Re Encounters In China:

Re-encounters in China Harold Robert Isaacs, 1985      Re-encounters in China Harold Robert Isaacs, 1985      The Tragedy of the Chinese Revolution Harold Isaacs, 2010 The story of contemporary China typically dates back to Mao's 1949 revolution But in this classic work of Marxist scholarship historian Harold Isaacs uncovers how workers and peasants struggled for a different kind of revolution one built from the bottom up in the 1920s The defeat of their heroic efforts profoundly shaped the further course of modern Chinese history Harold Isaacs was an acclaimed Marxist historian who identified with Leon Trotsky's critique of the Soviet Union's degeneration under Stalinism during the 1920s The Tragedy his major work is dedicated to the martyrs of the 1925-1927 revolution who fought for a truly democratic society      Policy Conflicts in Post-Mao China: A Documentary Survey with Analysis John P. Burns, Stanley Rosen, 2016-07-08 This is a collection of essays exploring the deep rooted problems presented by the Three Gorges dam project that the Chinese government are trying to disguise or suppress brought together by Dai Qing an investigative journalist at the risk of her own freedom      Foreigners and Foreign Institutions in Republican China Anne-Marie Brady, Douglas Brown, 2013 Republican China attracted an uncommon diversity of foreign interests groups and individuals which included missionaries adventurers diplomats academics humanitarians and refugees as well as hedonists and tourists By exploring the diverse nature of foreign activities in Republican China this book complicates the dominant narratives of the imperialistic foreigner and Chinese victim and moves beyond the depiction of foreigners as privileged and the Chinese as simply weak The spaces and relationships examined in the essays in this volume reveal a complex series of interactions between foreigners and the people of China which go far beyond one way transmission or exploitation Indeed this book examines how diverse and sometimes seemingly peripheral foreign individuals and communities influenced literature education trade sexual morality warfare and architecture in China and in the process were themselves profoundly changed in ways that are as remarkable as those experienced by the Chinese they had come to observe meet exploit conquer assist or change Bringing together the work of a diverse group of scholars on Republican China this edited volume adopts a uniquely multi disciplinary approach to the study of foreigners in China and utilises the perspectives of historiography literary studies cultural studies sociology anthropology and political science As such this interesting and innovative book will be of great interest to students and scholars from diverse fields including Chinese and global history politics and international relations Chinese studies literary studies and gender studies      Jews in China Irene Eber, 2019-10-21 Irene Eber was one of the foremost authorities on Jews in China during the twentieth and twenty first centuries a field that in contrast to the study of the Jewish diaspora in Europe and the Americas has been critically neglected This volume gathers fourteen of Eber's most salient articles and essays on the exchanges between Jewish and Chinese cultures making available to students scholars and general readers a representative sample of the range and depth of her important work in the field of Jews in China Jews in China delineates the centuries long reciprocal dialogue between Jews Jewish culture and China all under the overarching theme of cultural translation The first section of the book sets forth a sweeping overview of the history of Jews in China beginning in the twelfth century and concluding with a detailed assessment of the two crucial years leading up to the Second World War The second section examines the translation of Chinese classics into Hebrew and the translation of the Hebrew Bible into Chinese The third and final section turns to modern literature bringing together eight essays that underscore the cultural reciprocity that takes place through acts of translation The centuries long relationship between Judaism and China is often overlooked in the light of the extensive discourse surrounding European and American Judaism With this volume Eber reminds us that we have much to learn from the intersections between Jewish identity and Chinese culture State ,1987 Energy in China's Modernization Vaclav Smil,2019-07-31 A selection of 50 Slovak folk tales assembled from the collections of folklorist Pavol Dobsinsky The translator seeks to preserve the poetic qualities of the originals and the book includes an introduction to the genres of the folktale and the specifics of Slovak tales Season of High Adventure S. Bernard Thomas,2024-06-07 In 1928 Edgar Snow 1905 1972 set out to see the world hoping to make his mark as a travel adventure writer Shanghai was to be a mere stopover but Snow stayed on in China for thirteen more years The idealistic young Midwesterner became a journalist and ultimately developed close friendships with China s emerging revolutionary leaders His 1938 classic Red Star over China strongly influenced American views of the Chinese Communists and is still in print nearly sixty years later This biography breaks fresh ground with its unique and extensive use of Snow s diaries of over forty years These writings convey Snow s private hopes and fears his moods and motivations Thomas skillfully links them with Snow s public writings and deeds By recreating the milieu in which Snow worked in China Thomas provides a clearer understanding of both the man and his times Snow came to China devoid of any political agenda or sinological background He returned home a politically astute China hand and famed journalist author His writing had taken on the nature of political action which resulted in troubled soul searching that Snow usually confined to his diary Thomas s portrait of Ed Snow reveals a man caught up in an important historical moment a man who profoundly influenced and was influenced by the events that swirled around him This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997 Wuhan, 1938 Stephen R. MacKinnon,2008-05-21 During the spring of 1938 a flood of Chinese refugees displaced by the Anti Japanese War 1937 1945 converged on the central Yangzi valley tricity complex of Wuhan For ten remarkable months in a highly charged atmosphere of carnage heroism and desperation Wuhan held out against the Japanese in what would become a turning point in the war and one that attracted international attention Stephen MacKinnon for the first time tells the full story of Wuhan s defense and fall and how the siege s aftermath led to new directions in the history of modern Chinese culture society and politics      Red Friends John Sexton, 2023-02-21 China's resistance to Imperial Japan was the other great internationalist cause of the red 1930s along with the Spanish Civil War. These desperate and bloody struggles were personified in the lives of Norman Bethune and others who volunteered in both conflicts. The story of Red Friends starts in the 1920s when encouraged by the newly formed Communist International Chinese nationalists and leftists united to fight warlords and foreign domination. John Sexton has unearthed the histories of foreigners who joined the Chinese revolution. He follows Comintern militants, journalists, spies, adventurers, Trotskyists and mission kids whose involvement helped and sometimes hindered China's revolutionaries. Most were internationalists who while strongly identifying with China's struggle saw it as just one theatre in a world revolution. The present rulers in Beijing, however buoyed by China's powerhouse economy, commemorate them as foreign friends who aided China's peaceful rise to great power status. Red Friends is part of Verso's growing China list which includes China's Revolution in the Modern World and China in One Village. Founded on original research, it is a stirring story of idealists struggling against the odds to found a better future. The author's interviews with survivors and descendants add colour and humanity to lives both heroic and tragic.

Jewish Identities in East and Southeast Asia Jonathan Goldstein, 2015-11-13 The Jewish communities of East and Southeast Asia display an impressive diversity. Jonathan Goldstein's book covers the period from 1750 and focuses on seven of the area's largest cities and trading emporia: Singapore, Manila, Taipei, Harbin, Shanghai, Rangoon and Surabaya. The book isolates five factors which contributed to the formation of transnational, multiethnic and multicultural identity: memory, colonialism, regional nationalism, socialism and Zionism. It emphasizes those factors which preserved specifically Judaic aspects of identity. Drawing extensively on interviews conducted in all seven cities as well as governmental, institutional, commercial and personal archives, censuses and cemetery data, the book provides overviews of communal life and intimate portraits of leading individuals and families. Jews were engaged in everything from business and finance to revolutionary activity. Some collaborated with the Japanese while others confronted them on the battlefield. The book attempts to treat fully and fairly the wide spectrum of Jewish experience ranging from that of the ultra Orthodox to the completely secular.

White World Order, Black Power Politics Robert Vitalis, 2015-12-09 Racism and imperialism are the twin forces that propelled the course of the United States in the world in the early twentieth century and in turn affected the way that diplomatic history and international relations were taught and understood in the American academy. Evolutionary theory, social Darwinism and racial anthropology had been dominant doctrines in international relations from its beginnings; racist attitudes informed research priorities and were embedded in newly formed professional organizations. In White World Order, Black Power Politics, Robert Vitalis recovers the arguments, texts and institution building of an extraordinary group of professors at Howard University including Alain Locke, Ralph Bunche, Rayford Logan, Eric Williams and Merze Tate, who was the first black female professor of political science in the country. Within the rigidly segregated profession the Howard School of International Relations represented the most important center of opposition to racism and the focal point for theorizing feasible alternatives to dependency and domination for Africans and African Americans through the early 1960s Vitalis pairs the contributions of white and black scholars to reconstitute forgotten historical dialogues and show the critical role played by race in the formation of international relations Chen Hansheng: China's Last Romantic Revolutionary Stephen R. MacKinnon, 2023-09-26 Chen Hansheng was not only a pioneer of modern Chinese social science remembered for the village studies he organized by teams of researchers in the 1930s He was also a political operative whose career as an underground and aboveground Communist activist spanned the twentieth century and the globe This book draws on unique interviews beginning in 1979 with Chen himself his family and associates along with an exhaustive examination of documents writings and archives to build a rounded portrait of Chen the man and his world

Facing Japan Parks M. Coble, 2020-03-17 In Facing Japan Parks M Coble focuses on how events that took place during the Japanese occupation of Manchuria from 1931 until war erupted in 1937 affected the Chinese government and public opinion Both in the places where incidents occurred and in other centres of power Japanese threats attacks and economic demands pressed Nationalist China relentlessly and aroused popular indignation Throughout most of the period Chiang kai Shek was trying to wrest control of China from all domestic rivals Aware that his army was inferior to Japan s his Nationalist government repeatedly made concessions in response to Japanese provocations Chiang busied himself with anti Communist campaigns leaving others to take public responsibility for his unpopular appeasement policies For such crises as the Mukden Incident and the Japanese attack on Shanghai Coble examines the tension that Chiang s policy caused within the Kuomintang and the alternatives put forward by other major leaders both inside and outside the government To further explore the political complexities of the day Coble traces the actions of regional leaders and their constantly changing relations to the central government in Nanking reviews editorials of various newspapers and chronicles the actions of student organizations and patriotic associations Reform in China B.L. Reynolds, 2016-07-08 This work includes every Supreme Court case relevant to gender and sexual equality from 1787 to the end of the 1999 2000 term It is a primary document reference book organized in eight chapters including civil and social rights and duties morality and sexual ethics and education policies

Architecture and the Landscape of Modernity in China before 1949 Edward Denison, 2017-02-17 This book explores China s encounter with architecture and modernity in the tumultuous epoch before Communism an encounter that was mediated not by a singular notion of modernism emanating from the west but that was uniquely multifarious deriving from a variety of sources both from the west and importantly from the east The heterogeneous origins of modernity in China are what make its experience distinctive and its architectural encounters exceptional These experiences are investigated through a re evaluation of established knowledge of the subject within the wider landscape of modern art practices in China The study draws on original archival and photographic material from different artistic genres and architecturally concentrates on China's engagement with the west through the treaty ports and leased territories the emergence of architecture as a profession in China and Japan's omnipresence not least in Manchuria which reached its apogee in the puppet state of Manchukuo The study's geographically temporally and architecturally inclusive approach framed by the concept of multiple modernities questions the application of conventional theories of modernity or post colonialism to the Chinese situation By challenging conventional modernist historiography that has marginalised the experiences of the west's other for much of the last century this book proposes different ways of grappling with and comprehending the distinction and complexity of China's experiences and its encounter with architectural modernity Humour in Chinese Life and Letters

Jessica Milner Davis, Jocelyn Chey, 2011-12-01 The present study emphasizes Chapter Six of Huai nan Tzu in expounding the theory of kan ying STIMULUS RESPONSE RESONANCE which postulates that all things in the universe are interrelated and influence each other according to pre set patterns The Chinese Communist Party During the Cultural Revolution P.

Lubell, 2001-12-17 In 1936 a group of Chinese communists were released from jail after a humiliating renunciation of communism The Chinese Communist Party then secretly employed them to galvanise support in nationalist areas of the country It later condemned the members of this group as renegades before finally rehabilitating them in 1978 Pamela Lubell uncovers the fascinating history of these communists known as the Sixty one and in doing so produces a revealing account of the tensions within the Chinese Communist Party The Black Pacific Narrative Etsuko Taketani, 2014-11-04 The Black Pacific Narrative Geographic Imaginings of Race and Empire between the World Wars chronicles the profound shift in geographic imaginings that occurred in African American culture as the United States evolved into a bioceanic global power The author examines the narrative of the black Pacific _the literary and cultural production of African American narratives in the face of America's efforts to internationalize the Pacific and to institute a Pacific Community reflecting a vision of a hemispheric regional order initiated and led by the United States The black Pacific was imagined in counterpoint to this regional order in the making which would ultimately be challenged by the Pacific War The principal subjects of study include such literary and cultural figures as James Weldon Johnson George S Schuyler artists of the black Federal Theatre Project Langston Hughes W E B Du Bois and Walter White all of whom afford significant points of entry to a critical understanding of the stakes of the black Pacific narrative Adopting an approach that mixes the archival and the interpretive the author seeks to recover the black Pacific produced by African American narratives narratives that were significant enough in their time to warrant surveillance and suspicion and hence are significant enough in our time to warrant scholarly attention and reappraisal A compelling study that will appeal to a broad international audience of students and scholars of American studies African American studies American literature and imperialism and colonialism
