Multiple Voices John Byng-Hall, Renos K. Papadopoulos, 2018-04-24 Part of the Tavistock Clinic Series this book focuses on narrative and stories in Family Systems Therapy particularly on how stories develop within the domain of a therapist's own theoretical clinical and professional contexts The aim is to allow the reader to understand the uses of stories in family therapy This book offers a comprehensive overview of issues related to narrative which appear in a family therapy setting Originally embarking on a joint project to share clinical experience members of the Family Systems Group at the Tavistock Clinic discovered that what was common in their work was their emphasis on narrative This discovery led in time to the development of a shared discourse about their diverse approaches to narrative which are carefully reflected in the contributions in this volume Part One sets out the context of narrative with contributions on bilingualism and the family's experience of therapy ending with a thought provoking critique of narrative Part Two concentrates on applications of these ideas providing analysis of multiple narratives in illness and loss gender and language neonatal care adoption divorce and refugee families

Clinical Handbook of Couple Therapy, Fourth Edition Alan S. Gurman, 2008-06-24 This authoritative handbook provides a definitive overview of the theory and practice of couple therapy Noted contributors many of whom developed the approaches they describe combine clear conceptual exposition with thorough descriptions of therapeutic techniques In addition to presenting major couple therapy models in step by step detail the book describes effective applications for particular populations and problems Chapters adhere closely to a uniform structure to facilitate study and comparison enhancing the book's utility as a reference and text See also Clinical Casebook of Couple Therapy also edited by Alan S Gurman which presents in depth illustrations of treatment

Masters of Narrative and Collaborative Therapies Tapio Malinen, Scot J. Cooper, Frank N. Thomas, 2013-06-17 Tom Andersen Harlene Anderson and Michael White have shaped the landscapes of dialogical collaborative and narrative therapies This unique book archives one of their gatherings and in the spirit of therapeutic practice is conversational and captures the presentations and exchanges between the three main contributors and international discussants Tom Andersen invites us along to navigate the forks in the road he faced in his emerging career and he revisits the development of his pioneering ideas such as reflecting teams Harlene Anderson paints the picture of her experiences in collaboration with women in Bosnia Michael White co founder of the narrative therapy tradition then provides a clear example of the frontiers of collaborative post modern therapies Through the introduction of the theory and application of Vygotskian ideas Michael excites the reader about what is possible to know and do in a therapeutic conversation

Design through Dialogue Karen A. Franck, Teresa von Sommaruga Howard, 2010-02-15 Completed projects receive more public attention than the process of their creation and so the myth that architects design buildings alone lives on In fact architects work with a great many others and the relationships that develop particularly with clients have a significant impact on design Design through Dialogue explores the relationship between client and architect
