of the working class Kates provides a detailed look at the work of those students and teachers ostracized from rhetorical study at traditional colleges and universities She explores the pedagogies of educators Mary Augusta Jordan of Smith College in Northhampton Massachusetts Hallie Quinn Brown of Wilberforce University in Wilberforce Ohio and Josephine Colby Helen Norton and Louise Budenz of Brookwood Labor College in Katonah New York These teachers sought to enact forms of writing and speaking instruction incorporating social and political concerns in the very essence of their pedagogies They designed rhetoric courses characterized by three important pedagogical features a profound respect for and awareness of the relationship between language and identity and a desire to integrate this awareness into the curriculum politicized writing and speaking assignments designed to help students interrogate their marginalized standing within the larger culture in terms of their gender race or social class and an emphasis on service and social responsibility The 60-Year Curriculum Christopher Dede, John Richards, 2020-03-31 The 60 Year Curriculum explores models and strategies for lifelong learning in an era of profound economic disruption and reinvention Over the next half century globalization regional threats to sustainability climate change and technologies such as artificial intelligence and data mining will transform our education and workforce sectors In turn higher education must shift to offer every student life wide opportunities for the continuous upskilling they will need to achieve decades of worthwhile employability This cutting edge book describes the evolution of new models covering computer science inclusive design critical thinking civics and more by which universities can increase learners trajectories across multiple careers from mid adolescence to retirement Stakeholders in workforce development curriculum and instructional design lifelong learning and higher and continuing education will find a unique synthesis offering valuable insights and actionable next steps

Community and the World Torry D. Dickinson,2003 This collection of articles and artwork examines inclusive community development education which engages members of diverse often marginalised groups in research and education for social change Community development education is the democratic and scholarly practice of involving everyday people from all backgrounds in the research based process of designing starting and evaluating programs that meet people s needs The book s varied contributions serve as personalised invitations to work with others as equals join democratic social projects talk to people you wouldn t have talked to before value self education recognise contributions made by unpaid workers invent ways to be non violent challenge passivity and use democracy as a way to improve communities and the world Addressing culture to science chapters contain work carried out by younger and older scholarly activists in Women s Studies anti racist and anti colonial studies history the social sciences global studies community studies media studies horticulture philosophy education co operatives and community service social movement organising project development political art and popular music Each chapter contains diverse themes comes from multidisciplinary research and speaks to the subject of education for social change in individual ways Contributions focus on popular education self education self defined group education group defined university projects and scholarly activism in local to global movements Civic Labors Dennis A. Deslippe,Eric Fure-Slocum,John W. McKerley,2016-10-17 Labor studies scholars and working class historians have long worked at the crossroads of academia and activism The essays in this collection examine the challenges and opportunities for engaged scholarship in the United States and abroad A diverse roster of contributors discuss how participation in current labor and social struggles guides their campus and community organizing public history initiatives teaching mentoring and other activities They also explore the role of research and scholarship in social change while acknowledging that intellectual labor complements but never replaces collective action and movement building Contributors Kristen Anderson Daniel E Atkinson James R Barrett Susan Roth Breitzer Susan Chandler Sam Davies Dennis Deslippe Eric Fure Slocum Colin Gordon Michael Innis Jim nez Stephanie Luce Joseph A McCartin John W McKerley Matthew M Mettler Stephen Meyer David Montgomery Kim E Nielsen Peter Rachleff Ralph Scharnau Jennifer Sherer Shelton Stromquist Emily E LB Twarog and John Williams Searle Reimagining Popular Notions of American Intellectualism Kelly Bradbury,2016-03-02 In Reimagining Popular Notions of American Intellectualism Kelly Susan Bradbury challenges the image of the lazy media obsessed American by examining and reimagining widespread conceptions of American intellectualism that assume intellectual activity is situated solely in elite institutions of higher education      Education and Cultural Studies Henry A. Giroux, Patrick Shannon, 2013-12-02 Although the disciplines of critical education and cultural studies have traditionally occupied separate spaces as they have addressed different audiences their concerns as well as the political and pedagogical nature of their work overlap Education and Cultural Studies brings members of these two groups together to demonstrate how a critical understanding of culture and education can transgressively implement broad political change All written from within this framework of cultural studies and critical pedagogy the contributors illuminate the possibilities and opportunities open to practicing educators In eschewing a romantic utopianism and in assessing the current climate of what is attainable and practical this book teaches us how we can begin to translate and perhaps even transform the vexing social problems that confront us daily Contributors include Carol Becker Harvey J Kaye David Theo Goldberg Jeffrey Williams Sharon Todd Douglas Kellner Deborah Britzman Jacqueline Reid Walsh Claudia Mitchell Cameron McCarthy Mike Hill Susan Searls Stanley Aronowitz Douglas Noble Kakie Urch Henry Giroux David Trend and Robert Mikilitsch      Racism in Contemporary America Meyer Weinberg, 1996-05-23 Racism in Contemporary America is the largest and most up to date bibliography available on current research on the topic It has been compiled by award winning researcher Meyer Weinberg who has spent many years writing and researching contemporary and historical aspects of racism Almost 15 000 entries to books articles dissertations and other materials are organized under 87 subject headings In addition there are author and ethnic racial indexes Several aids help the researcher access the materials included In addition to the subject organization of the bibliography entries are annotated whenever the title is not self explanatory An author index is followed by an ethnic racial index which makes it convenient to follow a single group through any or all the subject headings This is a source book for the serious study of America s most enduring problem as such it will be of value to students and researchers at all levels and in most disciplines      Workers' Education in the Global South Linda Cooper, 2020-03-31 Workers Education in the Global South explores the historical development of radical workers education in South Africa as one particular strand within the broader tradition of radical adult education Drawing on the theoretical resources of Activity Theory Gramsci Freire and others it investigates the key features of workers education as a form of pedagogy with a unique history and logic of practice and explores how it has been shaped by its location within labour and other social movements as well as its southern location within the global political economy Successive chapters explore its counter hegemonic but contested purposes its knowledge practices that seek to overcome the historical divide between intellectual and manual labour and a pedagogy which often assumes didactic forms but which retains a democratic character through its embeddedness in working class experience It illustrates the rich processes of experiential learning that happen through day to day organising in workers cultural activity as well as through mass action It argues that this tradition of workers education currently stands at a crossroads as global neoliberal market policies and post apartheid education and training policies threaten to undermine its radical social vision and concludes by offering ideas on how this tradition of radical workers education might be renewed Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education Arthur L. Wilson, Elisabeth Hayes, 2009-04-27 Sponsored by the American Association of Adult Continuing Education This monumental work is a testimony to the science of adult education and the skills of Wilson and Hayes It is a veritable feast for nourishing our understanding of the current field of adult education The editors and their well chosen colleagues consistently question how we know and upon what grounds we act They invite us to consider not only how we can design effective adult education but also why we practice in a particular socio economic context Jane Vella author of Taking Learning to Task and Learning to Listen Learning to Teach This new handbook captures the exciting intellectual and professional development of our field in the last decade It is an indispensable resource for faculty students and professionals Jack Mezirow emeritus professor Adult and Continuing Education Teachers College Columbia University For nearly seventy years the handbooks of adult and continuing education have been definitive references on the best practices programs and institutions in the field In this new edition over sixty leading authorities share their diverse perspectives in a single volume exploring a wealth of topics including learning from experience adult learning for self development race and culture in adult learning technology and distance learning learning in the workplace adult education for community action and development and much more Much more than a catalogue of theory and historical facts this handbook strongly reflects the values of adult educators and instructors who are dedicated to promoting social and educational opportunity for learners and to sustaining fair and ethical practices Mutual Aid and Union Renewal Samuel B. Bacharach, Peter A. Bamberger, William J. Sonnenstuhl, 2018-08-06 The ongoing decline in union membership is generally attributed to an increasingly hostile economic legal and managerial environment Samuel B Bacharach Peter A Bamberger and William J Sonnenstuhl argue that the decline may have more to do with a crisis of union legitimacy and member commitment They further suggest that both problems could be addressed if the unions return to their nineteenth century mutual aid based roots The authors contend that the labor movement is characterized by two models of union member relations the mutual aid logic and the servicing logic The first predominated in the early days and encouraged a sense of community among members who worked to support one another In the twentieth century it was largely replaced by the servicing model which asks little of members who remain loyal only if their leaders deliver increasing wages and benefits Regaining legitimacy and strengthening member commitment can only happen the authors claim if mutual aid logic is allowed to return They examine three unions in the transportation industry to judge the effectiveness of new programs created after the old model George Washington's Enforcers Harry M. Ward, 2006-03-24 Ward relates how the enlisted men who had a propensity for troublemaking and desertion not only were victims of the double standard that existed between officers and regular troops but also lacked legal protection in the army The enforcement of military justice afforded the accused with little due process support Ward discusses the duties of the various personnel responsible for training and enforcing the standards of behavior including duty officers adjutants brigade majors inspectors and sergeant majors He includes the roles of life guards camp guards quarter guards picket men and safe guards whose responsibilities ranged from escorting the commander in chief intercepting spies and stragglers and protecting farmers from marauding soldiers to searching for deserters rounding up unauthorized personnel and looking for delinquents in local towns and taverns

On Class, Race, and Educational Reform Antonia Darder, Cleveland Hayes II, Howard Ryan, 2023-03-23 On Class Race and Educational Reform provokes new dialogue between Marxists critical race theory scholars and other race inspired educational theorists with the aim of countering racism and class inequalities The book opens with a lead chapter by Howard Ryan a doctoral student with a background in teaching and labor organizing that substantively engages questions of class race and educational reform In response to the opening chapter educational theorists from Germany South Africa the UK and the USA provide insightful and penetrating responses highlighting the differences and similarities in perspectives The responses show how educators can overcome theoretical differences to create international collaborations and educational campaigns of solidarity that counter the treacherous impact of racism and class inequalities in the classroom and beyond The book includes a Foreword by Stephen Brookfield University of St Thomas USA and an Afterword by Cheryl Matias University of Kentucky USA

Learning Outside the Academy Richard Edwards, Jim Gallacher, Susan Whittaker, 2006-11-22 This book weaves together different strands of research in the area of lifelong learning that concentrates particularly on learning in alternative settings and ways such experiential learning and informal and community learning Drawing upon international research the book examines how these strands of research can contribute to each other The contributions to this book are based on material presented at a conference at the Centre for Research in Lifelong Learning UK and they focus on research into key issues of policy and practice in lifelong learning Establishing a wider framework for debate about the meaning and significance of lifelong learning this timely and thought provoking book provides practitioners in the field with a relevant and current discussion on some very important ideas about non formal education

In the Company of Scholars Julius Getman, 2010-07-22 I began this book to articulate my sense of disappointment and alienation from the status I had fought so hard to achieve A remarkable admission from an alumnus of Harvard Law School who has held tenured professorships in the law schools of Yale and Stanford and has taught in the law schools of Harvard and Chicago In this personal reflection on the status of higher education Julius Getman probes the tensions between status and meaning elitism and egalitarianism that challenge the academy and academics today He shows how higher education creates a shared intellectual community among people of varied races and classes while simultaneously dividing people on the basis of education and status In the course of his explorations Getman touches on many of the most current issues in higher education today including the conflict between teaching and research challenges to academic freedom the struggle over multiculturalism and the impact of minority and feminist activism Getman presents these issues through relevant often humorous anecdotes using his own and others experiences in coping with the constantly changing academic landscape Written from a liberal perspective the book offers another side of the story told in such works as Allan Bloom's The Closing of the American Mind and Roger Kimball's Tenured Radicals World Yearbook of Education 2007 Lesley Farrell, Tara Fenwick, 2007-03-12 The 2007 edition of this respected international volume considers the challenges facing work related education arising from the rapid expansion of the global economy and the impact of this on labour markets and individual workers Including perspectives from the US UK Canada Australia Africa Eastern Europe Central Asia South America India and South Africa the 2007 volume is split into four clear sections covering key topics such as the current global context when all work even local is influenced by global economic activity workers are expected to engage in lifelong learning but also be mobile and deal with rapidly changing working knowledge work related education must prepare workers for the global economy and specific contexts where governments attract global companies by promoting education and literate workforces how the responsibility for providing work education is distributed between schools vocational education HE professional bodies local and global companies governments the private sector and individuals the pressures on formal education and training institutions to produce graduates with certain kinds of knowledge skills and personal attributes Race and Labor Matters in the New U.S. Economy Joseph Wilson, Manning Marable, Immanuel Ness, 2006 In this powerful new work Marable Ness and Wilson maintain that contrary to the popular hubris about equality race is entrenched and more divisive than any time since the Civil Rights Movement Race and Labor in the United States asserts that all advances in American race relations have only evolved through conflict and collective struggle The foundation of the class divide in the United States remains while racial and ethnic segregation privilege and domination and the institution of neoliberalism have become a detriment to all workers Lifelong Education Paul Bélanger, Ettore Gelpi, 1995-05-31 The basic aim of this special issue is to focus on the profound change of tendency in education that is taking place at both the national and international level At a time when education and lifelong learning are increasingly merging into one process it is important to examine the ways in which educational policies and practices are evolving Consequently we invited a variety of contributors both men and women coming from different regions and encompassing both research and practice to identify significant phenomena and trends that are indicative of the ways in which systems of education are responding to new social and cultural demands We asked our contributors to show how educational reality in different countries is no longer confined within the temporal and spatial limits of institutional education to indicate how models of educational practice are changing to examine the extent to which the traditional cycles of human life are shifting their boundaries and to describe how these changes are manifesting themselves in different national contexts in both South and North We also asked our authors to pose questions raised by this educational revolution We have included 17 contributions some of the authors analysing particular national situations others drawing questions and observations from their own experiences or taking a searching look at education from the perspective of a practical involvement in social issues or from a background of research into popular arts and traditions      Silk Stockings and Socialism Sharon McConnell-Sidorick,2017-02-23 The 1920s Jazz Age is remembered for flappers and speakeasies not for the success of a declining labor movement A more complex story was unfolding among the young women and men in the hosiery mills of Kensington the working class heart of Philadelphia Their product was silk stockings the iconic fashion item of the flapper culture then sweeping America and the world Although the young people who flooded into this booming industry were avid participants in Jazz Age culture they also embraced a surprising rights based labor movement headed by the socialist led American Federation of Full Fashioned Hosiery Workers AFFFHW In this first history of this remarkable union Sharon McConnell Sidorick reveals how activists ingeniously fused youth culture and radical politics to build a subculture that included dances and parties as well as picket lines and sit down strikes while forging a vision for social change In documenting AFFFHW members and the Kensington community McConnell Sidorick shows how labor federations like the Congress of Industrial Organizations and government programs like the New Deal did not spring from the heads of union leaders or policy experts but were instead nurtured by grassroots social movements across America      International Encyclopedia of Adult Education L. English,2016-04-30 The Encyclopedia of Adult Education is the first comprehensive reference work in this important and fast growing field and is an invaluable resource for adult educators who research and teach in the fields of higher education work in community based settings or practise in public or private organizations Its 170 articles written by an international team of contributors from over 17 countries detail the research and practice of the field from its emergence as a separate discipline to the present day covering key concepts issues and individuals and providing a cutting edge summary of ongoing debates across a wide range of perspectives from self directed learning to human resource development Entries are arranged A Z and extensive cross referenced with detailed bibliographies for each topic to facilitate further research
