Re Reading The Postwar Period An Intellectual Itinerary:

Re-Reading the Postwar Period Samir Amin,1994 Colonialism and the Bible Tat-siong Benny Liew,Fernando F. Segovia,2018-04-11 This volume addresses the problematic relationship between colonialism and the Bible It does so from the perspective of the Global South calling upon voices from Africa and the Middle East Asia and the Pacific and Latin America and the Caribbean The contributors address the present state of the problematic relationship in their respective geopolitical and geographical contexts In so doing they provide sharp analyses of the past the present and the future historical contexts and trajectories contemporary legacies and junctures and future projects and strategies Taken together the essays provide a rich and expansive comparative framework across the globe Obsolescent Capitalism Samir Amin,2003-12 A political autobiography from one of the 21st century s most prominent radical intellectuals this title provides unique insights into how radical movements have evolved in response to global capitalism The Oxford Handbook of Economic Imperialism Zak Cope,Immanuel Ness,2022 Including thirty four chapters written by academics and experts in the field of international political economy The Oxford Handbook of Economic Imperialism examines the history of economic imperialism from the early modern age to the present The Handbook demonstrates the persistence of economic imperialism in today s postcolonial world and the enduring control wielded by great powers even after the end of formal empire Moreover the Handbook reveals how emerging powers are expanding economic control in new geographic and geopolitical contexts and highlights the significance of economic imperialism in the structures relations processes and ideas that sustain poverty and conflict worldwide Religions/Globalizations Dwight N. Hopkins,2001-10-03 A collection of essays demonstrating the ways diverse religious rituals symbols ethics and ideologies perform as primary planks in the construction of the public realm with particular focus on peripheral nations and politicized spiritualities of resist Japan-Africa Relations T. Lumumba-Kasongo,2010-04-26 Japan Africa Relations seeks to study the complex nature of the dynamics of power relations between Japan and Africa since the Bandung Conference in 1955 with an emphasis on the period starting from the 1970s up to the present The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Literary Studies Neil Lazarus,2004-07-15 Offers a lucid introduction to postcolonial studies one of the most important strands in recent literary theory and cultural studies Constructing China Mobo Gao,2018-07-20 From fear and anxiety to celebration China s rise has provoked a variety of responses across the world In light of this phenomenon how are our understandings of China produced From West to East Mobo Gao interrogates knowledge production rejecting the supposed objectivity of empirical statistics and challenging the assumption of a dichotomy between the Western liberal democracy and Chinese authoritarianism By examining issues such as the Chinese Neo Enlightenment and neoliberalism national interest vested in Western scholarship representations of the Great Leap Forward and the Cultural Revolution and the South China Sea the book asks how is contemporary China constructed By dissecting the political agenda and conceptual framework of commentators on China Gao provocatively urges those not only on the Right but also on the Left to be self critical of their views on Chinese politics economics and history

Capitalism's Crises Vishwas Satgar, 2015-10-01 The contributors to this volume draw on a non dogmatic Marxist approach to explain the systemic and conjunctural dynamics of crisis inherent in global capitalism Their analysis asks what is historically specific to capitalism s crises while avoiding catastrophic or defeatist claims At the same time the volume situates left agency within actual patterns of resistance and class struggle to clarify the potential for transformative change The cycle of resistance strengthened by the World Social Forum and transnational activism is now punctuated by the experience of the Arab Spring the agency of anti systemic movements left think tanks the Occupy Wall Street Movement labour unions left parties in Europe such as Syriza and Podemos and peoples budgeting in Kerala India On the down side we are witnessing the waning of the Workers Party in Brazil and serious challenges for South Africa s once powerful labour movement and still formative social justice activism All these developments are assessed in this volume This is the second volume in the Democratic Marxism series It elaborates on crucial themes introduced in the first volume Marxism in the 21st Century Crisis Critique and Struggle edited by Michelle Williams and Vishwas Satgar

KONDRATIEFF WAVES Leonid E. Grinin, Tessaleno C. Devezas, Andrey V. Korotayev, Sergey Yu. Malkov, Arno Tausch, Brian J. L. Berry, Euel Elliott, Marco Gallegati, Zenonas Norkus, Valentina M. Bondarenko, Stephen I. Ternyik, Elżbieta Mączyńska, William R. Thompson, Leo Nefiodow, Anthony Harper, Though the researchers of the theory of long and medium term cycles are certainly worried about the economic situation they understand that the cyclicity still remains an inevitable attribute of economic development And Juglar's aphorism that crisis is a consequence of the preceded prosperity is still true In this third issue of the Yearbook Kondratieff Waves with the subtitle Cycles Crises and Forecasts we present a number of insight contributions on nature regularities and interconnections among cycles of different duration Some economic cycles may result in a severe economic crisis The current one shows once again the importance of the study of cyclical dynamics and its peculiarities Between the 1980s and 1990s the Keynesian receipts were replaced by neoliberal and monetarist ones which seemed to be miraculous as well The depleted growth was marked with the largest global crisis of 2008 which also showed that within globalization when regulation in the international arena is impossible yet there recur the signs of Juglar cycles of the 19th and first half of the 20th centuries with their uncontrollable upwards and sharp declines evolving into collapses and panic This is supported by the fact that for eight years the world has been at the depressive phase This edition will be useful for economists social scientists as well as for a wide range of those interested in the problems of the past present and future of global economy and globalization This research has been supported by the Russian Foundation for the Humanities Project No 16 02 14053

The Philosophy of Antonio Negri, Volume One Timothy S. Murphy, Abdul-Karim Mustapha, 2005-05-20 This collection of essays is the first of its kind in English on the work of Antonio Negri the Italian philosopher and political theorist The spectacular success of Empire Negri's collaboration with Michael Hardt has brought Negri's writing to a new wider audience A substantial body of his writing is now available to an English speaking readership Outstanding contributors including Michael Hardt Sergio Bologna Kathi Weeks and Nick Dyer Witheford reveal the variety and complexity of Negri's thought and explore its unique relevance to modern politics Negri is one of the most sophisticated analysts of modern political philosophy Philosophers and critics alike find his work both difficult and exhilarating engaging as it does with Marx Spinoza Deleuze Guattari Tronti and others This book is ideal for readers who want to get to grips with Negri's key themes in particular his theories on labour capital power the state and revolution It makes a great introduction to his work for students of political philosophy as well as providing a comprehensive critical approach for Negri enthusiasts

A History of Spaces John Pickles, 2012-11-12 This book provides an essential insight into the practices and ideas of maps and map making It draws on a wide range of social theorists and theorists of maps and cartography to show how maps and map making have shaped the spaces in which we live Going beyond the focus of traditional cartography the book draws on examples of the use of maps from the sixteenth century to the present including their role in projects of the national and colonial state emergent capitalism and the planetary consciousness of the natural sciences It also considers the use of maps for military purposes maps that have coded modern conceptions of health disease and social character and maps of the transparent human body and the transparent earth Explaining Global Poverty ,

Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies Routes James

Clifford, 1997-04-21 When culture makes itself at home in motion where does an anthropologist stand In a follow up to The Predicament of Culture one of the defining books for anthropology in the last decade James Clifford takes the proper measure a moving picture of a world that doesn't stand still that reveals itself en route in the airport lounge and the parking lot as much as in the marketplace and the museum In this collage of essays meditations poems and travel reports Clifford takes travel and its difficult companion translation as openings into a complex modernity He contemplates a world ever more connected yet not homogeneous a global history proceeding from the fraught legacies of exploration colonization capitalist expansion immigration labor mobility and tourism Ranging from Highland New Guinea to northern California from Vancouver to London he probes current approaches to the interpretation and display of non Western arts and cultures Wherever people and things cross paths and where institutional forces work to discipline unruly encounters Clifford's concern is with struggles to displace stereotypes to recognize divergent histories to sustain postcolonial and tribal identities in contexts of domination and globalization Travel diaspora border crossing self location the making of homes away from home these are transcultural predicaments for the late twentieth century The map that might account for them the history of an entangled modernity emerges here as an unfinished series of paths and negotiations leading in many directions while returning again and again to the struggles and arts of cultural encounter the impossible inescapable tasks of translation

A Big History of Globalization Julia Zinkina, David Christian, Leonid Grinin, Ilya Ilyin, Alexey Andreev, Ivan Aleshkovski, Sergey Shulgin, Andrey Korotayev, 2019-04-12 This book presents the history of globalization as a network based story in the context of Big History Departing from the traditional historic discourse in which communities cities and states serve as the main units of analysis the authors instead trace the historical emergence growth interconnection and merging of various types of networks that have gradually encompassed the globe They also focus on the development of certain ideas processes institutions and phenomena that spread through those networks to become truly global The book specifies five macro periods in the history of globalization and comprehensively covers the first four from roughly the 9th 7th millennia BC to World War I For each period it identifies the most important network related developments that facilitated or even spurred on such transitions and had the greatest impacts on the history of globalization By analyzing the world system s transition to new levels of complexity and connectivity the book provides valuable insights into the course of Big History and the evolution of human societies

The Anticolonial Front John Munro, 2017-09-21 This is a transnational history of the activist and intellectual network that connected the Black freedom struggle in the United States to liberation movements across the globe in the aftermath of World War II John Munro charts the emergence of an anticolonial front within the postwar Black liberation movement comprising organisations such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People the Council on African Affairs and the American Society for African Culture and leading figures such as W E B Du Bois Claudia Jones Alphaeus Hunton George Padmore Richard Wright Esther Cooper Jackson Jack O Dell and C L R James Drawing on a diverse array of personal papers organisational records novels newspapers and scholarly literatures the book follows the fortunes of this political formation recasting the Cold War in light of decolonisation and racial capitalism and the postwar history of the United States in light of global developments
